TAX DODGERS ATTENTION

Step up and Tell the County Commissioners all About it.

Have you, lurking about your person or domicile, or anywhere else, any intangible property, such as bonds, evidences of debt, shares of stock in foreign corporations, saving bank deposits, notes, private securities, mortgages or anything else worth having and upon which by any possible chance a tax may be levied?

The County Commissioners, egged on by the S ate Tax Commission, want to know. And those of Talbot County propose to find out, even though their fellows in some of the other counties have shown a disposition to dodge and throw upon the State Tax Commission the onus of the inquisition to which all suspected of possessing anything not already on the tax books are being subjected.

Blanks have been sent out to suspected parties. They contain a large number of questions which not a few will think distinctly impertinent. These must be sworn to after the blanks have been filled in. They will in many cases be sworn at during the process.

Those who object to this refinement of the gentle art to taxing have realy but two alternative courses open to them. One is to act upon the Biblical injunction, "Sell all thou hast and give to the poor." There is no material evidence that this course will prove generally popular, indeed. The other is to "Sell all thou hast" for real money, stow it in an old sock and hide it safely away under the eaves or between a floor and ceiling or bury it at the root of "the old oak" of popular romance. Any old oak will do.

Those unable to make up their minds to do any of these things, yet who are indisposed to give the County Commissioners the straight story of their wealth, are dividing their time between taking medicine to ward of nervous prostration and mopping off excessive chilly perspiration. Now and then one will be heard to declare fervently that the only really happy person in these degenerate days of official ultra-inquisitiveness are those who can rise and conscientiouly join in that inspiring old hymn,

"No foot of land do I possess,
"No cottage in the wilderness."

How about you?—Easton Gazette.

1,475 Barrels of Trout Caught.—One thousand four hundred and seventy-five barrels of trout were taken from the nets last week at Ocean City, and the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company made up a special to get the fish shipment north. These fish are selling in the city markets at from $5.00 to $7.50 a barrel. At the average of $5.00 a barrel the catch will ealize $7,500.

Preston's Majority, 16,000.

Mayor Preston was re-elected on Tuesday for a second term as Mayor of Baltimore city by an unprecedented majority of 16,000 over Mr. Charles Heintzman, the Republican candidate. Few of the Democratic leaders in Baltimore believed that Mayor Preston's majority would be above 12,000, but when the astounding majority of 16,000 was rolled up, Chairman "Danny" Loden, of the Democratic city committee could scarcely contain himself, and there was rejoicing all around. Mayor Preston carried 19 of the 24 wards by heavy majorities, and elected a majority in both branches of the City Council, as well as carried his running mates, Messrs. Thrift and Hubert, for Comptroller and President of the Second Branch, through by majorities a little less than that given the Mayor. Nearly the entire Democratic affiliated vote was cast, which shows the effectiveness of the party Organization in the city. Mayor Preston's overwhelming majority will greatly weaken the Republican party, which is already split to pieces by factionalism, and it will make the mayor a power in State politics that will make his influence felt for years to come. Now that the city election is over, the State campaign will assume new vigor, and Mayor Preston's influence will play a most conspicious part in the contest.
