Bradley Case Settled.

The litigation pending between Mr. Jas. S. Bradley and his wife, Mrs. Annie T. Bradley, concerning certain injunction case, attachment case and suit for damages have been amicably determined by agreement of the parties. These suits were begun in March, resulting from a transfer by Mr. Bradley of a portion of his property to his wife, which afterwards Mr. Bradley undertook to have avoided by the court on the ground of incapacity to make a binding contract. Considerable testimony had already been taken before Judge Hopper sitting in special session for hearing of these cases, and Monday, Dec. 6th, had been assigned for resuming the hearing. Before court convened, however, the parties had agreed to a settlement.

It is understood the terms of the settlement are, for Mrs. Bradley, the wife, to receive the sum of $8,000, each side to pay one-half of the costs in the injunction case, and Mr. Bradley to pay all costs in the other cases, and waiver by each of their respective dower rights in the property of the other.

The compromise, it would seem, is to the best advantage of both parties, avoiding what promised to be long and expensive litigation, and facilitating a reconciliation of husband and wife.

Imagine the happiness of the women who get Hoosier Cabinets this Holiday season

Think of the joy of preparing over a thousand meals a year with a saving of half the time and energy.

Your wife will appreciate this Hoosier Cabinet as a million other women do.

You may not know why the Hoosier has such a marvelous sale—but she knows.

She knows about the sanitary sliding table of pure aluminum or porcelain—the spotless white cupboards uncluttered by partitions. She knows how the utensil tray and deep metal drawers save time, how the shaker flour sifter avoids grit and won't wear out; how the metal caster sockets make it easy to move without breaking casters. The food guide, calendar and pencil holder are among the 40 labor-saving features that give the Hoosier unrivaled supremacy for her.

So we gladly guarantee that if she isn't delighted with the Hoosier for Christmas we'll refund every penny.

And you can start now on the remarkably liberal terms of $1 down and $1 per week.
