TO MY FRIENDS & THE PUBLIC

Having rented the Liberty Hotel and Restaurant at 1437-1439 North Charles Street, opposite Union Station, Baltimore, Md., I ask my friends and the public of Chestertown and vicinity, where I lived for a number of years, to make my hotel their headquarters when in Baltimore, where they will receive polite attention.

We have rooms with or without private bath and running water. Our hotel is the house of cleanliness and our cuisine is unexcelled in the city. Give me a chance to serve you.

DEATHS

Mr. J. Henry Hurtt, a former prominent citizen of Kent county, died on Tuesday in Philadelphia, aged 76 years. His remains were brought to Millington Wednesday evening and the funeral was held Thursday afternoon. The deceased resided for many years at Millington and later conducted the Voshell House in Chestertown for a number of years. He is survived by his widow, who was before marriage Miss Alice Austin, also two sons and a daughter by a former marriage; they are Henry and Spencer Hurtt and Mrs. Conradie, of Philadelphia. Mr. C. M. Hurtt, a well-known merchant of Millington, and Edward Hurtt, of Delmar, Del., are brothers, and Mrs. Lucy Spear and Miss Fannie Hurtt, of Millington, are sisters. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The bearers were R. W. Moffett, Howard Stevens, John W. Higman, F. C. Miller, Leonard Wilson and Paul Comegys.

Miss Caroline Marie Schreitz died at the Union Hospital, Elkton, on Friday, aged 62. The deceased was a trained nurse but had not followed that occupation for some years, living for 29 years in the family of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Clendaniel, of Kennedyville, where she was loved and looked upon as their own. Funeral services were held at the residence of Mrs. Clendaniel on Monday afternoon, with interment at Shrewsbury cemetery.

Mr. Charles E. Smith, one of the most prominent citizens of Church Hill and father of Mrs. Fred S. Russell, of Chestertown, died in Church Hill last Friday after an illness that had lasted for three years. The funeral services were held from his late residence on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. O. B. Reed, his pastor. The bearers were his three nephews F. O. Meeds, of Wilmington, Harry and Wilbert Cecil, of Price, and his three sons-in-law, J. C. Catlin, D. E. Hurlock and F. S. Russell.

Choral Union Meets.—On last Tuesday night the College Choral Union, the new musical club composed of both college and town musical talent, held a very successful initial rehearsal in the auditorium of William Smith Hall. In spite of the bad weather, about fifty singers were present. Indications are that the Choral Union will be a big success. The first public appearance of the club will occur around the Christmas holidays, at which time the oratorio, "The Rose Maiden," will be presented. Membership is free and open to all residents of Chestertown and the vicinity. The next rehearsal will be held on Tuesday night, October 21, at 8 o'clock. All interested in singing are invited to be present.

THE ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL ASSOCIATION

Everybody, regardless of party or faction, is given the opportunity to contribute towards the fund which has for its purpose the erection of suitable memorials to the memory of the late Theodore Roosevelt, who was a 100 per cent patriotic American. If you believe in handing down to posterity something to preserve the memory of such a Character, such a Citizen, then make your contribution to this fund by calling on or sending same to the undersigned.
