

NOW'S THE TIME FOR OXFORDS.

And you'll find JONES' is the place to get them.

We have some real live snappy styles and others that a bit quieter.

The usual JONES' value is built in every pair, which means, "the best for the money."

C. C. JONES --- The Shoe Man
Phone 222-2. CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Graduation Season IS APPROACHING

An article of Jewelry make a gift of lifelong remembrance.

ROTE'S JEWELRY STORE

PHONE 98-M. CHESTERTOWN MD

DR. D. C. BLEVINS
Dentist
Office Over Benneman's Store,
MILLINGTON, MD.
Modern Methods.

THINK
of unmarked graves and SEE
WILLIAM H. KRUSEN
STILL POND.
TOMBSTONES AND MONUMENTS

HERBERT E. PERKINS.
ATTORNEY AT-LAW.
Chestertown, Maryland

BARRED ROCK EGGS.
Our Barred Rock Eggs are better than ever this year. Fertility about 85 per cent. or better. Chicks that hatch are strong and hearty and practically none die. $5 per hundred, $1 for 15.

POLK T. BRAMBLE.
Chestertown, Md.
WOOD FOR SALE

I am now booking orders for CORD WOOD for summer and fall delivery at $11.00 per cord. A deposit of $2.00 on each cord with order as evidence of good faith required. Balance at time of delivery.

G. E. NOLAND,
Chestertown, Md.

LOCAL MATTERS

Marriage Licenses.—The following marriage licenses have been issued recently at the clerk's office: H. B. Jarman, of Caroline county, and Nellie Hickman, of New Castle County, Del.; Martin Evans and Mary L. Paxon, of Chester, Pa.; Ralph B. Rogers and Elizabeth Koenig, of Philadelphia, Pa.

Premium Catalogues.—The Kent and Queen Annes Fair Association is arranging this year to have a farmers, women's and children's department on exhibition at the coming fair in July and August, including a cattle and chicken show. Premium catalogue lists will be ready for distribution by July 1. Any one desiring one apply to James G. Beck or L. L. Burrell.

President Cain Resigns.—Dr. James W. Cain, president of Washington College for many years, handed in his resignation to the Board of Visitors and Governors on Saturday evening. The same was accepted. The college has made great strides along educational and progressive lines during the efficient administration of Dr. Cain as president and he will be greatly missed.

"Work or Fight."—This is the motto of Governor Harrington regarding the Compulsory Labor Law. He says there shall be no idlers in Maryland—regardless of color or social position—and by idlers he includes those who are employed a part of the time. Our farmers have planted the crops and idlers in every community should be reported to States Attorney Vickers, who will do the rest.

Election Supervisors Organize.—The Supervisors of Elections of Kent County met Saturday and organized by the election of Mr. Frank C. Crow as president of the board. The other members of the board are George R. Rasin and John C. Davis. Jos. N. Wheatley was made secretary of the board. The supervisors will meet on next Tuesday for the appointment of registrars of voters.

Hail Storm in Kent.—The first hail storm in Kent this year occurred on Wednesday afternoon. No damage was done by the hail, but the wind that accompanied it upset one of the trees in the Court House yard and damaged Mr. John Morris' barn, on the Vanort farm.

County Health Report.—The following is the health report for Kent for the month of May made by Dr. G. R. Jones, county health officer: Births—21 white, 17 colored; 16 males and 23 females. Deaths—8 white, 12 colored; 6 were children under 1 year and 2 were 80 years of age. There were 2 deaths from tuberculosis, 1 from accidental and 6 from heart disease. Cases of communicable disease reported—measles 20; pneumonia 3, malaria 1.

The Red Cross Lawn Fete.—The lawn fete given by the Red Cross at Laurel, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Brooks, last Tuesday night, was a financial and social success. The beautiful lawn was decorated with American flags, bunting, Japanese lanterns and a profusion of lovely flowers. The Red Cross emblem was much in evidence. A fine supper was served at 8 p. m. Ice cream, cake and confectionery were on sale. Later in the evening the grounds were brilliantly lighted by Mr. Horace Wood's Delco Light system and dancing and cards were enjoyed by a large number. The net proceeds were $361.40. The members of the Red Cross here wish to thank all who participated both by their contributions and efficient help to make the occasion a great success.

More White Men To Go On June 24
The following white men are called to the colors on June 24:
John H. Connor, Golt.
Emory V. Hogans, Rock Hall.
Herman Jos. Wallace, Millington.
John Robert Diehl, of Rock Hall, has enlisted in the Naval Coast Defense Reserve and his card was returned here Thursday. Mr. Hogans has enlisted in the shipping fleet, but his card has not been received here.

