DRESS WELL

Every Man Should Dress Well.

There's no reason why not, when a beautiful, smartly tailored suit made from fine quality wool, worsted or cassimere can be bought here as low as $12.60, $15.00, $16.00 and $18.00, made to your measure, made from your own choice of 500 patterns, cut to your own model and made to comply with your own individuality.

Have your suit look and feel as though it belonged to you, and for less money than you can buy same qualities in ready-mades.

No expense, comparatively, to do business, is why.

Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY,

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Annes Counties of the International Tailorng Co. of New York, Chicago and London,

(Next to Robert McWhorter's)

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

NUPTIAL EVENTS.

PORTER—FRANCE.

On Wednesday, the twenty fourth, at eight in the evening, the marriage of Emma Price, daughter of Thomas D. France, and Albert Henry Porter, of New York, was solemnized in Emmanual P. E. Church. The bride entered on the arm of her father and proceeded to the altar, where she was met by the groom; both were unattended and there was no music. The bride wore a suit of white guberdine with hat to match, a corsage bouquet of white sweet peas and lily of the valley and carried a white prayer book, from which Dr Henry B. Martin very impressively read the service. The wedding was very quiet on account of the recent death of the bride's mother, only the immediate family and a few intimate friends being present. Mr. and Mrs. Porter left after the ceremony by automobile for Wilmington, Del., where they took a train for a short wedding trip. They will reside in New York, where the groom holds a lucrative position.

Attention, Grangers.—Interesting Grange Notes from Worton and Fairlee are omitted from this issue because they did not reach our office until 10 o'clock on Friday morning. We desire to state to the Grangers of the county that we are glad to give space to any information relative to Grange work, but if such articles are sent direct to this office early in the week, they will be more apt to find a place in our columns.
