Warwick Items.

The last quarterly meeting of the conference year convened at Sassafras M. P. Church Saturday morning with a good number of the official board present. Business was transacted harmoniously as is the custom on this work. Reports showed the work to be in good financial condition. Mr. Wm. Colgain was elected delegate to the annual conference, with instructions to ask for the return of the pastor, Mr. Hill, for the fourth year.

The Aid Society of Sassafras M. P. Church met Friday evening, Feb. 27th, at Mrs. Ora Spry's. This was a particularly interesting meeting, as it was nearing the end of the conference year. But the Sassafrass ladies possess a great deal of executive ability, so it was no trouble for them to dispose of matters as they came up. Following this was a general good time and refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

Chicken pox has been prevalent in the Sassafras neighborhood.

The Monday blizzard prevented Dr. Bowers' visiting the Warwick charge this week.

Mrs. Wm. Price, of Middle Neck, was taken to the Wilmington Hospital last week to undergo a serious operation. Her many friends here hope for her a speedy recovery.

Miss Jenny Clay, of Bethel neighborhood, spent last week at the home of Mr. P. F. Johns.

The sick list of our town is: Robert and Marion Banks and George Hill.

We congratulate Hazel Price, who wears the laurels for being a record-breaker in making quick trips. One morning last week he went to Wilmington arriving there about 10.30. He made a call at Dr. Ritche's office, a distance of several squares, and consulted with the doctor. This took some time. From here he again sought the station, and upon arriving there found that he had been gone but 28 minutes and had five whole minutes left, in which to rest while waiting for the next train home.

We Warwickers are disposed to give to Mr. Ground Hog his share of the honors as a weather prognosticator.

The Sassafras ladies will hold their usual poultry and oyster supper on the evening of March 11th.

We've just heard that Mr. Mark Manlove has received his credentials as Justice of the Peace.

Mr. Page Ford, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. Will Unruh, on the Levels.

The terrific wind of last Sunday night damaged quite a few roofs in and around our town.

Kennedyville Items.

The very severe storm of Sunday and Monday last, caused but little damage in this vicinity so far as we have been able to learn, but it surely did cause the coal pile to shrink very fast, if one would keep warm even in the house.

Rev. Mr. Staufer held service in the Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday evening last, and delighted his audience with his sermon.

Mrs. Hayes continues in a critical condition at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph H. Weer.

Mrs. Wm. T. Hague has been added to the sick list. We hope she will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Othoson returned on Sunday evening last from a visit to relatives and friends in Philadelphia.

Services in Kennedyville Methodist Protestant Church on next Sunday, March 8th, as follows: Sunday school 9.30 A. M., preaching 10.30 A. M. and 7.45 P. M., Christian Endeavor at 7.15 P. M. Immediately after the morning service the election and instruction of delegate to the annual conference will take place, having been postponed from last Sunday on account of the storm. Members are requested to be present.

Owing to the last three Monday evenings being so stormy the Grange here has failed to hold their regular meeting, but hope to have a full attendance on Monday evening next, when a large class will be initiated.
