DEATHS

Mr. James Brice, one of Chestertown's best citizens, on Tuesday afternoon reached the end of a long and useful life at his home on Washington avenue, after an illness of several years. Mr. Brice reached the grand old age of 86 years and was active and hearty until within a few years of his death. The cause of his death was dropsy, superinduced by the ailments of old age. He is survived by his widow and the following children: W. A. Brice, of the U. S. Navy; Harry W. Brice, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Charles Watkins, of Baltimore; and Mrs. Fannie Moore, at home.

Mr. Brice was one of our best men. He was a member of Chestertown M.E. Church and was always active in everything pertaining to its welfare. He was progressive in the affairs of the community and was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Mr. Brice was of a particularly jovial disposition and always had a kind word or a good joke for all his acquaintances. In early life Mr. Brice conducted a big meat business in Chestertown and retired about 20 years ago, spending the latter part of his life at his Washington avenue home, the winters being spent in Florida, in which climate Mr. Brice always enjoyed the time spent.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from his late home, services conducted by the Rev. Dr. G. T. Alderson, interment in Chester cemetery. Undertakers Wm. T. Hicks and Wm. H. Krusen had charge of arrangements. The pall bearers were: J. C. Davis, M. A. Toulson, C. E. Crane, W. C. Peregoy, S. P. Townshend and W. F. Jarrell.

Mrs. Mary F. Crouch died on Sunday, Oct. 19, at her home in Millington, aged 81 years. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Ethel Moffett, wife of R. Wesley Moffett, of Millington, also a sister, Mrs. Annie E. Blackiston. Funeral was held at her home on Tuesday at 2.30 p. m., Revs. J.A. Rood, W. E. Miller and E. G. Coe officiating. The bearers were Liston Pennington, Charles Legg, Wm. T. Jones, Edward Stevens, Roy Stafford and William A. Felton. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mrs. Laura C. Cranor, wife of Mr. Samuel T. Cranor, died at her home in Queen Annes, near Chester river bridge on Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, after an illness of over a year. Funeral was held at her late home on Friday morning at 11 o'clock, interment in Crumpton cemetery, Rev. Mr. Rowlenson officiating. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Hopkins Burgess, a former and well-known citizen of this county, died at his residence in Baltimore Wednesday, Oct. 22, aged 48 years. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Lily H. Burgess. Funeral services were conducted at his late residence, 630 Wyanoke ave., yesterday evening at 8 o'clock. Interment will be made at St. Paul's cemetery, this county, today, Saturday, upon the arrival of the morning Tolchester boat. C. L. Dodd undertaker.
