PRESIDENT WILSON will show his critics how small and insignificant they are before the close of 1915. The President enjoys the confidence of the people to a degree not experienced by any President since the days of Lincoln, and the type of his Democracy is altogether different from a number of spoils politicians who pose as Democrats but who are ready to knife the party or any one who is endeavoring to promote its purest principles, when the plums fail to fall into their laps. It is to be sincerely hoped that President Wilson will expose every one of these party destroyers in the several speeches he is planning to make upon his return trip from the Panama Exposition next spring.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

STOKES—METCALFE.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized Thursday afternoon of last week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown Metcalfe, of Sudlersville, formerly of Gainesville, Va., when their youngest daughter, Miss Margaret Elizabeth Metcalfe, became the bride of Mr. John Friel Stokes, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. O. Stokes, of Kent county. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. P. McGoldrick, assisted by the Rev. William J. Scott, of Wilmington, Del., at 1 o'clock. The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, trimmed in chiffon and pearls, and her tulle veil was caught with lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of Bride roses and ferns. Her only attendant, Miss Mary Cary Harrison, daughter of Doctor and Mrs. J. W. Harrison, of Baltimore county, was gowned in pink tissue and tulle and wore a picture hat of tulle and lace. She carried Killarney roses. The best man was Mr. B. Scott Stokes, a brother of the groom. The ushers, brothers of the bride, were Mr. Joseph Brown Metcalfe, Jr., of Washington, D. C.; Dr. C. Hayden Metcalfe, of Sudlersville, Md., and Mr. James G. Metcalfe, of Chestertown, Md. The out-of-town guests were entertained at a charmingly appointed luncheon and reception held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Dudley George Roe, immediately after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Stokes left on an afternoon train for a trip South. On their return they will live in Sudlersville.

TOLAR—HICKS.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Hicks, High street, at one o'clock on Tuesday, when their daughter, Miss Emilie Evelyn, became the bride of Mr. Thomas S. Tolar, a prominent business man of Fayettsville, N. C. Owing to illness in the family the wedding was quiet, only the immediate families witnessing the impressive ceremony, which was performed by Rev. T. C. Smoot, of Stevensville, formerly pastor of Galena M. E. Church, and an intimate friend of the family. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Minnie Hicks, sister of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue with hat and gloves to match. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Tolar left by automobile for Kennedyville, where they took the afternoon train for a honeymoon and their southern home. The bride was the recepient of numerous valuable gifts. Among those present from out of town were: Mr. Hester Hicks and family, of Talbot county, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pennington, of near Kennedyville.

STEWART—GRIFFIN.

A wedding of interest to Baltimore and the Eastern Shore of Maryland was solemnized Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Griffin, Baltimore when their daughter, Miss Anna Pearl Griffin, become the bride of Mr. Milton Melvin Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Stewart, of Baltimore. The Rev. Leonard B. Smith, a former college mate of the bride, performed the caremony in the presence of the immediate families. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rachel E. Griffin, while the groom had as his best man, his brother, Mr. David B. Stewart, Jr., of Rome, N. Y. Immediately after the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left for a trip South. They will be "at home" after February 1 at 10 East Mount Royal avenue, Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart are wellknown in this community and county, and their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

STANLEY—HAPPEL.

At high noon on Tuesday, Dec. 29th, Harry C. Stanley, of Still Pond, Kent county, and Miss Ruth Happel, of Highfield, Washington county, were married at St. John's Reformed parsonage by the pastor, Rev. M. L. Firor. The wedding was very quiet, the immediate family of the bride having recently moved to Fort Meade, Florida. Miss Elsie Happel, a sister of the bride, was the only attendant. Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party was entertained at a dinner at the residence of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Happel, in Monterey. Miss Stanley for a number of years has been an energetic and devoted worker in St. Stephen's Reformed Church and Sunday school, and has so endeared herself to the community that she will be greatly missed. Best wishes of her co-workers and friends go with her to her new home.

