MAN-ON-THE-STREET.

Chestertown, Md.,
Mar. 23, 1915.

DEAR SIRS:

A petition has been passing around town, and nearly every one in the town approves of it highly. The object of same is to ask the postoffice department to appoint a letter carrier in Chestertown. It is generally admitted that this is a good job which the leaders of the Organization have under their control since Senator Smith will appoint the man. Now is the time for the people to ask that they get a piece of the fat. $5,000 a year to Boss Wickes; 8 years State's Attorney job amounting to $9,660 to Boss Beck; 4 years in the State Senate, another job for Boss Beck; $1,500 as attorney to the State Tax Commission, another job for Boss Beck; a free trip on pullman private car with sleeping accommodations, first-class food on the car, exquisite side trips, all hotel bills paid, everything free, a month's vacation that the taxpayers provided for Boss Beck, another fat job worth at least $750. Now why not let Frank H. Howard, Vernon Barnett, George Burk, George V. Byron, Allie Baker and some of the other faithful workers in the Organization, get together and ask for some plums. Boss Beck will not ask the job of letter carrier. Why? Because the man who gets it will have to carry it on his back. He never grabs in that kind of a bag for himself. One gentleman has suggested that if Mr. Charles L. Dodd is beaten by Mr. Dixon, it would be well to hold off the appointment because then it would, at least, be a consolation prize for Charlie.

The tale is told that Commissioner Wickes, Tax Attorney Beck are now a days so little around in their offices that the faithful cannot really get a tip nor an idea whom they are to support. One gentleman in Worton said he could go to town, and in about an hour pick out a man who would beat Mr. Copper for the Senate. A wag standing by said, "All right, Uncle Joe, you go in there and do that, and them fellows, Wickes and Beck, will pay you $1,000 for doing it."

On the street I hear that Will McKee will beat Tom Hadaway in his own district, the Seventh. That is going some for William. Thomas, you know how he slays his opponents, so you had better be good.

They do say around Blacks and Locust Grove, that two Antis have promised Geo. W. Sutton to vote for him for Register of Wills but they do so on account of family reasons and that is as far as they will go. They add that when George Sutton goes to Millington John P. Ahern looks at him from his toes to the top of his head, closes his mouth, opens his nose, gives a smell and says, "George, I know ye not." There is a reason. It is to laugh.

The news around Kennedyville is that George R. Rasin has forgotten the statement he made to Mr. William T. Jones, the candidate for Judge of the Orphans Court, and that some of George's old friends have really forgotten him. George is a clever fellow but can he really find the nerve to smile at that?

I hear that the gallon a month law pleases "Everybody," that is "Nobody," that Howard Turner, Bob Shallcross and Will Beck all deny the paternity of the law, each saying the other did it. The Prohibitionists say, "You all did it and you handed us out precisly what you said you would not hand to us." Oh, the trouble of these office holders and seekers! Howard Turner has seen ghosts and said, "No Legislature for me. I would not even think of running for the Senate! Will Beck has seen spooks and left the county. Bob Shallcross has a glimpse of the "Flying Dutchman on the Chesapeake, tells the people that this is the sure sign of political death, "I know it, for I have seen it."

MAN-ON-THE-STREET

IN THE CHURCHES.

An immense audience enjoyed a most delightful "Billy Sunday" service in the M. E. Church on Sunday evening. The service was in charge of Mrs. Merrick Clements, who announced the Billy Sunday hymns and commented upon each before it was sung. The singing of the hymns was most inspiring. Solos were sung by Miss Hallie Toulson and J. Cordray Loud, of the choir, and Mr. John C. Davis gave his impressions of Billy Sunday as he gathered them from hearing him in Philadelphia. Dr. Barrett also gave a splendid defense of Billy Sunday and his great work, and altogether it was one of the most delightful services ever held in the town.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Barrett left for conference on Monday. Mrs. Barrett will spend the time with her son, Dr. Barrett, in Milford, while the Doctor will revel in the delights of the conference sessions in Laurel, Del. The members of Dr. Barrett's church, and the people of the community generally, are hoping for his return to Chestertown for another year. Dr. Barrett and his good wife are popular with everybody.

All the Methodist Episcopal ministers in the county are attending conference in Laurel, Del., this week, and there will be no preaching services in their churches to-morrow. May all of them have an enjoyable time and return to their charges for another year.
