QUEEN ESTHER was great, and was superbly staged.

WHAT is the difference between the Anti-Boss and the Orgi-Boss? A $1,500 job in favor of the Orgi-Boss, his right to accept the salary of which is being contested in the Maryland Court of Appeals.

THE TRANSCRIPT was the first paper in the State of Maryland to endorse the candidacy of Senator Blair Lee for Governor, and it was also the first paper in the state to announce definitely that he will be a candidate.

IF THERE are no Bosses in the Organization camp, how is it that delegations and individuals from the various districts in the county must come to Chestertown every week to find out who is to run for this and that office. They can't do a thing until the Boss gives out the hymn.

THERE IS a very strong sentiment among the powerful business interests of Baltimore city for the renomination and election of Mayor Preston. Mayor Preston has given Baltimore city a fine administration. The city has shown more progress and real development during his administration than for years, and the people should appreciate it by re-nominating and re-electing him.

THOSE Democrat Senators who are blocking the passage of the Ship purchase bill should be remembered by their people back home, when the time for their re-election comes. We would rather be a tool in the hands of a democrate President when he is right than to be a tool is the hands of an iniquitous Shipping Trust that is sapping the life out of the farmers and shippers.

THE Baltimore American, the Republican organ of the State, has endorsed Mayor Preston, the Democratic incumbent, for re-election as Mayor of Baltimore. The Baltimore City News, a strong independent paper, had previously indorsed the Mayor, and it leaves nothing to be desired now to make the Mayor's re-nomianation and re-election unanimous except the belated endorsement of The Sun.

THE Orgi-Bosses in Chestertown have let it be known that Mr. Hadaway, of Broad Neck, must be the candidate for sheriff. The people in the Seventh had nothing to do with the selection. Albert Lewis, of the Sixth, wanted to be a candidate, and L. J. Keyser, the chief engrossing clerk in the last Senate, was badly stung, but the Orgi-Bosses said it must be Hadaway, and Hadaway 'tis.

THE ANTIS are just as proud of their Boss, if such as man in the faction can be styled, as a kid is with a stick of candy. The Anti-Boss takes care of his friends while the Orgi-Bosses gobble up the fat jobs for themselves, and their friends and the rank and file of their faction don't even get the crumbs that fall from the political table. The Orgi-Bosses take the whole thing.

WHY DON'T the Organization forces agree on Mr. W. Bradford Copper for Senator, and make his nomination and election unanimous? He is going to be nominated by a big majority anyhow, if the statements of reliable people from all parts of the county are a gauge of public sentiment, and it is no use for the Organization faction to put up a candidate against him. Mr. Copper is the best man in the county for that job, and he will represent the interests of the county in the Senate in a manner in which they have not been represented for years.

SOMEBODY said last week that the endorsement of Harrison Vickers for States Attorney by the Kent News last week is a bluff to make Scott Beck show his hand. We understand that dozens of Organization people have offered Mr. Beck their support for any office he wants, but Mr. Beck prefers the States Attorney birth so much that he is inclined to make a fight for it regardless of the wishes of the present incumbent. But the Antis are going after that job this time, and we are going to make the fur fly when we get started.

IT IS unfortunate that with all the experienced contractors and builders there are in Chestertown and Kent county, any of the building committees for the new school buildings should go outside of the town or county to employ an architect to draw plans for the building. W. S. & A. M. Culp, Walter T. Pippin, Frank E. Duyer, George H. Cannan, or that excellent firm of Stavely & Bowers, of Lynch, are as skilled draughtsman as can be found anywhere, and as all of those firms are vitally interested in the welfare of the county, these jobs should have been conferred upon our home people, where they properly belong.