WHEATLEY—DODD.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Mamie Dodd, on High street, Saturday morning, when her attractive daughter, Miss Avis Newell, became the bride of Mr. Charles Frazier Wheatley, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Wheatley. The bride was given away by Dr. Harry L. Dodd, her uncle. The room was beautifully lighted by candles, the ceremony being performed by Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, under an arch of evergreen. The best man was Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley, Jr., brother of the groom, while the maid of honor was her sister, Miss Marghueriat Dodd. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Hyland. After the ceremony the happy couple journeyed in an auto to Kennedyville, where they took the train for their honeymoon to Philadelphia and other northern cities. Upon their return they will make their home in Park Heights. The groom holds a lucrative position in the Internal Revenue Service in Baltimore.

IN THE CHURCHES.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Dr. W. R. Graham, pastor. Services on Sunday, Jan. 10th, and preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M. Morning subject: "Structural Feres in Character." Evening subject: "The Books Opened." Sabbath school 2.30 P. M. Christian Endeavor service 6.45 P. M. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The Methodist Episcopal Church (that is, the Methodist Church North) report a gain in membership for the year 1914. The final tabulation of membership, as made by Rev. O. S. Baketel, editor of the Methodist Year Book, and reported in Zion's Herald, gives a net increase of 167,376, which is an advance on the increase of a year ago of 22,601—the total membership now being 3,965,658. The New England Era made a net gain of 1295 during the year on a membership of 124,396—by no means as well as was done the previous year, when the advance was 2979. The largest increase in this connection was made by the Cincinnati area, where a net gain of 32,446 is reported. "The difficulties of part of the Eastern field," says Zion's Herald, "are well indicated by figures from the New York area, which gave a net gain of 566, less than that made by New England, on a total membership of 252,090. Washington with a gain of 21,623, Buffalo with 16,650, Chicago with 14,213, Philadelphia with 12,022 and Omaha with 11,190 indicate the strongholds of Methodism where it is making the most signal advances."

This month Mr. Clews will preach a series of four sermons, namely: Life, Death, Heaven and Hell. Since Billy Sunday is creating so much excitement around us, it will be interesting and helpful to know what the Bible has to say about such vital subjects.

Union revival services will begin at Sassafras M. P. Church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. W. B. Horner, of the M. E. Church, and Rev. A. B. Dupuy, of the M. P. Church, will conduct the meetings. Other ministers are expected during the meetings. Come!

Rock Hall Items.

Two boy scouts of the Rock Hall troop distinguished themselves last Monday by rescuing Alfonsworth Sewell from drowning. He was playing out on the ice in the creek and ran into a thin place. He broke through and surely would have been unable to get to the shore. Leslie Sewell and Carl Apsley were the scouts who rendered first aid. Alfonsworth is the little six-year-old son of Marion Sewell.

Last Wednesday one of the classes of the M. E. Sunday schools held a ten-cent social for the benefit of the pastor. Notwithstanding the bad weather they did very well.

Joseph Downey, Sr., who has moved to Baltimore for the winter spent several days in Rock Hall this week.

R. N. Greenhawk, of Easton, Md., was the guest of his son, Prof. F. A. Greenhawk, for the past week.

All of the Rock Hall boys who are attending school in Baltimore returned to their studies last Monday.

Fish are getting a little more plentiful in these waters.

Clyde Maslin, of Philadelphia, after a week's visit to his brother, S. B. Maslin, has returned to his home.

Oystermen from Piney Neck and Gray's Inn are oystering from Gratitude on account of the heavy ice in the creek and river.

Bill Dempster was seen out on his ice boat the past few days. Mr. Dempster claims ice boating the most exciting pastime to be found in or around this burg.

Mr. H. L. Eddy, scout commissioner of the State, has resigned his position to take up a larger field of work as field commissioner of a newly made national district. Mr. Eddy was well-known by the scouts of this town as a great leader in his work. His residence will be in the west.

Maryland Appointments.

President Wilson on Wednesday sent to the Senate the final list of Maryland appointments. As predicted by the TRANSCRIPT several weeks ago, the president has accorded to Senator John Walter Smith fitting recognition in the appointment of Samuel K. Dennis as United States District Attorney, and William P. Ryan as collector of the Port of Baltimore. The appointments recognize both Senators Lee and Smith, and the President has acted wisely in thus recognizing all elements of the party. The appointments may be accredited to the two Senators thus:

SENATOR LEE.

