Betterton Notes.

The love and high esteem in which Mr. W. R. Young is held by the members of the choir of the M. E. Church, of which he is the leader, was manifested by the splendidly arranged surprise reception given at his home on Tuesday evening, in honor of his birthday. The guests were entertained during the evening by instrumental and vocal music, readings and games. Refreshments, consisting of ices, fruit, cake and coffee, were served at 10 o'clock. The table was beautifully decorated with St. Patrick favors and the counterpiece was an immense cake surrounded by two lighted candles. The guests left for their homes at 11 o'clock extending to Mr. Young good wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Work has begun on the new breakwater that is being built east of the Ericsson Pier for the protection of the launches. Mr. Andrew Miller, of Baltimore, is doing the work.

Sunday, March 22, will be observed as Missionary Day in the M. E. Church. Rev. F. X. Moore has secured the Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, of Baltimore, to make the address in the afternoon, and special music will be furnished by the choir.

Mrs. Bayard Crew entertained the Embroidery Club at her home on Thursday afternoon.

The Sunshine Sewing Society met at the home of Mrs. G. W. Owens on Thursday afternoon.

The Sunday school class taught by Mrs. Wm. Wheeler held a St. Patrick's social at Mr. Samuel Brice's, Friday evening. The proceeds were for the benefit of the new church building fund.

Lenton services are being held every Wednesday and Friday at the Ericsson Cottage by Rev. S. S. Hepburn.

Misses Myrtle Tull and Mable Rasin spent the week-end with their parents in Betterton.

Mr. and Mrs Charles Brice spent several days in Baltimore the past week.

Mr Joseph Owens, of Philadelphia, is spending sometime with friends in Betterton.

Miss Elizabeth Brice, who is at Annapolis for the winter, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home.
