WASHINGTON LOSES TO ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE

Coach Kibler's Team Stages Praiseworthy Come-back In Second Half And Holds Rivals To One Touchdown—Western Md. Team Here Today

Washington College and St. John's College, rivals on gridiron and diamond for over half a century, met at Washington Field Saturday in a gruelling football contest, the game being the first one of its kind for two years, as Washington College did not play the great college classic last year.

The experienced team of St. John's College proved too much for the Washington College eleven, and won the contest by the score of 38 to 0, making six touchdowns and failing to kick four of the goals, while Washington four of the goals.

Coach Kibler's team made an excellent showing, considering the fact that only one of the players on the team had played a regular game of football before, Robbins, captain of the eleven, being the man. Notwithstanding the fact that St. John's had a fast, experienced team, which should have won easily, they were compelled to fight for every foot of the ground they gained and they gained their six touchdowns not so much from the fact that Washington College was outplayed to this extent, but because the lack of football knowledge of the home team gave their more experienced opponents opportunities that they took advantage of, with the result that they made many long runs for touchdowns.

We are not trying to take credit from St. John's team. They have a fast aggressive team and their line plunges and end runs netted big gains, while the only forward pass that was successful netted them a big gain. But had the Washington College boys the same experience as had their opponents many of these long end runs and gains through the line would have been impossible.

Above everything else, Washington College showed a fighting spirit that was creditable. Not once was the aggressive St. John's team allowed to relax its vigilance. One of the characteristics of Coach Kibler's style of coaching is its never-say-die spirit. He never gives up and had the visiting team become careless for an instant, Washington College, though well behind, would have taken immediate advantage of it and profitted by it. The athletic teams at Washington College are full of this spirit every year that Coach Kibler has charge of them and many an up hill battle has been won because the boys will not give up.

In the second half, after St. John's had scored five touchdowns, the W. C. boys staged a praiseworthy come back and almost fought their opponents to a standstill, with the result that in the last two periods St. John's was only able to cross W. C.'s line once, and this by a long run around the end, after Washington's inexperienced end had been "boxed up" by several of the visitors.

The day was a bad one for football, as the thermometer recorded midsummer temperature and the periods were cut to 10 minutes each because of this.

A large crowd attended and the interest in the game was the greatest that has been witnessed at Washington Field for many years.

The line-up of the game was as follows:

St. John's—Dell, l. e.; Sack, l. t.; Beatty, l. g.; McKenney, c.; Wilson, r. g.; Smith, r. t.; Marty, r. e.; Semler, q. b.; Robertson, l. h.; Aldridge, r. h.; Ridgely, f. b.

Officials—Referee, Shaw; Umpire, Hoban; Head Linesman, Wheatley.

Western Maryland College will be here today, Saturday, for the annual game and the contest should be a good one. These teams will be about evenly matched and Western Maryland will have to hustle to defeat the local collegians, who have made big progress this week. The experience gained by the Washington College boys last Saturday will be of great value to them today. Coach Kibler has been putting his team through some gruelling practice this week and Western Maryland will meet a much stronger aggregation than did St. John's.

The loss of Gordy, who was disabled in the first period Saturday by having his ankle sprained, is a serious blow to Washington College. Gordy was a fast, aggressive player and will make a good man for W. C. when his injury mends. Here's hoping he soon gets back in the line again.

The worst defeat of Saturday was that of Delaware College by the Univ. of Pennsylvania. They were defeated by the score of 88 to 0. The Navy also smothered Johns Hopkins in a one-sided game.

Yale, Harvard and Princeton are all playing in good form and the games between them next month will be the most interesting for many years.

St. John's will play Coach Mike Thompson's team next Saturday at Emmitsburg (Mt. St. Mary's College).

$15,539,720 To Marylanders.—Maryland relatives of soldiers who died in the service are now being paid $15,539,720 in claims. There are now 1,778 claims being paid on account of Maryland soldiers who died. In addition to the claims for dead soldiers, 1,194 claims are being paid to Marylanders who were disabled. There are 651 claims of dead and disabled Marylanders now being investigated. The government will be called upon to pay $1,012,000,000.

—Delaware City took on a gala appearance Saturday, the occasion being the celebration of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal being taken over by the government.
