The Transcript

R. H. COLLINS, T. D. BOWERS
EDITORS.

WE WANT all the "traitors," "tickers" and "soreheads" in both the Organization and Anti-Organization factions to shake hands and get together.

THE daily papers of all shades of political opinion are using columns of space in telling of the great prosperity now being felt all over the country. But the jingoists are endeavoring to make it appear that the country is going to the bad under the Democratic administration.

DR. G. ALLAN JARMAN is being prominently mentioned by friends here for State Veterinarian. Dr. Jarman held this position during the administration of Governor Warfield and made the State a compentent official. His friends will no doubt make every effort to land him a winner. Go after it, Doc.

ALREADY there are avowed and prospective candidates for United States Senator to succeed Senator Blair Lee, whose term expires in 1917. Hon. Wm. Cabel Bruce, of Baltimore, and Congressman David J. Lewis are already in the field, and Senator Lee is feeling the pulse of the people. There does not seem to be any rest for the weary.

THE presidential boom which was budding in New York State for Elihu Root, was knocked into a cocked hat by that 500,000 majority against Root's new constitution for the State. Root will never do, he is too vascillating. He is one day with Barnes and the standpatters and to-morrow he is for the people. Strange how a man of his intelligence can occupy such a position.

FIRST Assistant Postmaster-General Daniel C. Roper has addressed a letter to postmasters urging them to seek the co-operation of civic organizations and mercnants in the "mail early" campaign now being waged to prevent the congestion of the mails during the coming holiday season. Postmaster Bowers and his office force will be glad to give any information looking to the solution of this perplexing problem. Let the people of the town co-operate with the postoffice and mail all Xmas packages, etc., early.

CONSIDERABLE interest in being manifested by the Democrats in the organization of the next Legislature. Since the defeat of Senators Benson and Beck the Smith machine is somewhat at a loss for a candidate for president of the Senate. Among those mentioned for this position are Senators Harvey Cooper, of Caroline county, Peter Campbell and William J. Ogden, of Baltimore. Lloyd Wilkinson, of Baltimore, is an announced candidate for Speaker of the House, and is making an active canvas for the position. Upon the organization of the Legislature depends very largely the character of the Legislation during next session.

THE recent Democratic primaries which kicked up such a rumpus in the party cost the tax-payers of Kent county at least $2,500. Now, if both factions of the party would get together and name a ticket acceptable to each, it would save the party from defeat in the election and relieve the tax-payers of $2,500 in needless taxation. We feel very sure that there are few if any Democratic tax-payers in the county who are willing to spend so much money for the sake of tearing the Democratic party to pieces. But how about the politicians, who are looking for every little expression they can find, even in an editorial in the TRANSCRIPT to furnish an excuse for not getting together.

THE TRANSCRIPT struck the keynote of the situation last Saturday in its editorial urging both factions of the Democratic party to get together for the future good of the party, and from all parts of the county have been received the most favorable commendation of our suggestion. The good-thinking people of this county are in no humor to be trifled with, and the sooner this fact is realized the better it will be for the party. It is no more use for both papers and the members of each faction to be blaming the other with treachery than it is to attempt to fly. The time has come when the people are determined to protect their interests, and if they are compelled to go outside of party lines, such as they were in the last election to accomplish their purpose they will not hesitate to do it. So talk as much as you please and then stop awhile, and you will find the people just as determined as ever.

JUST A REMINDER.

Just to remind the editors of the Kent News who used every word in the dictionary last Saturday to condemn the Antis for the defeat of the ticket in the election, we state that one of the election officials in the Betterton precinct told us last week that not more than 22 straight tickets were voted in the election. Mr. William W. Beck, the Organization candidate for the Senate polled 68 votes in Betterton in the primaries, and it is perfectly plausible to state that these 68 votes were Organization Democrats, because the Organization won't admit that any Republicans voted their ticket in the primaries except in Rock Hall. Now, if only 22 straight tickets were voted in Betterton precinct in the election and Mr. Beck polled 68 Organization Democratic VOTES IN THE PRIMARIES, IT IS VERY EVIDENT THAT THE ORGANIZATION DEMOCRATS CUT THEIR TICKET IN THE ELECTION. And this is so all over the county. There are a number of men in Chestertown who voted the straight Organization ticket in the primaries, who either cut their ticket to pieces or voted the straight Republican ticket in the election. And we know of one Republican who voted for Mr. Beck in the election. We publish this statement simply to remind the editors of the Kent News that their issue of last Saturday was a colossal blunder.

