The Ladies' Store,

Messrs. Harry R. Graham and Chas. N. Satterfield, members of the Water Board, with their superintendent, Mr. Chas. S. Smith, and Mr. Alwyn M. Culp, who substituted for his brother, Mr. W. M. Culp, the third member of the board, and Mr. J. Waters Russell, were in Swedenboro, N. J., last week inspecting the plant of that town with a view to adopting some improvements to the water system here which will enable the board to save the town considerable money in the operating expenses. One of the improvements contemplated is a standpipe for use in time of fire. For the protection of our property this improvement cannot come too soon. The party was royally entertained as the guests of Mr. Louis Raffetto, at Philadelphia.

Millington Items.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Woodall celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding day on Friday, February 13th, by issuing seventy-five invitations and entertaining a large number of friends at their home on Sassafras street. Despite the inclement weather the occasion was a very enjoyable one. The evening was spent with games, music, singing and recitations. At ten o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room where was spread a beautiful supply of good things. The decorations were white. Among those present were: Mrs. Edmund Abele, Mrs. Ulmer, Miss Ethel Davis, Mrs. Neva Paul, Mr. Harry Abele and Mr. John Cornelius, of Philadelphia; Mrs. William Thomas, of Wilmington; Miss Elizabeth Golt, of Dover; Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Faucett and Mr. Wilmer Smith, of Smyrna; Mrs. Albert Boyer and Mrs. George Boyer, of Odessa; Mrs. William Greer and Miss Elma Greer, of Townsend; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, of Middletown; Mr. and John H. Betterton Notes.

The mothers and fathers, as well as the boys and girls, have been having great sport coasting this week. The Rigbie hill has been used for traveling, while the Chesapeake hill has been given over entirely to the coasters, the run being from Mr. Walter Crew's home to the ice cream saloon, and so arranged that the little girls are as safe as the big boys. About 25 sleds, together with two "double deckers," are out every afternoon and evening.

The revival services which have been held at the M. E. Church the past three weeks closed Sunday evening, 35 persons having been converted and the whole church wonderfully revived. Rev. F. X. Moore and Mr. John Clark, the R. R. evangelist, who has been assisting him, worked earnestly among the people during the day as well as at the evening services. The music, under the direction of Mr. W. R. Young, was an inspiring feature of these services.

The contract for the new church has been given to Mr. Wm. G. Owens, the builder and contractor of Betterton. The work will begin May 1st, to be comp'eted Dec. 1st, 1914.

The Embroidery Club was entertained on Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Joseph Duyer.

Mrs. J. B. Lewis entertained the Sunshine Sewing Circle the same afternoon at her home.

The tug boat "Greyhound" got caught in the heavy ice about 300 yards from Betterton last Friday afternoon, and it was thought that she was sinking. As soon as she gave her distress signal the men took boats and went to her rescue. She succeeded in getting out of the ice Saturday morning, no damage having been done.

Mrs. Rœder, who has been seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alexander Mair, is improving. Mr. Jas. T. Crew is quite sick at his home.
