In Memoriam

In memory of our beloved daughter and sister.
The blow was hard, the shock severe
To part with one we loved so dear.
God loved her too and thought it best
So took her to his heavenly rest.

In loving remembrance of our dear Pearl, who died one year ago today, October 12.

MAMMA AND PAPA, BROTHER AND SISTER

In loving remembrance of Pearl:
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Hidden tears so often flow;
Memory keeps our loved one near us,
She left us sad one year ago.
HER TRUE FRIEND.

My wife is sleeping so free from pain,
Oh wake her not, sweet spirit, to suffer again.
She slumbers so soundly, oh let her sleep on,
Her sickness is ended, her troubles are gone.
Think how she suffered, yet in all her pain,
So God in his mercy sent down from above
An angel that whispered a message of love.
Gone but not forgotten.
HER HUSBAND.

In memory of my dear husband, J. W. Dickerson, who died one year ago today, October the 8th, 1918.

Gone but not forgotten
In this world below
Thy memory is just as fresh today
As it was a year ago.
BY HIS WIFE.

DEATHS

Mr. John L. Smith, one of the most prominent and progressive citizens of Millington, died at his home on West Cypress street Oct. 4 at 4.30 a. m., after a lingering illness. He was born and raised on a farm near Harrington, Del., and was the son of John W. and Mary B. Smith. When quite a young man he went west, where he spent 7 years. Most of this time he was in Kansas. After his return, he went into the undertaking business at Harrington. In 1893, hearing there was a good opening for an undertaker at Millington, he located here and has continued in the business until his last attack about ten weeks ago, having a funeral the day before he was compelled to remain in bed. He was a member of the Baptist Church, but there being no church of that faith in that town he attended and was much interested in Asbury M. E. Church. In 1899 he has married to Miss Mary E. Price, of Millington, a teacher in the Kent county schools. During the whole of his illness, his faithful wife has been in constant attendance at his bedside and nothing that she could do for his comfort was left undone. He was a member of Chester Lodge A. F. & A. M. (Chestertown), Odd Fellows (Massey) and P. O. S. of A. (Millington). Beside the widow, four sisters and one brother survive him: Mrs. J. H. Merriken, of Hobbs, Md.; Mrs. M. M. Jones, Philadelphia; Mr. Samuel J. M. Smith, of Milford, Del.; Mrs. Sallie M. Jester, of Smyrna, Del., and Mrs. Rose Hurlock, of Millington. Funeral services were held at his late residence Oct.7, 1 p.m., by the Rev. D. J. Moore, of Asbury M. E. Church, Millington, assisted by Rev. G. P. Smith, of Cheswold, Del., a former pastor of the church. C. L. Dodd, of Chestertown, undertaker. The pall bearers were selected from the three lodges of which he was a member and were Messrs. W. Warner Mallalieu, John W. Higman, Sudler G. Wiest, R. J. Taylor, Burgess Anderson and Frank C. Miller. Interment in Millington Cemetery.

(From Our Millington Correspondent)

Mrs. Clarence S. Hurlock died at her home in Massey last Saturday of Bright's disease, aged 67 years. Besides her husband she leaves three children, viz: Samuel S. Hurlock, Mrs. James D. Lucas and Mrs. Frank Whelen, Jr., all of Massey; also one sister, Mrs. Frank H. Greenwood, of Chestertown. Mrs. Hurlock will be missed by a large circle of friends. She was a lady of noble traits of character and of a generous and loving nature. The funeral was held on Tuesday, services conducted by the Rev. C. R. Birnbach, interment in Massey cemetery.

