CHURCH NOTES

Other Church Notes on page 3

There will be held the usual services at Bond Church on Sunday, Oct. 5. S. S. at the usual hour.

Services of exceptional interest have been arranged for tomorrow in the M. E. Church. At 10.30 the communion service will be held. Dr. Alderson has issued a special invitation to all the membership in an endeavor to have every member present. In the afternoon at 2.15 the Sunday School session will be held. This will be rally day. Plans of general reconstruction have been perfected and at this service the new classification of the entire school will be announced. The lower grades of the school will install the modern graded lessons up to and including the Junior Department. There is also a change in the schedule of the evening service which will be of public interest. The Epworth League will meet for its service in the S. S. room, but at the usual hour, 7 o'clock. The subject will be "Training in Citizenship." Dr. Louis C. Hess, leader. At 7.30 the public preaching service will take place. There will be a special musical program. The pastor will deliver a sermon on "The High Cost of Pearls."

Today, Saturday, the Jews of the world will observe the most sacred day prescribed by their religion. It bears the name "Yom Kippur," the Day of Atonement. Coming as it does nine days after the New Year, the interval being regarded as a period of spiritual preparation, the Day of Atonement has ever held a position of supreme importance for members of the Jewish faith.

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward pastor. Services on Sunday: Holy Communion, 10.30 a. m.; S. S., F. G. Usilton, Supt., 2.30 p. m.; Christian Endeavor, 6.45 p. m.; evening worship, "The Flesh and the Spirit," 7.30 p. m. Prayer meeting Thursday at 7.30 p. m. Intermediates Friday 7.00 p. m. Everybody welcome.

Sunday proved, indeed, to be a "jubilee" day at the M. E. Church in Betterton. The weather was ideal and the church was well filled the morning and afternoon and crowded at the evening service. It had been tastefully decorated with ferns and cut flowers by the fourth vice president of the Epworth League and her sub-committee. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Charles Brice, furnished beautiful music at 9.30 in charge of Rev. A.W. Goodhand, followed by the preaching service, with the sermon by Dr. W. A. Wise, Dist. Supt. In the afternoon the preaching service was in charge of Dr. Alderson, of Chestertown, and in the evening Dr. Thomas Vandyke, of Cecilton, preached. At the morning service it was asked that the collections during the day might amount to $2000, which amount would pay the note still due on the church, paint the exterior, buy the coal and free the church entirely of debt. At 9.30 in the evening it was announced that the collections amounted to $2019.00, all in cash, and so with the singing of the doxology and the pealing forth of the church bell, the note was burned and the beautiful church, which was erected five years ago, at a cost of $10,000, and of which Betterton people are so proud, stands entirely free of debt.

WEDDINGS

The marriage of Miss Polly Westcott, daughter of Mrs. George B. Westcott, to Mr. Thruston Branham, of Baltimore, was solemnized in Emmanuel P. E. Church on Tuesday last at 12 m., Dr. H. B. Martin officiating. The music was rendered by Mrs. Jessie Medders, organist, assisted by an orchestra composed of Prof. Ten Hoor, Messrs. Hynson Rogers and Donald Stam. The wedding party entered the church in the following order: The ushers, Judge Lewin W. Wickes and Richard H. Collins, Jr., three little bridesmaids, neices of the bride, Polly Gill, Harriet Louisa Rogers and Mary Woodland Westcott, daintly dressed in white organdy with pink ribbons and baskets of pink roses, and the bride's nephew Wilbur Gill, bearing the kneeling pillow. Miss Katheryn Pattison, of New Jersey, the maid of honor, dressed in blue georgette crepe preceded the bride, who was escorted by her brother, Mr. Simon Westcott. She was stylishly gowned in a tailored traveling suit of dark blue with hat to match and was met at the chancel by the groom, attended by his best man, Mr. Laurence Guynn. The church was beautifully decorated by the bride's friends for the occasion. After the ceremony a delightful luncheon was served at the home of the bride's mother to the realtives and a few intimate friends. Among those attending the wedding from a distance were: Dr. and Mrs. Branham, of Baltimore; Mrs. Wilbur Gill and children, of Washington; Miss Kathryn Pattison, of New Jersey; Mrs. Rudolph Stam, of Blairville, Pa.; Dr. and Mrs. Metcalfe, of Sudlersville, and Mrs. Quinn, of Baltimore.

The marriage of Miss Sallie E. White to Mr. C. Philip Jewell, occurred at the parsonage of the Methodist Protestant Church Sunday morning, Rev. J. L. Ward, the pastor, performing the ceremony. Mrs. Sewell is one of the most popular and attractive young ladies of Chestertown and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas White, of Chestertown, while Mr. Sewell is one of our most popular young men and is engaged in the automobile business in Chestertown. After the ceremony, the happy young couple left on a honeymoon trip to northern places of interest. Upon their return they will reside on High street, Chestertown. Both have a host of friends in Kent county.

Mr. C. Horace Haines and Miss Marie A. Masterson, both of Trenton, N. J., were married at the M. P. parsonage Wednesday afternoon, Rev. J. L. Ward performing the ceremony.
