DEMOCRATIC JUDICIAL TICKET

For Chief Judge of the Circuit Court
WM. H. ADKINS

For Associate Judge of the Circuit Court
LEWIN W. WICKES

DEMOCRATS, there are 17 candidates on the Democratic ticket to vote for Tuesday. Make an X in the square block to the right of each candidate. Make no mistake, but vote for all 17 and thus do your duty to your party.

WITH this, the last issue of the Transcript before the election next Tuesday, we go to our readers with full confidence of a splendid Democratic victory. From every section of the county and state come encouraging reports, but in order to make a sweeping victory every Democrat must stick to his post and do his full duty from now until the polls close Tuesday. If this is done Democratic victory is assured. We can see no good reason why any Democrat should cut a single Democratic candidate on the ticket. They were all fairly placed there and they have a right to expect the vote of every Democrat in this county. Remember when you fail to vote for a single candidate because of personal reasons it is not only a stab at that candidate but it is a thrust at your party.

PROMINENT CAROLINE REPUBLICANS TO SUPPORT JUDGE ADKINS

A prominent and thoughtful Caroline Republican in a quiet discussion of a Democratic campaign letter in that county said:

"The letter opens up a good many avenues of thought. Take the judicial situation, for instance. Mr. Owens is a pleasant man and not of the type to make enemies of people with political strength, but when the reasons for this are analyzed, a serious train of thought develops as to the proper qualifications of a man upon whom is placed the tremendous responsibilities of a judicial position. Is it the man whose tendency is to follow the lines of least resistance or the man whose disposition and training is to follow the changeless principles of fundamental justice? Is it the man who always drifts along with two or three county Republican bosses (but whose policy is to do it so quietly and unobtrusively that the responsibility for what is done will be placed upon other shoulders), or the man who states frankly his position on public questions, and whose habit of mind guides him inevitably toward the public interest, regardless of party? Is it the man with practically no experience in the application of legal principles, and whose only knowledge of the law as a practical science is what little can be gained in middle life in a Criminal Court, or the man trained from his youth in the fundamental principles of the law, with a wide, practical experience in the trial of cases, civil and criminal, at law and in equity, before going on the bench, coupled with thirteen years of painstaking judicial labor and experience? All these considerations are too practical to be ignored, and many of the most prominent Republicans of this county have thought deeply on the matter and feel it their duty to vote for Judge Adkins."

If this is the view taken by Republicans in Mr. Owens' own county, what has he to expect of thoughtful Republicans in other counties of this judicial circuit. Judge Adkins' record and experience entitles him to re-election and we believe he will receive a flattering majority over his Republican opponent.

TO THE VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY

The Democratic Managers in their endeavor to win this Election, have published in the Kent News and are now mailing to every Democrat in Kent County a Questionnaire, which they claim has been sent to the candidates of both parties in the city and counties. I wish here to deny that any such Questionnaire has been received by any candidate on the Republican Ticket or by any Member of the State Central Committee. This is the same old Political Trick, pulled at the last minute to keep the Independent Democrats from voting for Republicans. The present Democratic managers have staged this last play to save themselves from Impending Defeat. The effect will be opposite from that hoped for. This is only the usual method that Democratic Politicians resort to when they have a very poor show of winning an election. Perhaps these same politicians have forgotten the Negro they voted in the heated Democratic Primary Election four years ago in the Rock Hall Precinct.

It would probably be more beneficial to the Democratic Ticket if the new Boss, who bears that prominent heriditary political name in Kent County, would explain to the returned soldiers that Questionnaire which gave exemption to Isaac Gibbs, Jr., on account of his being absolutely necessary to maintain the agricultural production of this county during the war.

I would ask the voters to consider not such matters as these, but to consider how efficient and business like the county affairs have been managed during the past four years under the present Republican management. How the roads have been removed from politics, and how well they have been worked under the new system, and then compare this record with the old political methods which caused the $1.85 tax rate, and remember that it is the same Democratic Organization today that are asking you to place them in control of the county affairs.

Voters, don't forget the Gibbs roads, but insure the continuance of the present efficient management of our county affairs by voting a Republican Ticket on Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1919.

TO THE VOTERS OF KENT CO.

It is rumored that I have stated that I do not want the office of State's Attorney for Kent County. This is an error. If I did not want the office I would have withdrawn from the ticket.

Mr. Harrison W. Vickers informs me that he is responsible to some extent for this rumor, but of course the voters of Kent County would not pay much attention to what Mr. Vickers says in this matter.

