Cow Sets New Milk Record. Champion Tillie Alcarra, a Woodland, Cal. cow, has set a new record for milk production in excess of 30,000 pounds in a year. The year was up last Friday but the 30,000-pound mark was passed several days before. Tillie Alcarra is a 5-year-old Holstein-Friesian. She set a new record last year, surpassing by a few pounds the 29,592-pound mark made by a Massachusetts cow.

Farm House Destroyed.—The old colonial mansion on the farm of Mr. Joseph Judefind was totally destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning, from a supposedly defective flue. Mr. Judefind was able to save nearly all of his furniture. The loss on the house is about $2,500, with partial insurance in the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Company, amounting to $1,375 on the house and outbuildings. The house will be rebuilt.

BRIEF ITEMS OF INTEREST

Capt. Robertson has purchased a new five-passenger Hupmobile.
 Mr. John Hadaway has removed to the Whaland property vacated by rural carrier Thomas Willis.
 Mr. Seward, of Washington College, fractured his nose in a game of basketball at the college on Monday afternoon.
 Mrs. William Hudson has opened a clothes cleaning and pressing establishment in Rock Hall.
 Mr. C. E. Kirby is delivering goods in a new wagon built by Davis & Satterfield.
 Quite a number of Chestertown's young people are answering the picture puzzles in the Sunday Sun every week.
 Mrs. Nellie Klugh, of Spry's Gate, has purchased a new Ford car from Mr. J. F. Thompson.
 The purpose of the Thanksgiving holiday price of turkeys and all kinds of poultry is on the rise. Farmers, keep your eyes open for the market price.
 Mr. William Fowler and force of workmen have improved the cosy home of Mr. Frank E. Dwyer, of Queen street, with a new dress of paint.
 Mr. Marion T. Miller, one of the most prominent merchants in Rock Hall, has built a large addition to his big store, measuring 48 by 28 feet, to accommodate his greatly increasing trade.
 Mr. and Mrs. John C. Wood, of East Neck Island, gave their son, Frank, a birthday supper last Saturday. Quite a number of friends and relatives enjoyed the occasion.
 The thermometer has registered several degrees below the freezing point several mornings this week. The lowest temperature was recorded on Wednesday morning, 26 degrees.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

 Miss Jane Blackiston is visiting relatives and friends in Ohio.
 Mr. Harding, of Laurel, Md., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. Rote.
 Mr. Leonard Needles has been visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. Hall, and other relatives and friends in and near Wilmington, Del., during the week.
 Mrs. Ennis, mother of Mr. and Mrs. M. Culp went to a city hospital this week for special medical treatment.
 Mrs. Walraven, of Baltimore, has been visiting Mrs. Rachael Gale, during the week.
 Mrs. John Masten and little daughter, of Harrington, Del., are guests of her mother, Mrs. B. Rote.
 A message from Rev. J. M. Gill states that he and his good wife are well, and that his church work in Seattle is progressing finely. He expects to visit Maryland in April, and we are quite sure that his many friends here will be glad to see him.
 The Price farm containing 190 acres, located on the stone road leading from Middletown to Warwick, has been sold to Mr. Hiram Powell, of Galena, for $20,000. Mrs. Algire purchased this farm four years ago from Richard L. and Samuel Price for $15,750.
 The newly enacted war tax measure makes necessary the use of revenue stamps. All the banks and lawyers will have much use for these stamps as notes, mortgages, etc., newly executed, require the placing of stamps upon them. These stamps will be purchased individually by the banks and lawyers.
 Bought for a penny, carried in his pocket for 32 years and sharpened but six times in all those years, is the well-used pencil owned by J. T. Adams, a farmer-merchant of Baltimore. The pencil was purchased when its owner was a young man. It is now about two inches long, and is worn very smooth and was debated by Richard H. Collins, Jr., and Miss Mollie Copper for the affirmative and Miss Jean Stokes and Elmer Tarbuton for the negative. The judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

