CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

I desire to express my appreciation to those who have favored me with their patronage since I have been engaged in the mercantile business at Fairlee. Without their assistance it would have been impossible for me to have succeeded. Now that I have sold out, I hope the general public will be as liberal with the new firm of Bramble, Kilbourn & Noland, to whom I have sold the business, as they have been with me.
All accounts due Kilbourn & Bramble and T. B. Kilbourn are payable to me. I must have prompt settlement, as it is necessary that the business of both firms be closed up.
T. B. KILBOURN,
Fairlee, Md.

LOCAL MATTERS

Subscription Card Party.—The King's Daughters of Emmanuel P. E. Church will give a subscription card party on Thursday afternoon, October 23rd, at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Wm. W. Beck on Water street, the proceeds of which will be for charity.

Gunning Season.—The following are the dates when the game season becomes effective in Kent: Partridge, Nov. 10 to Dec. 24; rabbit, Nov. 10 to Dec. 24; squirrel, Nov. 10 to Dec. 31. Non-resident fee is $10.

Wedding Announcement.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith announce the marriage of their daughter, Emma Lourene, to Mr. Lee Costin Price, of Centerville. The ceremony will take place on Saturday evening, October 23, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. No cards.

Sues Town Commissioners and Bailiff.—Mrs. Alice H. Derringer, through her attorney, Hope H. Barroll, Esq., has instituted suit for damages against the Board of Town Commissioners and the town officer, Samuel E. Cooper, jointly for the destruction of a shade tree in front of her home on Queen street some months ago. This suit will be watched with interest, as it will undoubtedly determine the responsibility for the destruction and trimming of shade trees under the State Forestry law.

Secures Fine Position.—Mr. J. D. Forster, who for a number of years past has been residing on his pretty Chester river property in Queen Annes, has secured a lucrative position in South Carolina in the engineering business. Mr. Forster is an expert engineer, and recently took the Government Civil Service examination for such work. We understand that the salary of the position is $200 per month and expenses, and Mr. Forster will report for duty at once. His many friends here will be glad to learn of his good fortune.

Little Child Fatally Burned.—A very sad accident happened on Tuesday evening, when Mary Anna, the four-year-old daughter of John and Mary Schaubert, set her clothing on fire in an unknown manner, while playing in the yard at about six-thirty in the evening. She probably found a match, which she struck, and before help could come to her she was burned so badly that she died from the effects of her burns on Wednesday morning at eleven-forty. Dr. Graham and Rev. Father Earnest were summoned at once, and everything possible was done for the poor little sufferer. Funeral was held Friday morning from Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Chestertown, at 9 A. M. Rev. Father Earnest officiating. Interment in Church Hill Catholic cemetery.

The Religious World.
Other church notes on page 7.
Rev. Wm. Forbes Adams, Bishop of the Diocese of Easton, will preach in I. U. Church to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 3 o'clock.
Nearly all of the Methodist Protestant churches were represented at the great Christian Endeavor Convention held this week in Annett Memorial Church, Baltimore, and the sessions were interesting and profitable. Frank Elburn represented Christ M. P. Church.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

Court convenes next Monday.
Great preparations are being made for the Eastern fair, which will be held October 26, 27, 28, and 29.

Mr. J. F. Thompson received a car load more of Ford cars last week and hessels them as fast as they are received.
Mrs. Mueller, in Church Alley, has purchased a Studebaker machine in which to deliver soft drinks to various parts of the county.

Mr. Charles N. Satterfield has purchased through Mr. Owen Smith, agent, a seven-passenger, 1916 model, Studebaker touring car.

Mr. R. C. Harris, manager of the local telephone Co., should receive the thanks of all baseball fans for furnishing the news by innings of the world's series.

There have been heavy frosts during the week and the thermometer registered 38 degrees on Monday morning early. Pretty cold for this season of the year.

Christopher Columbus discovered America 423 years ago last Tuesday. The event was observed in Chestertown by the closing of the postoffice, banks and public buildings.

