Rock Hall Items.

At a meeting of the building commission for the new High School in Rock Hall Wednesday night, the contract was awarded to Mr. Walter Pippin, of Chestertown. There were several bidders from different sections of the State, and some from other States. Building operations will start as soon as possible.

Last Saturday the Boy Scouts entertained the Camp Fire Girls and friends at the scout cabin to dinner. This was postponed from Easter Monday. There were thirty guests present, including two of the local committee.

Burke Wheatley was in Chestertown one day this week to consult a doctor regarding his health.

The Orientals, a side degree of the Jr. O. U. A. M., entertained a number of their friends at a supper and dance one day this week.

The boys of the Rock Hall High School have organized an athletic association.

The snow of the Easter holidays has made the wheat look good in this section.

Gus Hardin, whose hand was badly cut a few days ago by a circular saw, has returned from the hospital, and is getting along very well. The doctors saved the finger and thumb which one of our local doctors thought would have to be removed.

Reuben Greenhawk is substituting in the Piney Neck School in the place of Miss Ida Smith, who was called to Chestertown to fill a vacancy there.

Mr. Blaustein was in Baltimore one day this week, adding to his already large spring stock of goods.

Mr. Putman, Scout Commissioner of the State, was the guest of Professor Greenhawk last Thursday. Mr. Putman succeeded Mr. Eddy, and was on his official tour of inspection of the Eastern Shore Scouts and also to look over a camp site near this town, with the intention of locating the summer camp of the Baltimore Council of Boy Scouts. This camp will mean a lot to Rock Hall and the people here should do all they can to encourage such a movement. The proposed sight is the beautiful bluff on the farm of Mr. Fister facing the bay, near the Gratitude wharf.

Thomas Joiner has lately purchased a Mertz five-passenger car.

The fishermen report that the sea nettles are so bad that their nets are being burned to pieces.

Mr. Parsons made his first shipment of asparagus last Tuesday. Nineteen bunches. Messrs. Bogle and Stevens, of East Neck Island, have also made a shipment.

Will Leary, Mr. Downey's very polite clerk, has greatly improved the appearance of his front windows. Looks good, Bill.

Millington Items.

M., preaching by the pastor. Thursday 8 P. M., Young People's service; Friday 7.30 P. M., prayer meeting. All are cordially invited to attend these services.

Mrs. Edward Abel, of Philadelphia, Pa., was the guest last week of her sister, Mrs. John Woodall.

Mr. H. H. Benneman injured one of his eyes quite badly with wood alcohol, one day last week, while lighting his store lamps, and had to go to an eye specialist in Wilmington, Del., for treatment. Mr. Wm. Sachs, of Chestertown, is assisting in his store during his absence.

Mr. H. M. Hynson was the guest last Sunday of friends in Church Hill.

Miss Roraback, a field secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, will speak in Asbury M. E. Church, Monday, April 26th, at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be opened by a song service, given by the young people. All are cordially invited.

Mrs. George A. Pembroke returned last Sunday to her home near town, after a two weeks stay with relatives in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Eva Porter spent last Tuesday in Chestertown.

The remains of Mr. Samuel Peacock, of Chester, were brought down on the morning train last Monday and intered in Millington cemetery.

Miss Emma Gillespie, of Sudlersville, was entertained last Monday by her aunt, Miss Vic Power.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society, of Asbury M. E. Church, held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. J. L. Smith.

Miss Clara H. Bryan spent the week-end with Mr. William Clendaniel, near Kennedyville.

Mrs. Emma Shahan returned home last week after spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Charles McCleary, of Chestertown.

Mrs. Annie Price is visiting relatives and friends in Kennedyville.

KENNEDYVILLE GRANGE NOTES.

Kennedyville Grange held its regular meeting Monday evening with an excellent attendance. We were pleased to have with us several visitors from our sister granges. Bro. Jas. T. Anthony gave some instructions in the secret work of the grange which was very helpful. The chief feature of the evening was a debate on the topic: Resolved, "That Woman's Suffrage is Advisable for the Best Interests of Our Country." Those arguing for the affirmative were: Bros. Edgar R. Pennington and Wm. M. Clendaniel and Sister Tilghman Shafer. Those for the negative were: Bros. John Medders, Harry J. Hill and Wm. T. Hague. The subject was treated with a good deal of earnestness and many arguments were advanced pro and con. The judges were: Sister Acca Crew and Bros. Anthony and Maddox, who rendered a decision of two in favor of the affirmative and one for the negative. This was followed by a light repast and social intercourse.
