THE HUB, MILLINGTON, MD.

THE American Issue, the official organ of the Maryland Anti-Saloon League, in its last issue, in discussing the vote in the House on the temperance question says this of Mr. Shallcross:

"We were very much disappointed to find Mr. Shallcross, of Kent county, lined up with the liquor forces, for he owes his nomination and election to the temperance people of that county. The only votes from the Eastern Shore cast against the bill were Messrs. Shallcross, of Kent, Dudley, of Queen Annes, and Hagan, of Worcester."

It will be remembered that the Anti-Saloon League gave its endorsement to Mr. Shallcross, because its superintendent, Mr. Wm. H. Anderson, stated that Mr. Shallcross had promised to support the temperance bill, and Mr. Anderson sent speakers into this county during the last primaries to urge the people to vote for Turner and Shallcross. The Anti-Organization forces were branded by Anderson as allies of the liquor interests because Mr. Harris, who never promised to vote for the Anti-Saloon League local option measure, and who was fought bitterly both in the primaries and general election by the Anti-Saloon League because of his known attitude on the temperance measure, refused to vote for the bill in 1912. Now, if Mr. Anderson were still in Maryland, how would he class the Organization faction, both of whose candidates Anderson claimed had promised to support the League bill, and one of these "flunked" when the showdown came. And when the Dawkins amendment to the Anti-Shipping bill providing for absolute prohibition on the Eastern Shore was offered in the House, both Mr. Turner and Mr. Shallcross voted against the amendment, notwithstanding the fact that some of the Organization faction were publicly "raising the housetops" for absolute prohibition. Oh! if the people of Kent county would only have the discretion to sit down and ponder over these things when a primary contest is being waged, how different things would be. But such statements as these made during a primary contest would be called "lies" and "misrepresentations," and it is astonishing how many people there are who are foolish enough to believe such charges.
