OUR DEATH RECORD.

MR. DANIEL P. COX.

Mr. Daniel P. Cox, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of Chestertown, dropped dead on Cross street in front of the stable of Mr. W. B. Stafford, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, while on his way to work. Mr. Cox had been suffering with a pain around his heart for sometime and was taking medicine from the doctor at the time the fatal heart stroke came. Mr. Cox was engaged in conversation with Mr. Stafford when he died. Mr. Stafford says he fell suddenly to the ground and died immediately, only giving two or three gasps. Mr. Cox leaves a wife, 80 years old, and two children, Mrs. Walter Alcutt, of Chestertown, and Mrs .Charles Meredith of Baltimore. The deceased was 78 years old and would have been 79 had he lived until June 19. He had been making preparations for sometime to celebrate his 60th wedding anniversary, which was to have taken place April 13. Mr. Cox was a member of the Reed Rifles, which was organized in 1855. Those left of the Reed Rifles are: J. W. Chapmsn, J. W. Lambert, John W. Duyer, Milton Baker, Freeman Fiddis, W. W. Copper, and Alfred Benjamin. Mr. Cox was a civil war veteran, having served with the Union army. He was a life long friend of Mr. William A. Burk, and spent much of his time in the letter's shop on Cross street, when not employed. He was a member of Christ M. P. Church for 20 years. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of funeral services, which were held yesterday at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. W.R.Graham; interment in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were James W. Lambert, James S. Bradley, William S. Carroll, Wm. A. Burk, Budd Ford Potts and James B. Newnam.

WILLIAM NICHOLSON.

William Nicholson, 73 years of age, who had been a driver of fast harness horses for half a century, died at his home in Wilmington, Sunday after a lengthy illness. With the exception of Cyrus Geers, he was the oldest trainer of trotters in the country and was known upon all tracks of the various circuits. The body was sent to his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Thompson, of Washington, Monday, and the funeral was held Wednesday. The veteran driver was a native of Georgetown, D. C., and a son also survives him and resides in Washington. Local horsemen knew him well. He had no superior as a trainer or driver, especially on the Fair Circuit. He was one of the best judges of pace in the country, a valuable asset to all horsemen. He will be remembered as the driver of Jim Bayard, 2.15½, by Toreno, before this well-known trotter appeared at the local matinees. Prior thereto he drove and trained such horses as Delaware Boy, Brandy Boy, Marydel, 2.14¼, Leon Russell, 2.15½, and other performers of note. Until his illnes he owned and drove Grace J., 2.14¾, which was sold to Mr. Philip DuPont, for $500 when it become known that Mr. Nicholsen could not recover.

MRS. FRANCES A. CHAIRS.

Mrs. Frances A. Chairs, wife of Samuel Chairs, died at the residence of her granddaughter, Mrs. E. Rogers, March 24, 1914, in the 84th year of her age. The deceased was a lady of loving disposition and estimable character, and at the last, just before her voice failed, she could lift her hands and murmur the words "in that city." Funeral services conducted by Rev. Harry Taylor, were held Friday March 27, at 2 P. M. in Crumptom M. E. Church. Interment in Crumptom cemetery. The pall bearers were her six grandsons: Messers. Samuel, Howard, Robert and George Ringgold, Mark Rogers and William Clark. She leaves to mourn her loss a husband, Mr. Samuel Chaires, two sons, Robert M. Whaland, of Baltimore, Lawrence I. Whaland, of Rock Hall, one daughter, Mrs. James P. Ringgold, of near Millington, 17 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren and a host of friends. Bradley & Sparks had charge of funeral arrangements.

WILLIAM F. WOODMENDER.

Mr. William F. Woodmender died at his home in Quaker Neck on Wednesday, aged 69 years. The deceased was a well-known farmer and enjoyed the confidence and esteem of everyone who knew him. He is survived by a widow and the following children: Mrs. William and Mrs. Robert Goodman, of Quaker Neck; George William Woodmender, of Philadelphia; Edward T. Woodmender, of Baltimore; Mrs. Robert Wales, of St. Michaels, and Miss Bertha Woodmender, at home. He also leaves one brother in West Chester, Pa. Funeral services were held from his late residence in Quaker Neck yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. H. Covey, interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Thomas R. Starr, Thomas W. Toulson, William and Robert Goodman, Robert Wales and Harry Legg. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. HARRY WALLS.

Mr. Harry Walls, a prominent farmer living near Millington, was found dead in his stable yesterday morning. We were unable to learn any of the particulars of the death of Mr. Walls at the time of going to press. Mr. Walls resided on Mrs. W. W. Baldwin's farm near Chesterville last year, and was a strong healthy looking man of about 40 years of age. Mr. Wal's went to the stable to feed his horses, and remaining longer than usual, his wife went to look for him. She found him standing up against the manger dead. He leaves a widow and three children. The deceased was popular with a host of friends, who sympathize with his family in their great affliction.

MATTHIAS HARRIS, SR.

After a short illness Matthias Harris, Sr., aged 80 years, died at his home, 2847 Huntingdon avenue, Baltimore, Tuesday night. Mr. Harris was born in Kent county, Md., January 16, 1834, coming from an old Maryland family. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rebecca V. Harris, six sons, three daughters, 12 grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held from the Chapel of the Guardian Angel, Twenty-sixth street and Huntington avenue, Baltimore, at 10.30 o'clock Thursday morning. Burial was in Druid Ridge Cemetery.

REV. H. S. THOMPSON.

Rev. H. S. Thompson, one of the oldest and most widely-known ministers in the Wilmington M. E. Conference, died suddenly at his home in Smyrna, Del., on Wednesday morning. Death was due to heart trouble. Mr. Thompson was admitted to the Wilmington Conference in 1858, the year the conference was formed. He was pastor of Still Pond charge in 1870, and in 1911 he was assigned to Millington. He retired after leaving Millington.

The final administration account in the estate of the late Mrs. Rachel E. Temple, mother of Mrs. A. W. Carmine, was passed in the Orphans' Court on Tuesday. The estate is divided equally between Mrs. Carmine and Mr. Wm. E. Temple, her brother.
