with the gripe during the past week but is very much improved, we are glad to state.

Among those who are at home for the Christmas holidays we note: Miss Avis Dodd, of Baltimore county; Miss Marguerita Dodd, of Deals Island High School; Prof. W. Frazier Russell, of the Maryland School for the Blind, Baltimore; Mr. James L. Bacchus, of the Johns Hopkins University; Dr. John M. Toulson and family, of Salisbury; Dr. Houston Toulson, of Baltimore; Mr. J. Newell Graham, of the University of Maryland; Mr. and Mrs. Dale Adkins, of Salisbury; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Graham, of Baltimore; Mr. Henry Beck, of Houston, Texas.

Mr. Nicholas Denny, of Baltimore, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hall Denny.

Miss Helen Urle, of Harcourt School, New York, is at home for the Christmas holidays.

Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., and wife, expect to move into their pretty new bungalow on Queen street the first of the year.

Mrs. Elwood Burgess returned to her home in Edesville last week from Baltimore, where she had been in a hospital for special treatment. We are very glad to state that Mrs. Burgess is improving, though she will be compelled to wear a plaster cast for two years at least.

The Sunday Sun contained a striking picture of Edwin Earle, the eight-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dyer, of Havre de Grace.

Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton and daughter, Miss Clara, have been spending Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. Percy T. McFeely and family in New York. We regret to state that Mrs. McFeely is not at all well.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Vannort are spending Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. James W. Chapman, Jr., in Baltimore.

Dr. Howard Fowler, of Wells College, Aurora, New York, and Mr. T. Blackington Wroth, of the John's Hopkins University, are at home for the Christmas holidays.

Grange Notes.

Fairlee Grange held its special meeting and Christmas entertainment December 19th, at four o'clock, at which a large number was present. The hall had been very appropriately and beautifully trimmed with two large Christmas trees between which stood the familiar chimney and fireplace with stockings hung in front awaiting the arrival of Old Kris.

After the business meeting the question—"Is it More Profitable to Make Butter or Sell Milk, Which is More Progressive?" was ably discussed by Brothens W. T. Nicholson, E. A. Corey and J. P. Nicholson. Papers were also read upon the question—"Is the Summer Resident or Boarder a Benefit to the Country District?" The Christmas number of the Granger was well-edited and splendidly read by Sister Anderson. It was newsy and instructive and much enjoyed by all. Music was furnished by the choir. Brother Northam favored the grange with several selections which were given in his usual interesting manner. Sister Fletcher gave one of her interesting Christmas readings. Luncheon consisting of all varieties of sandwiches, tea and coffee was served, after which the Junior's program was heartily enjoyed. Splendid recitations were given by Pauline Hoyle, Edith Crew, Catherine Watson, Mabel Hatcherson, Mildred Fletcher, Marion Crew, Louise Startt and Morris Bramble, Jr. Instrumental music was furnished by Elizabeth Wood. A drama of special interest was given by Fairlee school under the management of Miss Linda Morris for which she is to be highly commended. Following the entertainment Santa Claus appeared giving a box of candy to all of the grangers' children and to those who had taken part in the exercises, also distributed a number to the senior members of the grange.

The State Grange held a very interesting two days' meeting in Baltimore this week at which many subjects of importance to the Grangers were discussed, and much legislation to be introduced at the next session of the Legislature affecting the agricultural interests of the state was proposed. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, B. John Black, Baltimore county; overseer, U. M. Gladhill, Carroll county; lecturer, Reuben Brigham, Montgomery county; Steward, S. S. Stabler, Charles county; chaplain, J. T. Anthony; treasurer, C. S. Maloy, Prince George's county, and secretary, E. L. Hartshorne, Montgomery county. Wm. G. Smyth, of Kent, is a member of the Committee on Maryland Agricultural College.

The Grange favored the National Prohibition Amendment. Other propositions advocated were: Placing of nitrate of Ammonia on the free list for the direct benefit of the farmer; extension of the food and seed inspection work of the State; that the County Commissioners of each county be authorized to appropriate half the cost of carrying on the demonstration work of the experiment station in that county; that the State grind lime for farmers for cost; free distribution of hog cholera serum in emergency cases; investigation of gambling in food products at the expense of the farmer.

Another Supply of Lawyers.—Among the fifty-eight lawyers turned out by the State Board of Law Examiners at a recent examination, we note the names of Robert J. Gill, son of Rev. John M. Gill, of the Maryland Conference, now stationed at Seattle, Washington State, and Rev. Nathaniel T. McGinniss, also identified with the Methodist Protestant Church. The name Cecil Vernon Goslee, a graduate Washington College, who is remembered here with much pleasure, appears in the list.