ROOM FOR NEW LEADERSHIP.

Under the above heading, the Wilmington Every Evening on Saturday said in part editorially:

"In contemplation of the decidedly mixed up returns of the Maryland election, on Tuesday, the suggestion is natural that new leadership of the Democratic party is in order at this time. The old leaders, both party and factional, especially the latter, may well make room for those who might be able to bring about a situation of complete harmony in the party ranks.

"In this consideration, first in order is General Murray Vandiver, the able and astute State chairman, and also managing director of what is called the "State machine." General Vandiver has proved his ability as a party leader in many hard-fought campaigns, and has lost only twice in twenty years. But it is now apparent he is not the man to bring about harmony, and it might be advisable for him to retire at this time, after he has won his hardest battle. He could do so gracefully and with high credit.

"Senator John Walter Smith would do well to retire gracefully, which he can afford to do. The state of the vote in Maryland this week does no credit to his powers of persuasion, especially in the Eastern Shore counties, which are his political bailiwick. Even his home county, Worcester, went over to the enemy.

"Congressman Talbot also seems to be eliminated by the surprising political flop in Baltimore county, his home."

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

Will Usilton Weighed—Will He Be Wanting?

TO THE EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT:
GENTLEMEN:—

In regard to the editorials in the Kent News on Nov. 6th last, it is a pity they were inserted.

In regard to the editorials in the TRANSCRIPT of the same date I regret exceedingly they were published.

While I deplore the fact that any Anti-Organization man cut his ticket—and I know a number did, I don't purpose to do anything to prevent them from coming back to the Democratic party. On the contrary, I sincerely and heartily hope that every one will forget the past and be as firm in their Democracy as I had believed they would be this time. The same is true of some Organization men.

In regard to the editorial in the Kent News they cannot in one breath praise me in smooth words, then get away with the following: "Mr. Barroll tried his best to undo this work but in vain. He spoke publicly and had sent to more than a thousand of his Antis the excellent letter published last week in the News. It was simply a case of followers refusing to follow their leader who had become in a large measure discredited."

In answer to this I address you, Mr. William B. Usilton, as an editor of the Kent News. One of the chief arguments, used with most telling effect among my friends prior to the election, was the fact that you had stated prior to the primary of Sept. 14th last to Mr. Charles N. Satterfield that if Mr. Ellwood Morris were nominated in the primary you would not vote for him in the election. My friends, I find in large numbers, believe this is a fact, and that you said it. Mr. Beck and I spent part of a morning before the election trying to see you and others to trace this report down, and nail it as a lie. We wanted you to face Mr. Satterfield. While we found Mr. Henry Brown, Mr. Rasin and others stated most publicly that they knew of your statement, and constantly repeated it to the injury of our party; Mr. Beck and I concluded for the welfare of all it had better be dropped.

Now, I don't know whether you made this statement or not. But it was spread industriously from one end of the county to the other. You must have known all about it. You never denied it. A card from you in the News would have satisfied every one. It is not too late now for you to tell the truth about this charge.

If you did not say it, come out now over your own signature and publish it to the voters of this county. If you did say it, be a man and admit that you did so, and that you are sorry for it. How could any man on earth hold his friends to him if you and other Organization Democrats ever made such statements or similar ones. You know in town and county you were charged with this, so were others. I trust they were not all true. Some were made—the one who said he would bolt was a prominent Organization office holder!

But how could you keep still? He, and a few others, not many I believe, could be passed over. But You? You—how about You—a leader and guide?

Will you meet Ellwood Morris, Wm. B. Copper, Charles N. Satterfield, A. Parks Rasin and Henry Brown in Mr. William W. Beck's office and deny this statement, then publish your denial? If this be done you will remove a foul suspicion which now attaches to you.