WE ARE NOW
Booking Orders
FOR
June Delivery

The supply is limited.
Enter Your Order Now.

The Noland Motor Co
G. E. NOLAND, C. E. NOLAND, E. H. STRONG
High Street Through to Canons Chestertown, Md.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Attend the Red Cross Matinee today, Saturday, at Radcliff Park.

—China is said to have 1,000,000 soldiers to the front in France whenever the supreme command desires it.

—Don't forget to get that dog license before July 1. They cost $1 for males and $2 for females.

—Mr. Leonard Needles has purchased one of the Crane houses up town and removed his family there.

—Mr. and Mrs. Howard Reed will move up town to the residence left by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Robinson.

—Many people of Kent county were interested observers of the eclipse of the sun on Saturday afternoon.

—Mr. Walter Wright has purchased of Mr. L. Bates Russell the James M. E. Church property adjoining his farm.

—The Standard Oil Co. has purchased an auto truck to use in its business in this and adjacent counties.

—Mr. J. Thomas Smith has a 30-acre field of clover on his farm in Rich Neck that is the prettiest that we have seen anywhere.

—The "Dreamland" brought an excursion of about 1500 people from Baltimore to Chestertown on Saturday afternoon.

—Yesterday, Friday, was Flag Day and Old Glory was unloosed to the breeze in every hamlet throughout the nation.

—The Rich Neck Red Cross Auxiliary, which was organized last week, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Irving Walker on Thursday afternoon.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, of near Brooks' Mill, Chestertown, have the finest flock of geese that we have seen anywhere.

—Miss Alice Crane has sold to Mr. J. A. Blyman the dwelling on High Street adjoining the residence of Mr. L. C. Needles.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Moore, who sold their farm about two weeks ago and moved to town, are occupying one of the Crane homes on High Street.

—William M. Slay, Esq., withdrew the Hyson property on a bid of $5500 when it was offered at public sale last Tuesday.

—Dr. James W. Cain, the Food Administrator from Kent county, publishes a card in this issue, giving prices of mill feed.

—A colored girl, employed in the home of Mr. Wm. R. Price, of near Betterton, was burned to death recently when her clothes became ignited.

—Kent county holders of the 3 1/2 per cent bond of the first Liberty Loan can secure interest on June 15 at the banks.

—The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces examinations for range checker. For particulars apply to the Commission.

—R. Groome Parks, Esq., has moved his law office from the office of Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., to the real estate office of Mr. J. Waters Russell.

—The W. C. Commencement will be held next week in William Smith Hall, beginning tomorrow with the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Cain.

—The report that Mr. Moore, a former W. O. student, had been killed in action in France, which was published last week, was an error. Mr. Moore is still in the United States.

—Mr. Robert J. McWhorter, at his farm Quaker Neck, is giving a practical example of how a man can go into a "new occupation" and "make good."

—The 116th Infantry, stationed at Anniston, Ala., and containing many Chestertown and Kent County boys, is at last on the move and may be on its way to France.

—Senator Henry Brown, of Kent county, has been appointed "clacker officer" for the state. His duties will be to visit every county in an effort to round up those who refuse to work.

—Messrs. Wm. B. Usilton, H. W. Wickes and Lewin W. Wickes have been appointed a committee to receive applications for a successor to Dr. Jas. W. Cain, who resigned as president of Washington College last week.

—Mr. Harry E. Taylor, who was elected treasurer of Kent county last fall, qualified on Monday by filing bonds to the sum of $40,000. He has reappointed Mr. Ollie Estes as his deputy. Mr. Estes has been the eminent deputy for a number of years.

—Ernest Bros., of Sassafras, have sold their store at Sassafras to Mr. Nickerson, of Massey, who will continue in the merchandise business at this stand which has been run by the Ernest family for fifty years. The Ernest Bros. will continue farming.

—At this time of the year there is a surplus of milk in many sections of Kent County due to the warm weather, it is difficult to prevent it from souring. Converted into cottage cheese, this can be used to replace a part of the meat diet, which turns more meat into the channels of trade.

—Mr. Vernon Barnett's automobiles are meeting all boats at Tolchester. The Tolchester Company is now running on its summer schedule. If uncertain as to time when autos leave town, call up Mr. Barnett, who will give you full information. A change of the automobile schedule will appear next week.

—Sheriff Carter had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse on Thursday. He had sent the horse to the home of his son-in-law, near Smithville, to help with the work on the farm. The horse was there made for Sheriff Carter's animal, causing the animal to fall and break his leg, which necessitated his being killed. This is quite an unfortunate occurrence for Sheriff Carter.