LOCAL MATTERS

Washington College foot-ball squad defeated the Washington in a well played game of foot-ball last Saturday on Washington field, score 12 to 0. The game scheduled for to-day between St. John's and Washington has been cancelled because of the fact that St. John's College, Dr. E. J. Clark, of Washington College, will meet them at a smoker at the Emerson Hotel, Baltimore, Wednesday, Nov. 25, to arrange for a game next year.
 A large delegation of citizens from Galena was before the Board of County Commissioners on Tuesday, asking for the services of a detective in ferreting out the burglars which have been occurring in that town and vicinity for nearly a year. The delegation also asked the commissioners to appoint a town bailiff and constable. The commissioners acted promptly upon the requests. The commissioners offered a reward of $250 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty party or parties, a part of which the citizens of Galena agreed to pay, and they have appointed Mr. Nicholas A. Burns constable and temporary bailiff.

"GOOD" Furniture and Rugs at Always Moderate Prices

Furniture to be really "GOOD" should be graceful in design—strongly made—carefully finished. It should give complete satisfaction every minute through long years of use.

For over sixty years, Pollack's has supplied Maryland homes with Furniture of distinctive quality at prices that are always consistently moderate

Next time you're in Baltimore, don't pass by because we're a "big store"—come in and we'll prove that a big store and a reputation for selling good Furniture, Rugs and Linoleums doesn't mean "big prices."

MR. C. S. HERRING, of the old firm of O. Herring Sons & Co., which retired from business, is now a member of our staff of salesmen, and would be pleased to see the old patrons of O. Herring Sons & Co. at

"Ralstons First, Boss!"

The bootblack knows when his work is done. A pair of Ralston Shoes will look as good as new, and we all like to put in our "best licks" where they count the most.

Ralstons look right the first day you put them on, and they continue to look right until worn out. That's because they are made of the best materials money can buy, by the best workmen money can hire.

It pays in the end to buy Ralston Shoes, especially since they cost no more than the unsatisfactory kinds.

Let us show the New Fall Styles—you'll like them—and you are not putting yourself under the slightest obligation by looking them over. Prices as usual—

$4.00, $4.50 and $5.00.

"American Lady" Shoes for Women!
 All Leathers—$2.50 to $4.00.

SOME MEN TELL US—and it's what others feel, but do not express—that the men who make our Made-to-Order Suits and Overcoats have a peculiar knack of making and finishing them, which makes them look "right" and "fit" right. Prices—$13.50 to $35.00.

Essays Win Prizes.
 Acting upon the suggestion of the TRANSCRIPT quite a number of Kent county boys and girls prepared essays upon agricultural subjects for the big Maryland Week show which has been in progress at the Fifth Regiment Armory in Baltimore this week. The contest attracted boys and girls all over the State, and besides prizes for each of the counties, there were also State-wide prizes. The subject of the essays for boys was—"Why the Maryland Farmer's Boy Should Remain on the Farm"; and for the girls—"How Social Conditions in Rural Life in Maryland Can be Bettered by the Daughters of Maryland Farmers." The winners of the State-wide prizes, which was $20 in gold to the winner in each class, were awarded to Virginia Louise Byrd, Pocomoke City, Worcester county; Edward Ady, Jarrettsville, Harford county. The winners of county prizes were—Kent, Margaret Atkinson, Chestertown; James Hadaway, Rock Hall, Queen Annes; Anna H. McFely, Centerville; Edward M. Covington, Centerville.

Mr. Redmond C. Stewart, one of the leading members of the Green Spring Valley Hunt Club, and well-known in this town and county, was seriously injured while fox-hunting last Saturday at the farm of J. Rush Street, in Harford county. He has been at the Union Protestant Infirmary during the week suffering with concussion of the brain. The accident was caused by his horse running into a low wire fence while on a fast gallop, causing the horse to throw his rider violently to the ground.