It is a bad thing for the Democrats to keep up this wrangle. But each time you attack me remember to keep your own skirts clear or be prepared for me.

Now, as to all Democrats, let us try to get together. If the Antis cannot have their own way then give half. If the Organization cannot have its own—yield. Meet and consult and try to trust each other. I am willing to trust implicitly fellow-Democrats in the next primary, rather than have this cutting the ticket, seeking Republican help, and use of money in primaries and elections, by both sides.

Yours respectfully,
HOPE H. BARROLL.

Chestertown, Md., Nov. 8, 1915.

Betterton, Md., Nov. 9, 1915.

MESSRS. EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT:
DEAR SIRS:

Please allow me space in your valuable paper in "People's Column" for reply to an item in the Kent News of last Saturday, Nov. 6th, 1915, entitled: "Proof of the treachery."

We will take Betterton precinct as a sample. In justice to the voters of Betterton, especially the Anti Democrats, we will take their own figures:

Beck in primary		68
Lewis	"	55
Turner	"	81
Hadaway	"	66
Dodd	"	75
Sutton	"	60
Crow	"	64
Wilson	"	75
Cannan	"	63
Rasin	"	67

An average of 67⅔ votes and there were only twenty-two straight Democratic votes in our precinct at our general election, and I know of some Antis that did vote the straight Democratic ticket. Now, if the Antis did all of the carving, what became of all the Organization that voted in the primary. There is a difference of 45 votes according to my figures. I am not an apt scholar or a college graduate.

When the Kent News figures out the correct solution we will be glad if they will publish same.

No, Messrs. Editors of Kent News, it was not a case of treachery. The voters of our precinct wanted to find out who was the leader of the Organization party, "J. D. Urie" or "Willie," and it looks about the same all over the county. The writer thinks they took the Betterton precinct for a sample because our delegate, "Mr. Turner," received less votes in the county than any nominee on the Democratic ticket.

A DEMOCRAT OF BETTERTON.

A Timely Letter.

The following letter is from the pen of one of our oldest and most representative Democrats, who has been voting the Democratic ticket for forty years, and who has always labored for the best interests of the party:

UNITED WE STAND, DIVIDED WE FALL

TO THE EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT:
GENTLEMEN:—

I fully agree with your editorial in your paper of Nov. 6th on the future of the Democratic party in Kent county. The Kent News seems to want to proclaim treachery from the housetops. Are their political robes as pure and white as the untrodden snow? Let the Democrats who were in control of the election answer this question. The language of the late Senator Rayner might apply to Democratic politics in Kent county—down with the flags of the factions and raise aloft the true banner of Democracy.

Respectfully,
DEMOCRAT.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Other personals on page 2.

Miss Miriam Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, is one of the very few young ladies of this country to enjoy the thrills of a flight in an airship. Miss Hubbard made a flight in Baltimore on Thursday with Mr. Jacques, a prominent aeronaut who has been a guest at the Belvedere for sometime. Mr. Hubbard met Mr. Jacques and arranged for the trip while his wife and daughter were in New York. Mrs. Hubbard and Miss Miriam went to Baltimore on Wednesday and Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard witnessed the flight.

Conductor John D. Welch is enjoying a well-earned vacation. Mr. Lane is substituting for Mr. Welch.

Mr. M. E. Newsome, representative of the local camp Modern Woodmen of America, attended the class adoption in Washington last Friday evening. Two hundred and seventy-five candidates were initiated, and Mr. Newsome was delighted with the ceremony.

Mr. Carroll Hughes, of Royal Oak, Md., has been visiting his sister, Mrs. William Newnam, during the week.

Prof. Mark Creasy, who recently had an option on the Aldridge home, on Front street, owned by Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, has been released by Mr. Hubbard, and the residence has been rented by Mr. Lewis H. Wood. Prof. Creasy's mother died recently, leaving a fine farm in Pennsylvania, and he desires to purchase the farm in order that it may remain in the family. Prof. Creasy will rent a home.