—Attend the Red Cross Matinee today, Saturday, at Radcliff Park.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL
(Other Personal on page 2)
Corporal Grover Robbins, of Camp Meade, visited his mother, near town, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Crouch received a letter from their son, Mr. Norman Crouch, that he has arrived safely in France.

The Misses Eugenia and Alice Hynson, formerly Chestertown girls, have entered The Beacom Business College at Wilmington for a course of study in stenography.

Mrs. James T. Anthony, who has been quite sick for nearly a year, is extremely ill at this time.

Miss Estelle Anthony, of Washington, D. C., is a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Anthony.

Mrs. Charles J. Baxter, who was taken to Easton Hospital last week, is very much improved, we are pleased to state.

Mrs. Furbush and daughter are guests of the former's parents, Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Beauchamp.

Mrs. Dr. John D. McLeod and attractive little daughter, Dorothy, of Alabama, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Wheat, of near Wortons.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Anthony, of ### CHURCH NOTES.

Children's Day was observed at the Chestertown M. P. Church on last Sunday evening. Report of the classes of the school totalled $74, with Miss Clara Usilton's class being the banner one with a collection of $14.01. The banner was presented by Mr. Owen C. Smith.

Children's Day services will be held at Bond Chapel next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. A feature of the exercises, which are of a very elaborate character, will be the unfurling of the community service flag and a solo by Miss Miriary Gardner, written by the pastor of the church.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, pastor. Services Sunday: 9:30 a. m. S. S.; 10:30 a. m. sermon. "Going Up to the Mountains of the Lord"; 7:00 p. m. Epworth League and short sermon.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward pastor. Sunday services: S. S. F. G. Usilton, Supl., 10:00 a. m.; morning worship, "The Village Carpenter," 11 a. m.; evening worship, sermon to the Young Men's Christian Association, "Christ's Mission and Ours"; 8 p. m., Junior Endeavor, Thursday 4 p. m. Intermediates Friday 7 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Sale of War and Thrift Stamps
Postmaster Thomas D. Bowers reports that the total sales of War Savings and Thrift Stamps at the postoffice of the county for the month of May is as follows:

Chestertown	$7370.80
Betterton	946.47
Black	1.00
Galena	1353.37
Golt	97.95
Kennedyville	183.80
Locust Grove	240.81
Lynch	76.63
Massey	1124.63
Millington	811.41
Rock Hall	859.95
Still Pond	583.35
Worton	639.05
Total	$13,974.21

—Attend the Red Cross Matinee today, Saturday, at Radcliff Park.

EGGS FOR HATCHING
From the GREAT WINTER EGG MACHINE, the beautiful GOLDEN BUFF ROCKS I have the best strain of layers this year I have ever produced. Pullets lay at 6 months old, and their color is rich and even. $1.90 per setting of 15 eggs from free range birds. $5.00 per 100.

ALSO THOROUGHBRED WHITE PEKIN DUCK EGGS at $1.00 per setting; $5.00 per 100. Apply to Phone 2 or 125. THOS. D. BOWERS, Subscription to the Transcript $1.00 per annum.

—Attend the Red Cross Matinee today, Saturday, at Radcliff Park.

COMFORT QUALITY SERVICE
What more can you ask in Summer clothing when you can get them all at a Moderate Price?

Blue Serge Suits, $10 to $50

Palm Beach, $8 to $15
Kool Cloth, $10 to $20
Homespun, $15 to $40
Light Worsteds, $15 to $40
Straw Hats, $1.50 to $6
Cuba de Panamas, $5 to $10
Low Sine, $3.50 to $10
Fancy Sox, $2.50 to $5
Summer Shirts, $1 to $5
Silk Shirts, $4 to $8
Thin Underwear, 50 to 85 and everything else to wear. They are all Here. They are all ready and they are all right.

MULLIN'S HOME STORE WILMINGTON

—Attend the Red Cross Matinee today, Saturday, at Radcliff Park.

Sterling's Pharmacy

TALC JONTEEL 25c.

Perfumed with costly New Odor of 26 Flowers.
To you—to women of refinement, who would not use ordinary perfumes because of their coarsely assertive odors—to you comes JONTEEL, this subtle new odor of 26 flowers.

This individual, lingering, distinctive odor of elegance in which at great expense a master perfumer has blended Orange Blossoms from Riveira, Vervet from distant India, Santalwood, Young-Yeung, English Lavender and a score of other lovely scents.

It comes to you in the tall, slender can of TALC JONTEEL, white and fine.

