In Memoriam

In memory of our dear daughter, Lydia P. George, who departed this life eleven years ago.

Human hands have tried to save her,
Prayers and tears were all in vain,
Happy angels came and bore her
From this world of pain.

Eleven long years ago she left us,
Some might think the wound were healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That lies within our hearts concealed.

BY HIS FATHER AND MOTHER.

In memory of my dear brother, Geo. R. Cropper, who departed this life one year ago today.

One long sad year has passed,
Dearest brother thou has left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel.
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
When in Heaven in joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

Gone but not forgotten.

SISTER EMMA

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, George Cropper, who departed this life one year ago today, Oct. 13, 1919.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low,
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our song will know.

Farewell dear son, thou art at rest,
And shall forever be,
You could not stay with us on earth,
But we can come to thee.

BY HIS MOTHER.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear sister, May, who departed this life one year ago, Oct. 16, 1918.

My sister is sleeping, so free from all pain,
Oh wake her not, sweet spirit, to suffer again.
She sleeps so sound; oh, let her sleep on,
Her sickness is ended, her troubles are gone.

Oh think how she suffered and moaned with pain;
Till God in His mercy sent down from above
An angel, who whispered a message of love,
And said: "Come home with us."

By Her Loving Brother,
NORMAN EDWARD PETERSON.