Buyers of property take note of the sale of a nice little farm of 21 acres' conveniently located and very productive, on Tuesday next, by J. Waters Russell, assignee.

Mr. John G. Uilston has been so successful in growing alfalfa during the past years that he will increase his tillage to 28 acres. His crop this year has been very profitable.

Compulsory school attendance for both white and colored pupils went into effect Monday. All children in the county between the ages of six and sixteen years will be required to attend school six months or until April 11.

Those beautiful cockscomb on display in the big show window of H. F. Jefferson & Bros.' big store were grown by Mrs. J. B. Burchinal. Mrs. Joel R. Clements also has some of the largest and finest ever seen in Chestertown.

The illustrated lecture on the Passion Play given in the High school auditorium, on Monday evening, by Mr. G. A. Weber, was attended by a good audience and the lecture and pictures were inspiring.

Quite a large number of our farmers in Kent and Queen Annes are having their hogs immunized against the dreaded hog cholera with hog cholera serum. A money order for $50 worth of the serum was forwarded to Philadelphia on Monday.

A very unusual and indeed quite interesting sight is to be seen in the pear orchard of Mr. George Beck near Lankford, where can be seen numerous trees heavily laden with the ripening fruit and yet are full of beautiful blossoms.

Mr. James G. Beck, president of the Kent and Queen Anne's Driving Association, will attend the big meet at Belmont next week and while there will find out for a certainty whether or not Peter Stevens, the pacing marvel, will be here for the racing meet on Nov. 3-4. See adv. for particulars of meet.

The pack of canned tomatoes has taken a rapid jump in price within the past two weeks, and the condition of the canned goods market is such that the packers can afford to pay good contract prices for next year. This year's output was far below the average and the warehouses will be stripped of stock long before next season.

Dr. J. E. Graham, one of our expert breeders, has been shipping some very fine strawberry plants to friends during the past week. The variety is known as the Ever Bearing Superbas, and Dr. Graham has been enjoying large and luscious berries from the vines up to the present time. They are a prize in any man's garden.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Federated Club will be held next Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 3 p. m. Prof. Ten Hoop, of Washington College, on Wednesday evening of this week gave the first of a series of lectures on "Aesthetics." The second one will be given on Wednesday evening, Oct. 27. These lectures are open to the public.

While out joy riding last Saturday night in an automobile, five negroes ran into Mr. Michael Grady, a well-known resident of the First District, demolishing his carriage, breaking his rib and nose, and otherwise injuring him and injuring the horse. They were arrested and given a hearing, and four of them were fined $25 and costs, while the chauffeur was fined $40 and costs.

During the past fifteen days the Parcel Post business at the Chestertown postoffice has been unusually heavy; 1,891 parcels have been received and 683 sent out, making a grand total of 2,574 parcels handled, or an average of 171 a day. The people are beginning to appreciate the convenience of Parcel Post, and are learning that it is much cheaper than to forward by express.

One of the workmen on the new Ellison house had a narrow escape from serious injury on Tuesday morning. The scaffolding on the roof upon which he was working broke, causing him to fall headlong to the ground. In the descent his body struck the porch scaffolding which caused him to fall on his shoulder, otherwise he may have been fatally injured. He was painfully injured about the shoulder.

Chestertown horses showed up fine at the great York fair. My Bird, trained at Radcliffe Park by S. Powell Peacock, took the 2.16 pace in straight heats; The Kid, owned by George Satterfield, took the 2.20 pace in straight heats; heat race, which required three days to finish, owing to the weather. Mr. Joseph Rising, a former well-known trainer at Radcliffe, won the 2.20 trot with Ora Society, but was out of the money with Hal B. Patchen.

Base-Ball Notes.
Edward Blackway, Chestertown's crack pitcher, shut out the strong Galena team on Wednesday of last week, allowing only four hits. Blackway received glittered support from his team mates, and when it is considered that the Horse of the New England League was on the mound for Galena, the showing of Blackway is remarkable. The score was 1 to 0.

