TRACTOR

Disk Harrow

LEVERLESS

Not a lever on the harrow. Automatically operated from the tractor. The operator backs his harrow into any angle he desires this being done with a sliding hitch held in the stub tongue.

Can back up any time. If you run too far in a fence corner or for any other reason wish to back up a few feet, you can do so by reversing your tractor. The harrow will take care of itself by automatically straightening the gauge as the harrow comes back. No stop for wet spots. If there is a wet spot in your field you need not go around. Simply pull on the ropes which hang from the tractor seat and the disk gauge straighten up automatically, rolling through the wet ground without turning the soil. Construction is strong and durable. Turns corners easy. One on our floor can be seen and examined. Come in.

Yours to serve,

Davis & Satterfield,

LOCAL MATTERS

Strawberries In Local Market.—A trucker from Queen Anne's county was in town on Tuesday selling fresh strawberries at 30 cents per quart. These berries were far better than usually are ripe at this time of the year.

Japanese Chestnuts.—A number of Kent county farmers are shipping Japanese chestnuts to the Philadelphia market. Mr. Charles J. Reiche shipped 24 tomato baskets this week, while Mr. E. W. Emory shipped 6 baskets. They received $7.25 per basket for them.

The Rock Hall Ferry.—We understand the Rock Hall Ferry is an assured thing. It is reported that if the present ferry company does not operate a ferry to Rock Rock the State will. If this be true the people of Rock Hall and the county are assured of better traveling accommodations than they have ever enjoyed before.

Washington College Opens.—Chestertown has taken on renewed activity since Washington College has begun its fall term, the institution opening last Monday morning. At present there are about seventy-five enrolled at the college, which will probably be increased to over a hundred in a few weeks. The college promises to be more helpful than ever this year, with many new students and new professors on the faculty.

Jealous Lover Slashes Rival.—When Walter Sewell, colored, slashed John Johnson, colored, across the throat at Coleman's Corner Saturday with a razor, it was the case of a man's jealousy getting the best of him, we understand. Johnson says he was not bothering with Sewell in any way and that the man simply walked up to him with a razor and struck out. Johnson was brought to Chestertown and Dr. H. G. Simpers, assisted by Mr. R. H. Rogers, took eighteen stitches in his neck and face.

Washing College Football Schedule.—Football practice has begun at the College, and Coach Kibler is working hard to put a good team on the field. The schedule is as follows: Oct. 11, St. John's at Chestertown; Oct. 18, Western Md. College at Chestertown; Nov. 1, Mt. St. Mary's College at Emmitsburg; Nov. 8, Catholic University at Washington, D. C.; Nov. 15, Gallaudet College at Chestertown; Nov. 22, Penn. Military College at Chester, Pa.; Nov. 27, Susquehanna University at Selensgrove, Pa.

Tomatoes Will Be Almost A Delicacy.—Kent county tomatoes, which for years have been plentiful on many thousands of tables, threaten to become a delicacy before this time next year. The crop has been so poor this season and so small a pack has resulted that the average will not be over 20 per cent in this county of what it was last year. This condition exists in all of the tomato Districts of Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey. A season so full of hardship for the Kent farmer is the cause of many farmers discontinuing this year.

Tuberculosis Nurse Active In Kent.—The Kent County Branch of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association report of the visiting nurse: Prenatal cases 2, visits 4; infant welfare 8, visits 21; tuberculosis (suspicious) 4, visits 13; typhoid 4, visits 12; general cases 5, visits 13; total patients 23, visits 63; co-operative visits 34; grand total 97. The Kent County Branch of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association has placed Miss Margaret Y. Rogers, a nurse, in the county, whose services are for the relief of the sick and injured, and to instruct their families in the points of home nursing. Don't wait until you are sick. Call on her to show you how to prevent sickness.

Liberty Bonds Increasing In Value.—Steady increase in the market value of Liberty Bonds and the maintenance of an interest rate not greater than 4 1-4 per cent on future issues of government certificates are expected in Treasury circles to result from the excellent condition of the government's fiscal program. With the rate on new government securities being reduced, Liberty Bonds paying a higher return began to mount in price, the advance being helped also by Secretary Glass's statement that the return in war financing has come. Since Liberty Bonds in many cases can be bought so as to pay 5 per cent on the investment, purchases have steadily increased, leading to the belief that they will enhance in value from now in.

Date For Conference Selected.—The conference between labor, capital and agricultural interests, called by President Wilson for discussion of the present economic situation, will be held in Washington between October 5 and October 10, at the White House. The President wrote to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, representatives of the leading agricultural associations, investment bankers, and to Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, asking that they submit nominations for delegates representing each group. After receiving this list President Wilson will then select a list of his own and combine the two. Forty to forty-five delegates will be chosen.

Maryland's Swamp Lands.—Kent Co. has many acres in marsh and swamp lands. The state has 328,768 acres, capable of reclamation, of which 124,352 acres are fresh-water swamps and 204,426 acres are salt-water marshes. The eastern and southern counties of the state bordering on the Chesapeake Bay and the Atlantic Ocean have 323,326 acres, of which 118,912 acres are fresh-water swamps and 204,416 acres are salt-water marshes. The central and western counties have 5,440 acres of larger swamp tracts, all of which are fresh. In addition to the larger tracts here indicated smaller swamps and marshes scattered over the farm lands raise the total to fully 500,000 acres, or about one-twelfth of the total area of the state.

—The lines of the Zeizel property in Queen Annes have been straightened out at last and the owner, Mrs. L. W. Wickes, gets a strip of about ten feet along the edge of the woods and not a couple of acres, as we noted some time ago. Mrs. Wickes has had the old house on the bend moved, which not only adds much to the appearance of the neighborhood, but makes the road much safer.