Mr. Thomas Conner and son, C. E. Faulkner and Mr. Jake Shriley, were taken to Piney Neck Tuesday, Nov. 9, to an oyster scald, and were grandly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Dave Emblem—a fine pair of old people. Many thanks to them, hoping they may all soon meet again.

Mrs. Charles L. Gill spent the past week in Baltimore, were she visited relatives.

Miss Katherine Lowe, of Baltimore is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles R. Twilley.

Mr. Frank Gill of Golts is enjoying a week's vacation.

OUR DEATH RECORD.

THOMAS H. JARMAN.

Thomas H. Jarman, a widely known retired hardware merchant of Greensboro, died at his home in that place last Saturday night, aged 80 years. He survived his wife (Mrs. Mary Frances Jarman) about two and a half years. Since her death he had been in very feeble health, partly due to grief. Mrs. Jarman was a daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Sarah Lewis, and a grand-daughter of Rev. Thomas Melvin, of Burrsville, one of the small group of Methodist preachers and laymen who established the Methodist Protestant Church in which Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, of Western Maryland College, a brother-in-law, is a leading figure. Sons of Mr. Jarman are Lewis A. Jarman, a lawyer and capitalist of Rushville, Ill.; Clinton B. Jarman, who succeeded his father as hardware merchant in Greensboro, and Henry Jarman, also of that place. Mrs. J. E. Willis, of Greensboro, is the only daughter of the deceased. The funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon. The deceased is a distant relative of the Jarman family in this county.

Night School a Success.

About thirty young men enrolled last Monday evening as students in the night school and the prospects are for a very successful school year. The meeting on Monday evening was only preliminary to the work of the school. Former Judge James Alfred Pearce and Postmaster Thomas D. Bowers were present and spoke to the young men upon the needs of such an institution. Prof. J. S. W. Jones, Dr. E. J. Clarke, Dr. J. R. Micou and Dr. A. S. Hall, of the college faculty, as well as teachers from the high school faculty, have very generously and patriotically offered their valuable services as teachers, and the Young Men's Club, of Christ Church, feels much gratified at the successful beginning. The next meeting of the school will be held on Tuesday evening next, when classes will be organized and work begun. It will also be determined as to just how many evenings a week school will be open. The school board of the county has very generously granted the use of the lower rooms in the high school for the night school.

Little Girl Recovers.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beck and Mr. Romie Younger, of New Freedom, Pa., will be glad to know that "Little Margaret" has returned to her home, after being under treatment at St. Agnes Hospital for one year. It will be remembered that this little two-year-old child was the one who drank lye (left by a careless servant girl while scrubbing) at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Beck, near Hanesville, on July 11, 1914. She was taken to St. Agnes Hospital on Oct. 28. After it was found that though she could swallow milk, no solid food could pass down her throat. She was operated on on Nov. 30, and a tube inserted in her stomach, through which she was fed until April, during which time her throat had been dialated sufficiently for food to pass down. She is entirely recovered however, and has no difficulty whatever while eating. She returned home on Octobar 28, 1915.

Grange Notes.

The members of Still Pond Grange will hold a "bake" Saturday afternoon, Nov. 20, at 2.30 P.M. in the grange hall. All members and friends of the grange are asked to contribute bread, cakes, pies, etc. Proceeds will be for the fund to beautify the grange hall. A light supper will be sold and served at five o'clock. The business meeting of the grange will be held at 7 o'clock, after which Sister Kelly will present an especially good literary program.

CASES IN CENTERVILLE COURT INTERESTING TO KENT COUTIANS.

Two Cases Which Have Caused Considerable Interest in Local Circles Were Disposed of this Week in Contreville Court.

PARKS VS. SKIPPER.

Claude F. Parks sued his brother-in-law T. Herbert Skipper for assault and battery, claming that he was severely beaten, bruised and injured. Mr. Parks also sued his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah E. Skipper, the widow of the late Thomas Skipper, for assault and battery claming that she, too, had severely bruised, beaten and injured him. He claimed damages of $5,000 from each of them.