Chestertown, with the rest of the Eastern part of the country, has had the base-ball fever during the week, and the scoreboards, which told the story of the world's series games between Philadelphia and Boston, have been watched closely. Both teams have had their sympathizers here. The series resulted in four games won by Boston and one by the Phillies. Each player of the winning team received $3,779, and each one of the losing team $2,500. Both teams will go to the Panama Exposition for a series of games, playing a number unroute.

The Chestertown team went to Galena on Thursday to play a double header, but owing to the rain they were enabled to play only five innings. The score was 1 to 0 in favor of Galena. Jarman pitched for Chestertown and allowed only two hits in five innings. The contest for the championship will be decided later.

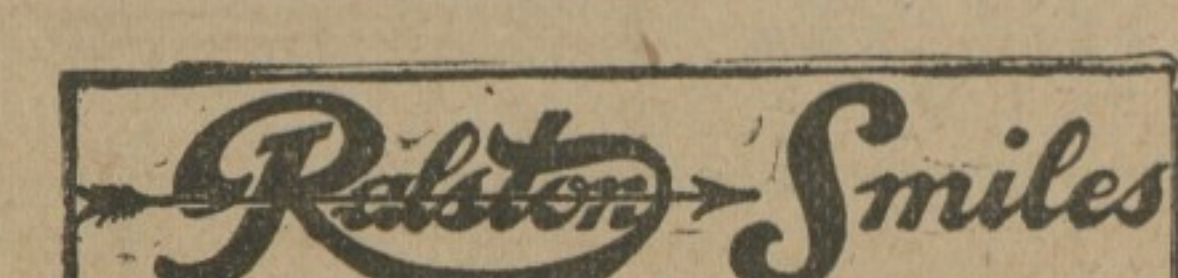

Worton Grange Notes.
Worton Grange has started in the usual fall work with real earnestness. The meetings are all well attended, and at each one something new is brought up if interest to all. The lecturer is untiring in her efforts to make this grange one of the best and the other officers are aiding her greatly, this showing this appreciation of her good work, and the members are not slow in doing their part.
Next Friday night, Oct. 22, this grange proposes holding a pie social in the hall to which all are cordially invited. This is the first affair of this kind that we have ever had and we desire a good attendance. So let every one come and bring a friend. The meeting next Monday night, as usual, at 7.30 P. M. Be on hand to help at least by your presence.

OCTOBER 20, HOME-COMING DAY IN FAIRLEE GRANGE.—Worthy Flora, Miss Linda Morris, is arranging a program by the children, the play called "An Autumn Frolic." The children will please bring any exhibits they can, a prize offered for the most blue ribbons. Ice cream and cake served.

ANNOUNCEMENT!
FALL TAILORING EXPOSITION
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16th!

There is a man in our town, and he is wond'rous wise. He lays a rigid ruling down for ev'ry shoe he buys. Once, Smith would scatter all his trade—would buy both here and there and twenty different prices paid, for nobby shoes to wear.

He'd get a pair of tans of Jinks, and patent kids of Black, while those he wore upon the links, were bought of Mike or Mack. Each last was totally remote from what he had before; each style a quite distinctive note, as happened in the store. And when on business bent, he'd go, to cities far away, still other shoes were bought you know, in profligate array.

Now such a scheme is generous—Smith favored no one shop; but soon his feet began to fuss and Smith began to hop. The many lasts—the many shapes, no foot can stand th' strain. No fellow's tootsie-woot' escapes that aftermath of pain. So Smith he joined the Ralston Club, that is, he vowed anew:—"No more for mine to rip and rub—give me the RALSTON SHOE." It's mighty fine to realize, that fit is guaranteed; that style is what a fellows buys along with comfort-need. And Smith—well say, he's Ralston mad; No other shoes for Smith. Says he:—"They've made my 'walkers' glad, where once I dealt in groans."

You are very apt to stick to Ralstons after the first pair.