Joshua W. Miles—Internal Revenue Collector.
Mitchell Diggs—Naval Officer.
W. W. Stockham—U. S. Marshall.
Guy W. Steele—Surveyor of the Port.
Walter B. Warner—Appraiser of the Port.
Robert G. Hilton—Subtreasurer (probable).

SENATOR SMITH.

S. K. Dennis—U. S. District Attorney.
Wm. P. Ryan—Collector of the Port.
James A. McQuade—Appraiser of the Port.

Now don't the Kent county reactionaries feel just a little better towards President Wilson than they did just after the Kent county Postoffice appointments were made?

PARCEL POST A SURPRISE

Growth For Two Years Exceeds All Expectations.

The first two years' operation of the parcel post has been marked by a phenomenal growth and the revenues it has brought into the public treasury have placed the Postoffice Department upon a self-sustaining basis, according to Goverment officials who have been checking up on the parcel post traffic and revenues. The most extravagant predictions of Representative Lewis, the "legislative father of the parcel post," have been exceeded by the amount of parcel post business during the second year of its operation.

Estimates of the amount of parcel post revenue range between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000 during the year now closing. If books and catalogues are included, it is stated the total parcel post revenue will aggregate about $60,000,000. So heavy was the Christmas parcel post traffic that it is believed that the total number of packages during the present year will total 1,200,000,000.

The Postoffice Department checks up on the amount to traffic and revenue in parcel post twice a year. A complete record of parcel is kept in the 50 largest postoffices for a period of 15 days. The last record for 15 days ending October 15 showed that 80,000,000 packages were handled. The 50 largest postoffices handle about two-thirds of the total parcel post business, which makes about 100,000,000 packages a month, or 1,200,000,000 a year. The April count showed 49,000,000 packages handled. The phenomenal Christmas traffic, it is estimated, offsets the difference between the April and October counts, and thereby brings the total to 1,200,000,000 packages.

A prominent government official, who has been studying these figures, made the prediction that express companies will have to fight for existence within the next two years if the present parcel post growth is maintained.

One of the arguments used in Congress for the passage of the Postoffice Department's new railway mail bill is that more extension of the parcel post system is being mapped out and that the department does not desire to extend the service until the railroads are paid under another basis, so that they may receive compensation for carrying the package mail. What these extensions involve is not given out, but it is said it is planned to develop further the "farm products post" by reducing the initial pound rate from 5 cents to 2 cents and by reducing the rates for the sixth, seventh and eighth zones.

The success with which the "farm products post" has met in a number of large cities in developing trade directly between the producer and the city consumer has prompted the Postoffice Department to formulate additional plans for the development of this service. It is believed that in a few years much of the produce which goes to waste on farms for lack of market facilities can be saved and carried into the populous centres by means of the parcel post.

FURNITURE TAX EXEMPTION LAW.

Relief For Household Effects Valued at $500.

The State-wide law passed by the last Legislature exempting from taxation furniture and household effects valued at $500 is now in effect. By the terms of the act it was to become operative on January 1, 1915.

The old act, which is now out of date, applied only to Baltimore city and Baltimore county. It was so framed as to exempt persons "owning only household effects, the value of which is less than $300." It was so construed by the taxing authorities as not to apply if the owner of the household effects was liable to taxation on any other kind of property.

It has been claimed that the collection of the furniture tax was difficult, cumbersome and costly. In Baltimore it ought to have yielded about $120,000 annually if collected. The new law was urged in the Legislature by Mr. McQuade. It had its origin in the First Branch City Council in a resolution introduced by Mr. Tolson, of the Sixteenth ward, and unanimously passed by both branches.

The total reduction to be sustained by Baltimore in the new exemption law will be about $50,000 annually. It was enacted for the benefit of the small householder. Expensive furniture, paintings, statuary and other household ornaments are not exempted. It is thought possible that receipts from this source may be increased.

Day of Prayer.