When the case against Mr. T. Herbert Skipper was called Mr. Skipper asked the Court to remove it to another county for trial and it was sent to Cecil county. A jury was then drawn to try the case of Mr. Parks against his Mother-in-law, Mrs. Sarah E. Skipper, but before the jury was drawn Mr. Parks dismissed his suit and it will not come up for trial unless he determines to bring another suit. The attorneys for Mr. Parks were S. Scott Beck, Esq., Chestertown and Thomas J. Keating, Esq., Centreville.

The attorneys for Mr. Skipper were: Hope H. Barroll and L. Wethered Barroll and J. Frank Harper, Esqs., of the Centreville bar.

JOHN BELL VS. WILBUR W. HUBBARD.

This was a suit brought by Mr. Bell against Mr. Hubbard claiming that he had sold Mr. Hubbrrd's Chester river farm to John Schauber for $9,000 and that Mr. Hubbard owed him $450 and interest, making a total of about $550 commissions. The testimony disclosed the fact that Mr. Hubbard agreed to pay Mr. Bell 5 per cent. if he sold the farm to a Western man or anyone else except to Mr. Schauber, and that Mr. Hubbard and Mr. Schauber has been dealing about the farm for two or three years prior to the time Mr. Bell requested authority to sell it. The jury were out about five minutes and returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Hubbard. It is understood that Mr. Bell will take the case to the Court of Appeals. The attorneys for Mr. Bell were: R. Groome Parks, R. Hynson Rogers and J. H. C. Legg, Esq., of Centreville.

The attorneys for Mr. Hubbard were: Hope H. Barroll, L. Wethered Barroll and Thomas J. Keating, Esqs.

BIG POTATO YIELD.

Mr. Clifton L. Jarrell, one of the most successful sweet popato growers in this section, had one of the most successful years in his career this year. The golden lands of Queen Annes county yield a bountiful harvest indeed.

From twelve acres Mr. Jarrell dug six thousand brace baskets of good big potatoes, besides hundreds of baskets of small potatoes and roots. This gives him between five and six hundred baskets to the acre.

One of the boys on the farm picked out a brace basket of the big potatoes and filled it with sixteen mammoth potatoes, two of which weighed two pounds, one ounce, and two pounds, nine ounces, respectively.

Widows Pension.

Miss Edna Annette Beveridge, secretary of the "committee of 100," who is seeking the passage of the Widow-Mothers' Pension Bill at the next session of the Maryland Legislature, will speak next Monday, Nov. 15, in the Rest Room, Chestertown, at 8 P. M. This bill, or a similar one, passed the House by a large majority at the last session of the Legislature, but was defeated in the committee of the Senate. This "committee of 100" believes that financial aid should be extended by the State of Maryland to widow mothers for the care, support and education of their dependent children, and that it should be given, not as alms or as charity in any form, but in such manner as will dignify family life, enabling the family thus to maintain its self-respect and the respect of the community in which it lives; such aid to be granted under wise supervision and restriction. The Woman's Federated Club, through whom Miss Beveridge comes, urges the men and women of our community to attend this meeting and hear Miss Beveridge, who is a most pleasing speaker. It is certainly a measure in which all must be interested.

Great Range Demonstration.

The demonstration of the great Majestic Range at the hardware store of Graham & Thomas this week has attracted large numbers of housewives and housekeepers, and Mr. Alexander, the very able and affable demonstrator, has succeeded in selling more than a dozen of these fine cookers during the week. Miss Hilda Chrisfield, of Locust Grove, won the prize of a choice of any article in the store worth one dollar, for the best answer to the question: "The Majestic Range has many points of superiority—which does your mother consider best?" Answer: "Among the many points of superiority which the Majestic Range has, Mother considers the quickness with which its oven and the water are heated, its convenience, and its usage of so little fuel the very best." Miss Chrisfield also submitted the names of two prospective purchasers and Mr. Alexander made a sale to one of them.

Demonstrations of cooking were given every day, and Miss Copper had her Domestic Science class to examine the range. The girls had fun in mashing a finely cooked cake flat by standing on a board over the cake, and then watching it rise again.