EXCLUSIVE AGENTS
Sterling's Pharmacy
The Rexall Store

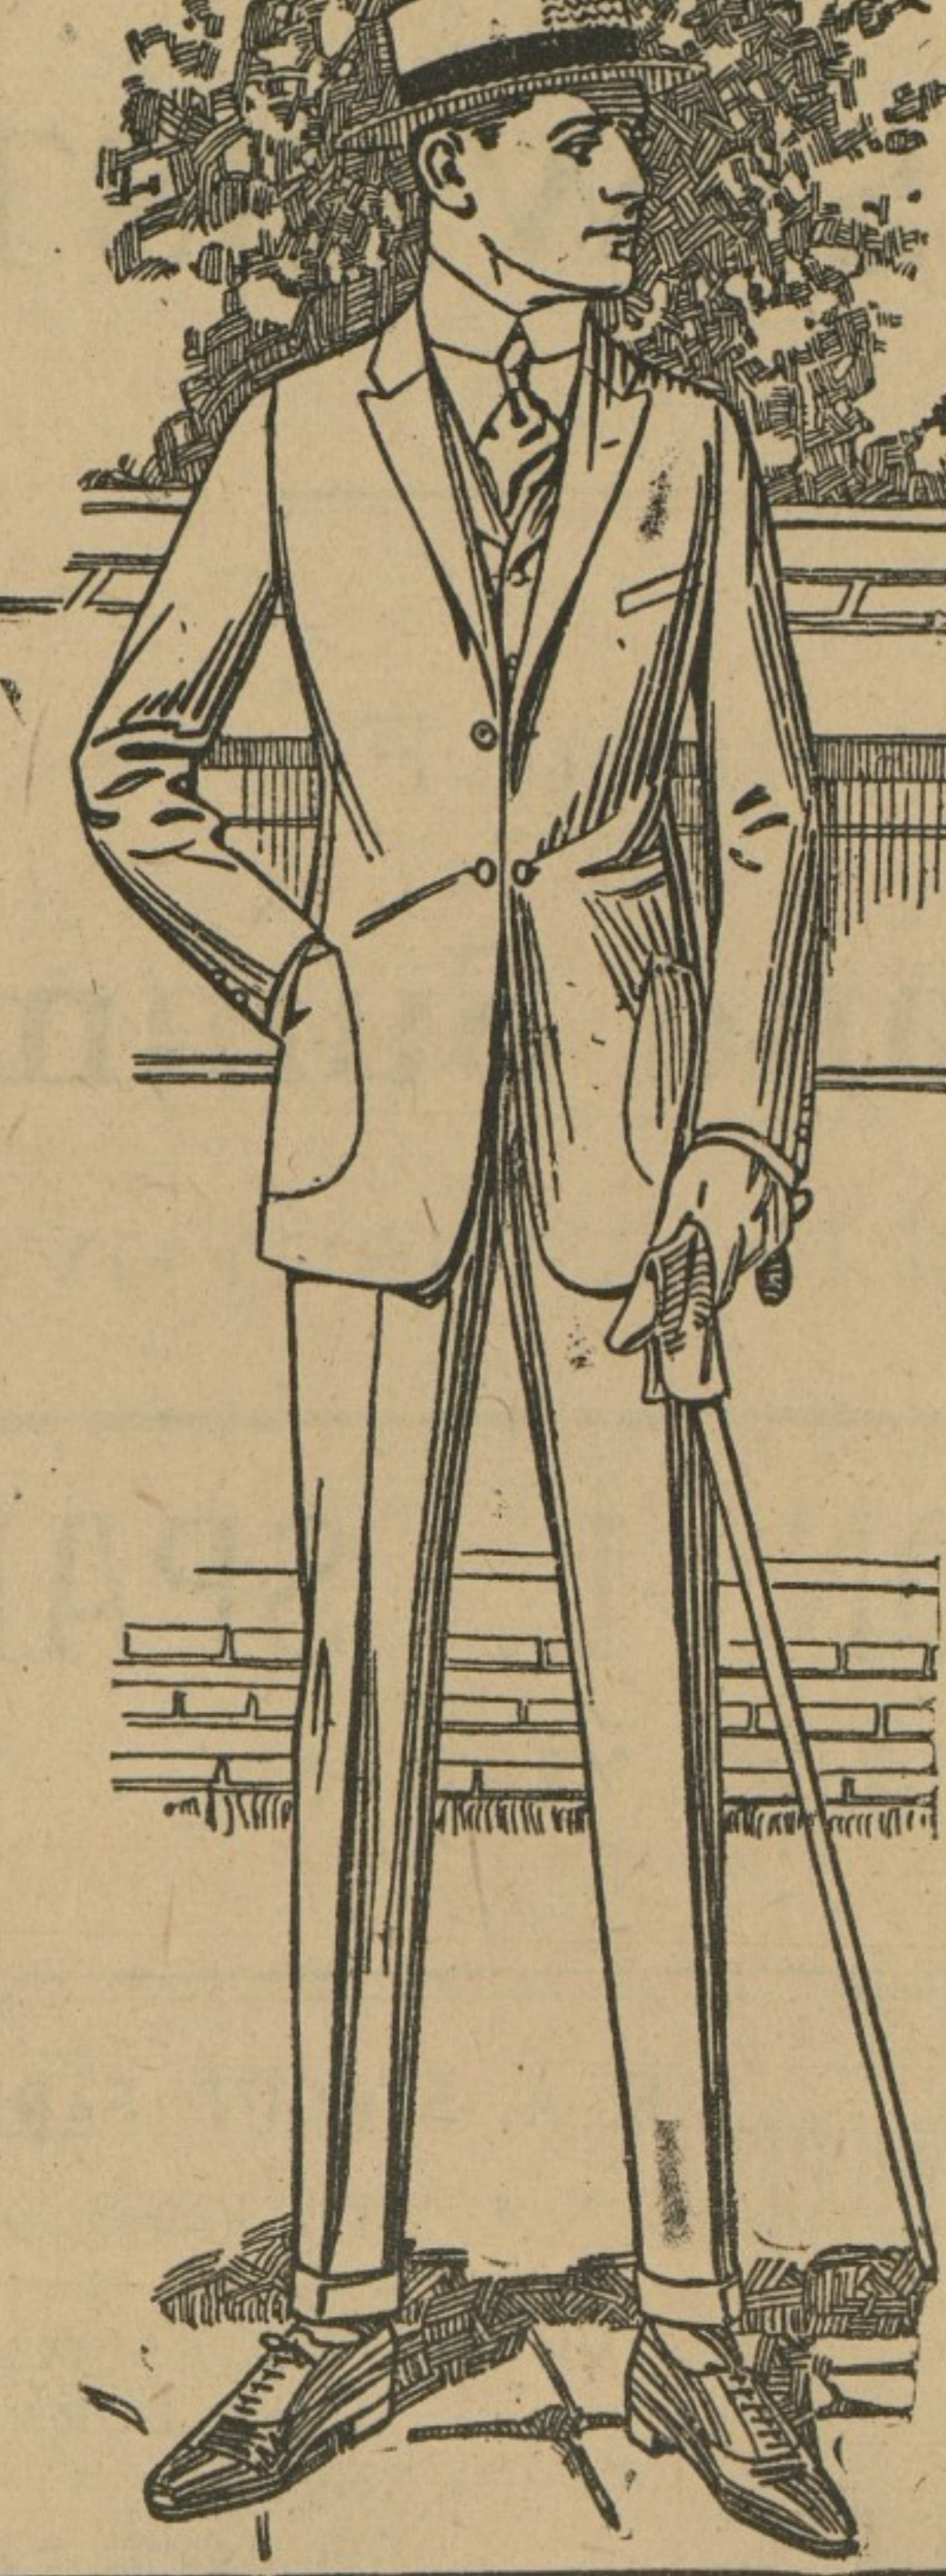

Chestertown, - - Maryland
CONSERVATION.

Don't let the old straw rick rot and blow away. Sell it and put the proceeds at work. Write or telephone and our buyer will call.

AMERICAN STRAWBOARD CO.
Phone 86 Chestertown, Md.
Nov. 24, 6m.

KOOL KLOTH & PALM BEACH SUITS

The Right Clothes For All Classes of Men.

ALL YOUNG MEN, YOUNG OLD MEN, YOUNG YOUNG MEN AND OLD OLD MEN can all find the right kind of hot weather clothes for themselves---Palm Beach and Kool Kloth Suits in just the styles they want, in just the shades they like and at just the prices they want to pay---for we have studied the likes and dislikes of all classes of men, and have provided new Summer

Suits of Unusual Merit

in correct styles to please all tastes. Whether you buy one of our fine Palm Beaches at $12.50 or one of the unequalled Kool Kloths at $14, you will surely find them to be THE BEST IN THE MARKET FOR THE MONEY.

There is a Straw Hat Here

That Will Just Please You

Because we have all the styles, Because we have not considered alone the old man or the young man but all classes of men, we can state positively that we have a Straw Hat that will exactly suit you. Prices $1.25 to $6.00.

VANSANT & NEWSOME,

Progressive Head-to-Foot Outfitters, Chestertown, Md.