THERE is one thing very certain and sure about the next State's Attorneyship fight. There will be no pretended independent candidates. Every candidate will stand where he belongs, and the fight will be straight from the shoulder. You fellows know what kind of a fighter Hope Barroll is, and believe us, he will carry you the merriest chase you have ever been engaged in in your life. Boss Barroll may as well have a $1,200 job as Boss Beck a $1,500 one and a fine free trip to the Panama Exposition in San Francisco next summer, or Boss Wickes a snug $5,000 job, trying to make the people of the State of Maryland pay $75,000 a year to maintain Senator John Walter Smith's political control of the Democratic party. What is a paltry $1,200 compared to a luxurious $5,000 berth, or a $1,500 job, with a luxurious trip to California and return? Surely you would not begrudge Mr. ...ll that little after all he has done ...ople of Kent county.

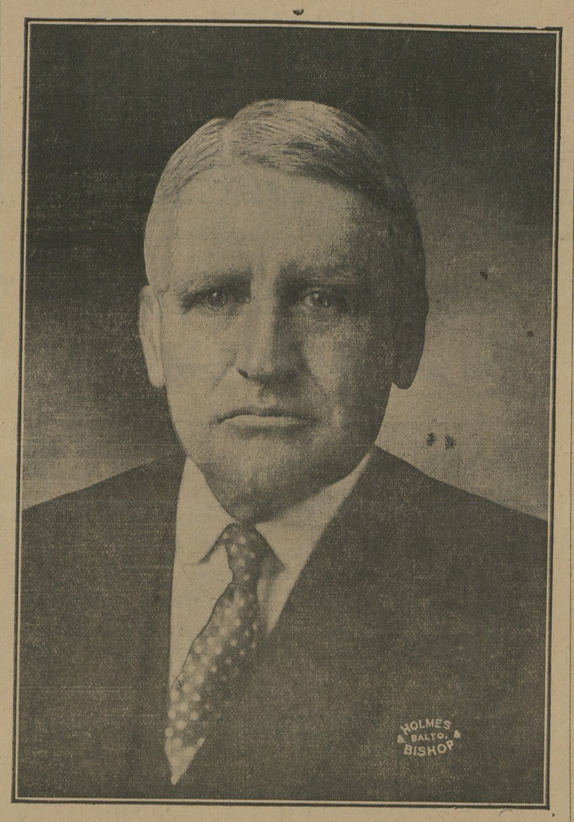

BOSS BARROLL AND BOSS BECK.

As it is very manifest from a few past issues of the Beck organ that they intend to ring the changes throughout the campaign on that old chestnut "The Boss" and "Bossism," the TRANSCRIPT, which takes no stock in such feeble arguments to convince the people which faction of the party has their real interests at heart, thought perhaps it might not be amiss to call the attention of the people, especially the young men of the party, to the methods of the socalled Bosses Barroll and Beck. It may be interesting and helpful for the young men of the county and town to stop and ponder over these facts which cannot be disputed. We begin with the assumption that both Mr. Barroll and Mr. Beck are the supreme Bosses in their respective faction and we shall further assume that every move and every act in each faction is dictated and engineered by them. Now let us reason together. There are two different kinds of Bosses; one who sees that the forces under him do their work well and are rewarded for their labor; the other, who sees that those under him do the work assigned, while the Boss himself reaps the reward. To which of these two classes does Mr. Barroll and Mr. Beck respectively belong? How much of the reward of political effort has Mr. Barroll appropriated to himself? Not a penny; for as the Enterprise very truthfully said sometime ago editorially, Mr. Barroll finds far more pleasure in rewarding his friends than he could in gobbling up all the honors for himself. What has he done for the young men of his faction?

