PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

DEAR SIRS:

So the Organization has brought out G. Harry Cannon, of Chestertown, as County Commissioner from the Fourth and Seventh Districts against Harry Nicols of the Seventh. "What is it, to laugh"? Why Harry Cannon used to be one of the strongest Anti-Organization men in Chestertown and proclaimed it from the house tops. He was honored by the faction and made president of the Board of Election Supervisors. Then the Organization promptly cut him off their visiting lists. What caused his change of heart? The dangling of the fish-hook of county commissioner? Well, if that is so, the result is not strange.

All of us thought this one office for which a real, true red-blooded Organization man would always have the call. For my part, and from what I pick up on the street, it was always thought that Mr. Frank E. Duyer could land this job for the asking. Who has served the Organization more faithfully than he? And then there is Mr. Walter T. Pippin, another builder. Who has been truer to their interests than Walter? Then why is Harry now all at once so attentively observing Walter's "alterations"? Why did not they get Mr. William S. Carroll? Would not Mr. Urie, the real leader and brains of the Organization, back "Son"? He has been as true to the Organization as Harry Cannon has, and moreover the "Man-on-the-street" hears he would have gotten a great many more Anti-Organization votes. "It is to laugh," when you hear the young Antis relate what they tell Harry when he asks them to vote for him. They do say Harry has heard several things since beginning his canvas—not pleasant ones either—as to the motive which prompts him so ardently to "flop."

MAN-ON-THE-STREET.