Mrs. Rachel J. Davis, wife of Mr. B. F. Davis, died at her home at Hanesville on Sunday, Oct. 15, of paralysis, aged 79 years. The deceased had been an invalid for twenty years. She leaves the following sons and daughters: John A., Thos. J., Mrs. Maggie E. Jewell, Mrs. Elizabeth Parsons, Mrs. Bennetta Lentz, Mrs. Jennie Passwater, Mrs. Eugenia Robinson, Mrs. Blanche Clayton, Mrs. Mamie Fowler, Joshua W. Davis, also seventeen grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Funeral was held from her late home on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock conducted by Rev. Avery Donovan. Her grandsons acted as the pall bearers, who were Fred Davis, Thomas Davis, Arnold Davis, John Lentz, Benj. Robinson, Thomas Parsons. Interment in Chester cemetery, Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mr. Reuben E. Greenhawk, well known throughout Kent, died at the home of Mr. James E. Wood, where he was visiting, on Tuesday, from uremia. Mr. Greenhawk moved from Easton to Rock Hall when about fourteen years old and attended the high school where he graduated under Prof. Walter Davis and taught for a short time in the county schools. He spent the past two years in the army, returning in July. He had malaria at his home in Easton before coming to Kent but appeared in splendid physical health at the beginning of his visit. On Sunday morning he felt unequal to leaving his bed and grew steadily worse. The body was brought to this town by Undertaker Dodd and sent to Easton for interment.

William A. Briscoe, formerly of this town, died in Wilmington Thursday. Remains will be brought to Chestertown on Monday and funeral will be held in Christ M. P. Church upon the arrival of the morning train. Interment in Chester cemetery. Rev. J. L. Ward will officiate. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Mrs. Francis Marion Melvin, widow of the late Rev. A. T. Melvin, died suddenly in Baltimore on October 8. The body will be brought to Kent on the Tolchester boat this morning and funeral held immediately thereafter, interment in Chester cemetery. Mrs. Melvin was 74 years of age and was well known in Kent county, where she formerly resided. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

THE ISSUE AT STAKE AT THE ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE NEXT MARYLAND LEGISLATURE IS NOT SIMPLY

Prohibition or Anti-Prohibition

but largely and unmistakably

PERSONAL LIBERTY

We mean the sort of personal freedom and rule of conduct which leaves to all Americans entire initiative as to where, when and how they shall

WORSHIP, EAT,
LIVE OR DRINK

The original 13 colonies were founded and HAVE THRIVED on the principle of Individual Liberty, and with no tolerance of communistic, socialistic or bolshevistic ideas. The state has not tried to save men's souls en masse, neither is it within the province of the state to subject its citizens to impossible and irksome restrictions on the pretext of improving one's morals.

The Anti-Saloon League has endeavored to enforce the bolshevistic notion of paternalistic supervision of man's appetite. Those of you who have been misled by its false teachings have yet time to prevent the final consummation of its schemes by sending to the Legislature MEN WHO WILL VOTE FOR A LIBERAL AND REASONABLE INTERPRETATION OF THE PROHIBITION CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Remember: Under the provisions of the Amendment, the several states have CONCURRENT power to enforce this Prohibition monstrosity.

Friends of liberty, cast your ballots for men who will not truckle to the Anti-Saloon League but who have their ears attuned to the rising hum of full blooded American indignation at the work of the Anti-Saloon League's Anti-American mechinations.

Away with Bolshevism! Stand for Personal Liberty.

TRANSCRIPT 3366

Encouraging Bolshevism

Everything that falsely encourages unrest also encourages bolshevism.

Misunderstanding of American industrial organization, and of its benefits to mankind, leads to unrest, dissatisfaction, and radicalism.

For example, the Federal Trade Commission tells the public that the large packers had an agreed price for lard substitute (made of cotton-seed oil.)

It reproduces letters taken from the files of one of the packers, showing that such agreed price existed.

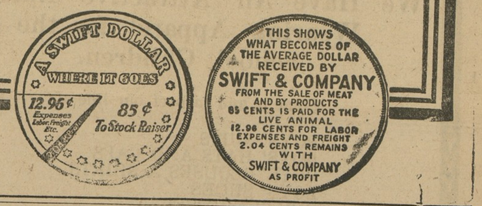

But it failed to mention that the agreed price was determined at the request of and in co-operation with the Food Administration!

Even the Department of Justice, in its unjust attempt to create prejudice against the packers, has made public these same letters, with no explanation.

How long must this kind of misrepresentation continue? In so far as it is believed, it not only breeds discontent, but results in injustice to our industry.

Let us send you a "Swift Dollar."
It will interest you.
