Kent Family Doing Its "Bit." J. Philip Vansant, the oldest of seven brothers whose home is at Cliff's, is now a commissioned officer in the Naval Reserves, with the rank of Ensign. Kent Gains At Harford's Loss. Mr. Marion Malcomb, who purchased the Fisher farms in Morgneec, after having his farm in Harford county taken over by the government for use as part of the proving grounds, is making preparations to build a large corn and tomato cannery at Buckingham Wharf on the above farm. Mr. Malcomb is doing considerable building and repairing at this time, under the direction of Contractor Johnson, of Harford county. At present a double tenement house is being erected, and when completed a barn 36x60 will be erected, which will hold over a thousand barrels of corn. Mr. Bonn Towner, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Malcomb, will tenant one farm, while Mr. and Mrs. Malcomb's son will tenant the other farm.

Get Dr. Cadman To Help. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman, the great Brooklyn orator, who is well and favorably known in Chestertown, where he has lectured many times and has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, will speak at Denton, Md., on May 20 in the interest of Red Cross on the subject, "Our Duty In The Present Crisis." We think that it would be an excellent idea to get Dr. Cadman to deliver this lecture in Chestertown in the same interest. A good sum would, no doubt, be realized by the Red Cross of Kent, as our people always like to hear Dr. Cadman.

DEATHS

The whole community was greatly shocked and is deeply grieved because of the sudden and unexpected death of one of our most beloved ladies—Mrs. Walter U. Lushy—on last Tuesday evening at 9.45 at her home on High street. Mrs. Lushy had been suffering from heart trouble for several years, but her sad and sudden death came as such a shock to the ones who loved her best that they have been nearly prostrated by their grief. Mrs. Lushy was one of the most well-liked ladies of the county and her untimely death has left vacant a place in the hearts of many, besides her husband and daughter that will never be filled.

Before marriage Mrs. Lushy was Miss Annie Elizabeth Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Estes, of Chestertown. She leaves a husband, Mr. Walter U. Lushy; a daughter, Emily E. Lushy; and three brothers, James A., Ollie T. and Fred Estes.

The funeral was held yesterday, Friday afternoon, at 2.30 at the home of her husband, conducted by Rev. J. L. Ward, interment in Chester cemetery. The pall bearers were: Dr. H. L. Dodd, Wilbur Morris, O. C. Smith, M. Elwood Baker, H. B. Nicholson and Charles Wheatley. C. L. Dood, undertaker.

Mrs. Elizabeth B. Armstrong, widow of the late W. P. Armstrong, died at her home in Crumpton Saturday, aged 85 years. Mrs. Armstrong before her marriage was a Miss Mulford. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Eva Armstrong. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. Rev. Rowleson, officiating. Interment was in Crumpton cemetery. The deceased was an aunt of Mr. J. E. Armstrong, of Chestertown.

Josiah Ringgold, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson, died at the home of his parents at Westchester, Pa., this week. Mrs. Robinson was before marriage Miss Edna Ringgold, of Chestertown.

Enrolling The Boys For Farm Labor

An enrollment of youths between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one for work on the farms of Maryland is a move that promises substantial aid to the farmers of the State. Plans have already been formulated for this enrollment by Frank B. Cahn, with headquarters at 601 Union Trust Bldg., Baltimore, who as Federal Director represents the Department of Labor at Washington. The U. S. Boys' Working Reserve is a vital part of the broad general scheme of the National Government to relieve the shortage of farm and factory labor.

In each county the Farm Agent, the school authorities and the local Council of National Defense will be the instrumentalities through which the aid to be rendered by youths of the State will be forthcoming.

Senator Henry Brown volunteered his services to the government in this work and is in this county to assist in any way he can in the work. Those needing the services of boy labor on their farms should get in touch with Senator Brown.
