START THE SCHOOL CHILDREN RIGHT, have their feet properly fitted. Not Too Small, Large, Broad or Narrow, but JUST RIGHT, and avoid foot trouble now and later.

It is a well-known fact amongst our numerous friends and patrons that we are careful shoe fitters, and prefer to lose a sale than sell a misfit.

We are well prepared this season with a large and varied selection of FALL AND WINTER SHOES to fit all shapes of feet, for Men, Women and Children.

OUR ENTIRE STOCK was bought long before the very first advance, and although shoes have been going up right along, we are glad to state that we are at present selling most of our shoes at lower prices than their present cost of manufacture.

We have increased our incubator capacity, and will want a great many eggs of the following purebred stock for the season of 1920: Barred, White and Buff Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds, White Wyandottes, Brown Leghorns, or any other purebred stock.

We will start buying eggs for hatching about the first of February, and take them till the middle of June or later. As we have to make our arrangements in advance we would like those that have eggs of purebred stock to sell to communicate with us as to breed, number of hens and about number of eggs you can supply each week.

Baltimore "Orioles" At Centreville. The Baltimore "Orioles," champions of the International League, were at Centreville on Monday and perhaps the largest crowd that ever witnessed a baseball game on the Eastern Shore was present. We understand that 1700 paid admission to the grounds at 60 cents each, while several hundred youngsters were admitted free. Horsey was on the mound for Centreville, while Walls, last year's catcher at W. C., was on the receiving end. Herbert Usilton, of Chestertown, covered the initial bag in fine style, while Fred Wallis' work around short for Centreville was of a high calibre and stamps Fred as a good player, even against professionals. Horsey pitched a good steady game for Centreville, although he was touched up for some hard wallops. Centreville hit the "Oriole" twirlers, Parnham and Frank freely. The score was 7 to 4 in favor of the Baltimore team. A large crowd from Chestertown was present. Capt. J. T. Kibler was one of the umpires. The work of the Baltimore team was somewhat listless, while the "ground rules" also slowed up the game somewhat.
