of J&K SHOES

THE FIRST PEEP

Even though you are not ready to purchase, we invite you to come just for a peep at our spring fashion shew of dainty footwear.

Chic models of the famous J. & K. Pumps are pictured here. Many more—all fairly sparkling with the budding springtime spirit—grace our display.

You will find a distinctive style to suit your individual taste, at the price you wish to pay. An early visit insures a wide selection.

Spring Millinery

Without a formal opening we wish to announce to the public that our spring millinery is ready for your inspection. We assure you that a most pleasing exhibit of the newest and best will greet you.

But we suggest that you make your selections early, so that beautiful Eastertide will arrive with the hat question satisfactorily disposed of.

What Are the New Spring Materials for Dresses?

The answer to this burning question can be found by an inspection of the goods at this store.

The most favored fabrics are Taffeta, Faille, Crepe de chine, Voile, Covert Cloth, Serge and Gabardine.

White leads, but black-and-white mannish mixtures, and sand, putty, Dutch blue, battleship grey, golden brown and navy are also good.

You will be able to get a comprehensive idea from our complete display.

OLD SWEETHEATS WED.

Both Had Married Others After a Quarrel Years Ago.

The old story of love rekindled and of a secret marriage last November came to light several days ago, when Mrs. Martha Perkins, daughter of Lieut. John A. Thompson, a veteran of the Civil War, 1716 West Fayette street Baltimore, announced that she had been married to Clarke Thomas, connected with the Northern Central Railroad, at Rock Hall, the home of her sister, Mrs. Benjamin Coburn. The couple went to Rock Hall on pretext of visiting Mrs. Coburn for a week-end. Rev. J. W. Prettymen was called in and the ceremony was performed. This was kept a secret from the other members of the family until several days ago. According to Lieutenant Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were childhood sweethearts until about 20 years ago, when a quarrel occurred. Both married several years later and became widower and widow. When this fact became know to Mr. Thomas he again renewed the courtship of his first love.

Rest Room Opened.

The Rest Room provided by the Federated Club, at the Imperial Hotel for the country folks who come to Chestertown to do their shopping, was opened on Monday with a tea and housewarming. The ladies have furnished the room very prettily and comfortably and have provided good reading and conveniences which will enable our country friends to have an enjoyable time here. The ladies want the country people to feel that the room is theirs, and they must feel perfectly at home there and use it to their comfort and satisfaction.

A committee was named to investigate the cost of a pulmotor, an instrument for resuscitating drowning persons. This instrument, if secured, will be for the use of all physicians throughout the town and county in the event of its need.

Another committee was named to interested the charitable organizations of the county in the Blind Survey, which is being promoted throughout the counties of this Shore. Mrs. Harry Brown and Mrs. Eben F. Perkins were elected delegates and Mrs. Fred Usilton and Mrs. Lewis Wood alternates to the annual meeting of the Maryland State Federation of Women's Clubs to be held in Baltimore Wednesday and Thursdry, April 21 and 22, at McCoy Hall, John's Hopkin's University.

The annual luncheon of the State Federation will be held at the Baltimore Country Club on Thursday, April 22, at 1.30 P. M. Tickets to be engaged and paid for in advance can be secured from Mrs. Joseph Lawton, "The Shirley," Baltimore, for $1.50.

Robert E. Porter, aged 37 years, son of the late W. J. Porter, died at his home on Cypress street, Millington, on Easter Sunday morning at 5.30, of dilation of the heart and hovar pneumonia. Mr. Porter had been in poor health for some time, and by sheer force of will, against the advice of friends who saw his vitality weakening, he continued the performance of his duties as rural mail carrier up to Saturday last when he was too ill to go out again, and although everything possible was done for his relief and comfort, the end came quickly. He was born in Chesterville, Md., Dec. 31, 1876, and came to Millington with his parents when quite a small child. Later he learned the trade of watchmaker in Millington with Francis Smith, and being a natural mechanic, could do almost anything with fine tools. For ten years he has served Route No. 3 from Millington P. O. with no lost time, and with general satisfaction to all patrons, being kind and obliging, he enjoyed the esteem and confidence of all who knew him. He is survived by his widow and five small children, and his mother, two sisters and five brothers. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock in Asbury M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. G. P. Smith. The following orders, of which he was a member, were represented: Tri-County Letter Carriers' Association (Cecil, Kent and Queen Annes counties); Knights of Pythias, of Clayton, Del.; Washington Camp No. 42 P. O. S. of A., and Millington Council No. 80 Daughters of America, of which his widow is a member, besides many, many friends. After the religious services of the church at the grave, the P. O. S. of A. and K. of P. each performed the burial ceremony for the dead according to their ri es. The pall-bearers were Paul Comegys, B. W. Duling, C. P. Jones, Jas. D. Moore, Walter Culley, J. W. Poore, all of the P. O. S. of A. J. L. Smith was funeral director. Interment was made in Millington cemetery. The many beautiful floral tributes evidenced the esteem in which he was held.
