The members and friends of St. James' M. P. Church gave the pastor, Rev. H. P. Jester and his good wife, a splendid donation on Monday night. Rev. and Mrs. Jester are popular with the members of St. James and Lynch, and his good work is greatly appreciated.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, Jan. 25th, as follows : 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor, 2.15 P. M., Sunday school and pastor's bible class; 7 P. M., Epworth League song service; 7.30 P. M., preaching by the pastor, followed by short altar service. All invited.

Rock Hall Items.

Two very old newspapers, well preserved, were exhibited at Maslin's barber shop this week, belonging to the grand-father of Mr. Pile, foreman of the telephone construction gang. In the Maryland Journal there is a very hot argument between Samuel Chase and William Paca, two of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. This paper was printed August 20th, 1773. The other has a long account of the assassination of President Lincoln, this one was printed in 1865.

The county commissioners are improving the road leading from Rock Hall to Chestertown with shells.

Mr. Thomas Ayres and wife are visiting friends and relatives in this town.

Mr. Blaustein has had painted and hung in front of his store a very attracting sign.

One mother speaks in highest terms of the boy scout work; "When boys reach the age of 12 their physical development is very important. The outdoor life of the hikes and camps is very benificial. They receive efficient instruction in first aid treatment for accidents. The training is very useful to others and scouts are making use of this training. The love of nature is developed in the boys from their close contact with trees, birds and animals in the open. They gain a new independence from doing their own cooking and looking after their own comfort. I am glad that my boy is a scout and hope that he will continue until he reaches the highest rank obtainable. 'Hurrah for mother! The Boy Scout scores again.

Mr. Miller Maslin was a visitor to Rock Hall this week. The boys like to see this jolly Chestertown chap in their midst.

Messrs. George H. and Foster Cannon are erecting a commodious carpenter shop on the lot on Kent Circle adjoining the property of Mr. L. H. P.