It is true I have not made an active canvass for the office. And I have said that it is a matter that should be left entirely with the voters themselves. But if I am their choice then the office will be conscientiously administered by me.

TO THE REPUBLICAN AND INDEPENDENT VOTERS OF KENT COUNTY

(From The Chestertown Enterprise)

Before another edition of The Enterprise is printed the election in state and county will have been held. We want at this time to urge the Republican and Independent voters of the county to give their undivided support and exert their best efforts toward the election of the candidates whose names appear at the head of this column.

It is not our purpose to indulge in the usual campaign gush of partisan organs by fulsome flattery of the party's candidates and the disparagement of their opponents. We wish simply to express, briefly as possible and in unaffected language, our sincere convictions of the righteousness of Republican principles and our earnest desire that these principles should prevail by the election of Republican officials, county and state.

So far as the state candidates are concerned, sufficient has been said and written by those who know them intimately and best, to warrant the utmost confidence in their integrity and fitness for public office; and, unless the signs that usually indicate political results fail, there is but little doubt of the election of Mr. Nice and his associates on the state ticket. The result of the mayoralty election in Baltimore was an augury of the temper of the voters in that city and of the Western shore. Kent county and the Eastern shore voters must share in that sentiment and spirit of loyalty that will lift our commonwealth and nation from the slough of despond into which it has been thrown by the present administration.

We confidently believe the election of the Republican state candidates is assured. With the county candidates the situation is somewhat different. The great disparity of affiliated vote would indicate a Democratic majority apparently insurmountable. But, as has been proven many times before, "things are not always what they seem." The registration books do not always record the true sentiment of the voters; and we have sufficient faith in the intelligence, good judgment and patriotism of our fellow-citizens of "Old Kent," to believe that a very substantial majority are not in sympathy with the policies, tendencies and leaders of the present-day democracy.

The Republican candidates are all good men. Measured by every test of fitness and qualification they each and all stand the peer of their respective opponents. Some of them are among our most substantial tax-payers, successful and self-made. Several have previously been honored with official preference, and have "made good." Their records, public and private, are an open book, and are without blot or blemish. Each and all are worthy the confidence of their fellows.

Another reason why we so earnestly appeal for election of the Republican candidates—and a reason in our judgment far more important and vital than the winning of local offices, is the bearing the result of the election will have on the Presidential contest of next year.

It may, at casual glance, seem rather far-fetched to attach much importance to a minor local election in its relation to national affiairs; and it is conceded a long step from Kent county to Washington, D. C., but when we remember that it is the little veins and arteries of the human body that carry the blood to and from the heart and sustain life, so it is the district, county and state organizations that affect the body politic and determine the health and the life of the nation.

Our national government today is sick—sick unto death. The socialistic, radical, vacillating autocrat who for six years has dominated national affairs has brought our country to the very verge of destruction. The vultures of bolshevism, riot and anarchy are hovering over ready to swoop down and pick the bones of a mangled and dying government.

The only way to avoid national disaster is the election of a Republican president and the restoration of the sound principles and policies of government the operation of which under former Republican administrations insured peace, prosperity and national honor.

The elections held throughout the country, so far this year have invariably and unmistakably pointed to Republican success next year. Kent county and the state of Maryland must get in line and register an emphatic protest against the mismanagement of the present national administration by the election of the Republican candidates.

More Than 13,000 Men Are Building Your Maxwell.

Imagine 13,000 men devoting themselves to a single Maxwell. Yet that is the picture which a little journey through the eight great Maxwell plants supplies.

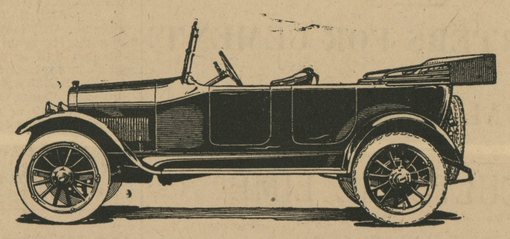

If they built but that one car a day its cost to you would represent a king's ransom.

But they are so well organized, their work so very definite, they are so expert in the special one thing they do, and they are aided by so many thousands of uncanny and superhuman machines, whose accuracy is down to 1-1000 of an inch, that you pay but a small price for a Maxwell.

A great aid to the economy of manufacture is the use of many, many millions of dollars so that a 10-cent piece saved on a bit of materia loften runs into amazing figures.

Thus the big staff of purchasing experts for Maxwell become your purchasing experts and the saving goes on to you in the price.

$985 is indeed a small sum to pay for a great value in a great car like Maxwell.