Let us see. He made Harry Cannon president of the Board of Supervisors of Election during the Warfield administration, and the Organization Board of County Commissioners cut his salary almost in half. He made Charles A. McWhorter an official in the Maryland House of Correction at a comfortable salary. He made Samuel Hicks police justice for four years, and subsequently clerk to the Board of County Commissioners, which position he now holds. He made Conlyn Noland, of Tolchester, deputy treasurer of Kent county under Wm. J. Tarbutton. He made Ollie Estes deputy treasurer of Kent county under C. S. Hurlock and Samuel G. Caldwell. He made Thomas A. Matthews deputy Register of Wills under James Elwood Morris and the present incumbent, Jesse R. Copper. He made Harry J. McWhorter supervisor under the State Tax Commission at an annual salary of $1,000. He made Frank Gill rural route carrier from Golt's at a salary of $1,000 a year. He made Roscoe Wharton a clerk in the railway mail service at a salary of $1,200. He made W. Finley Collins postmaster at Millington. He made Charles Judefind postmaster at Rock Hall and Thomas D. Bowers postmaster at Chestertown. Not once has Boss Barroll thought of securing a Federal job for himself, which he could have done under the present administration by the slightest willingness on his part to accept, or which he could as easily have done under the Warfield administration, or in the great Isidor Raynor vs. John Walter Smith senatorial fight. He has thought of his friends. He has perferred them to his own personal preferment, and in their appointment to office he has taken a special delight. Now this is not said through any special preferment for Mr. Barroll, or because we have assumed that he appointed us to office. It is said first as a fact which no one will deny, and secondly by way of comparison with the big and little Bosses in the Organization.

Now what has been the course of Boss Beck? How many young men has he appointed to office? Well, he was instrumental in the passage of the bill in the last Legislature providing for a State Tax Commission. He appointed Lewin W. Wickes, an associate Boss in his faction, to a $5,000 job as a member of that commission, and then went and had himself appointed one of the counsel at a salary of $1,500, and as Senator helped to pass an appropriation of $75,000 for a building at the Panama Exposition in San Francisco, and was "induced" to accept a position on the committee which gets a fine free trip to the Exposition with all expenses thrown in. Mr. Wickes resigned as counsel to the Board of Town Commissioners and Mr. Beck had Mr. Scott Beck appointed in his stead, notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Scott Beck was already counsel to the School Board, and there were R. Groome Parks, H. W. Vickers, R. Hynson Rogers, Herbert E. Perkins, who were deserving of recognition and who could have filled the office with supreme credit. Mr. Beck also made his brother-in-law, Mr. J. Arthur Bradley, State Inspector of Industrial Insurance at a salary of $1,500 a year. Ah! but the Kent News will tell you that the Organization faction is the YOUNG MAN'S FACTION. Yes. It is amusing to see the young men running here and there on primary day at the beck and call of the Boss, getting in teams and going after the voters, and in many instances leading them locked arms to the polls to vote. But, ah! what a pitiful sight it is to see these same young men left out in the cold when a job comes along looking for some one to take it. Only the Bosses get the jobs in the Organization while the YOUNG MEN, in whom they take such pride so far as getting them to do their work for them is concerned, get the glad hand on primary day and a friendly slap on the shoulder in between times. YOUNG MEN, we call upon you to sit up and take notice. Choose ye this day whom ye will serve. If there be any virtue in what has been written in these lines, THINK ON THESE THINGS.

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY.

SENATOR BLAIR LEE.

Senator Blair Lee, as indicated by the TRANSCRIPT exclusively last week, announced his candidacy for Governor of Maryland in Washington on Thursday. In reply to a question from a reporter for the Baltimore City News, Senator Lee made the following statement:

"I am a candidate for the Democratic Gubernatorial nomination," replied Senator Lee.

"You can state it as a fact and the Democratic voters of the State should know, without delay, my decision in this matter. For weeks Democrats throughout the State, whose sincere interest in the welfare of the State and party cannot be doubted and for whose opinions I have the highest regard, have been urging me to be a candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, and many reasons have been advanced which have caused me to reach the conclusion that my personal preference should not control my action in this matter.

"I shall seek the nomination with a view of cementing the Democratic forces. If elected, I shall continue that as a policy of administration, always confident, of course, that every true Democrat will demand faithful service to all the people of the State as the first consideration."