Thursday, January 14th, is the day set apart by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union as a Day of Prayer for National Constitutional Prohibition. Our state president urges that we seek Divine direction and help in the effort to rid our land of the legalized drink curse and urges us to pray as well for personal preparation for the work that each of us is called to do. It is hoped that all churches and organizations in our county will do something to impress upon their members the truth that without national prohibition the states are in many instances practically unable to enforce their own laws.

The Kennedyville Union will meet at the M. P. Church on the evening of the 14th, when an interesting program will be presented. It will include two brief addresses on the following topices: "The past: Milestones Passed in the Prohibition Movement," and "The Present: The Battle To-day," A cordial invitation to attend is extended to everyone.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

THOMAS L. DAWSON.

Mr. Thomas L. Dawson, who was in the carriage with Mr. Wm. U. Scoon, Dec. 22, and on their way to Chestertown when Mr. Scoon's horse became frightened and ranaway, upsetting the carriage, both being dragged a considerable distance before they could release themselves. Mr. Scoon sustained a fracture of three ribs and was otherwise injured, Mr. Dawson being more seriously hurt, died Dec. 31st, at his home at Gratitude, near Rock Hall, from internal injures received. Mr. Dawson was 73 years and 5 months old, yet able to work at his trade and had laid the keel for a new boat. At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted in the Union army and served until the war closed. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sarah E. Dawson, and one son, Thomas L. Dawson, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held at his late residence on Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. McGinnis, interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. The pall-bears were: W. F. Leedy, Nichles Dreer, and Joseph Dempsey, veterans of the Civil war; James A. Casey, John Hadaway and J. W. Joiner. Uudertaker T. H. Casey & Co., had charge of the funeral arrangements.

E. ECCLESTON MARSH.

Word was received by relatives in Middletown, Del., last Friday by telegram from Denver, Col., of the death at that place of E. Eccleston Marsh, aged about 61 years, who for a long time was a familiar figure in this part of the country. He was born in Kent county, Md., and became a stock dealer. He was the first man in this country to deal extensively in Holstein cattle. He went to Colorado about four years ago to live with his two sons, who hold responsible positions in the Spreckles sugar refinery at that place. Mr. Marsh came East every summer and had been back home about two months when he died. The body arrived Monday morning at 9.13 and was taken to St. Francis' R. C. Church, where services were held; interment in Bohemia cemetery adjacent to the church.

MORRIS EVERETT.

Morris Everett, infant son of Michael and Sarah Everett, died near Chestertown, Wednesday, Jan. 6th. Funeral services were held Thursday, conducted by Rev. Dr. Barrett. Interment in Chester cemetery. Charles D. Dodd undertaker.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

I said, "Why should she be so sad?
If I were she
And all her many blessings had,
My life would be
Just one long day of happiness
That all might see,"

Her cross upon my shoulders fell
And wonder came
At what she bore and bore so well.
Then up rose shame
When she, whom I had so misjudged,
Gave love for blame.

Power With Economy!

Some motors are powerful, but of considerable expense in fuel consumption. Others may be economical, but at the expense of power.

The KRIT light weight ball bearing motor combines wonderful power with the greatest economy.

Correct design, the use of annular ball bearings and careful manufacture in every detail produce the World renowned power of this motor.

LIGHTNESS

To-day many manufacturers are just announcing models with light, small motors—a type the KRIT Company adopted six years ago.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER MACHINES

The Low Spread Spreader

It Looks Good—It Wears Well—It Spreads Better

HERE is a manure spreader that spreads evenly when turning corners. With this machine you simply drive along and the spreader takes care of the corners.

Both the apron drive and the beater drive are driven from the axle, instead of one from one wheel, and one from the other, as is true in so many spreaders. This arrangement keeps the spreading even at all times.

The Low Spread has abundant tractive power at all times because the rear wheels are well under the load. It is made of steel in all but the few places where wood is better than steel.

The box is waist high, and yet the machine has plenty of clearance so that you can use it on rough ground, in deep snow, or in sloppy barnyards.

The Low Spread is universally admitted to be the best spreader on the market today. Our sample machine will show the features which make it the best spreader. Come in and see them.
