SACHS' SHOE STORE

CORRECT FOOTWEAR

FALL 1919-20

All shoe stores, here and everywhere, claim to sell the best shoes, yet people are constantly complaining of inferior shoes, aching feet, high prices and dissatisfaction.

WHY WE HAVE MADE RAPID PROGRESS!

BECAUSE—We sell reliable factory and bench-made shoes in a large variety of styles, and all the necessary widths.

BECAUSE—We are GRADUATED FOOT-EXPERTS, and take a great deal of pains to prevent your foot pains, by fitting your feet correctly and comfortably.

BECAUSE—We took advantage of extreme early buying before the prices advanced, and we are now selling most of our shoes at lower prices than the present cost of manufacture.

Because we make good all unsatisfactory purchases. If you wish to save considerably buy now.

SACHS SHOE STORE FOR STYLE and SERVICE

In after years you will fondly cherish these bygone memories. Keep them fresh by keeping a Kodak Record.

Get your films here and bring them back to be developed and printed. You will be pleased with the result.

CHURCH NOTES

Services in Chestertown M.E. Church tomorrow will be as follows: Public preaching service in the morning at 10.30; sermon subject, "The Personal Discovery." The Sunday session in the afternoon at 2.15; in the evening at 7 o'clock the Epworth League service will be held, topic, "Our Relation Towards Others," leader, Mr. Carl Bordley. The public preaching service will be at 7.30. This service will open with an half hour spirited song service in charge of Mrs. Bertie Clements. Everybody is requested to bring the "Red Book" previously used in the union meetings. Dr. Alderson's sermon subject will be "Loyalty to Knowledge."

On Sunday, November 9, at 10.30 a. m., there will be held in Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, a mass meeting of all Episcopalians or church people in the county, to hear from two or more of the delegates to the General Convention, the story of that, one of our greatest church conventions. This meeting will also be in the interest of the nation-wide campaign now on hand. Every member of the church in the county (especially vestrymen) is requested to be present. It is hoped to make this both an interesting and helpful occasion.

Wesley Chapel held their rally day services Sunday morning, Oct. 26, with a very interesting program. The church was prettily decorated with fruit and vegetables, which were presented to the pastor.

Revival services began at Skinner's Neck last Sunday night and will continue for at least another week. Each night next week Rev. C. S. Larrimore of Lawsonia, Md., will assist the pastor. He is a singer as well as a good preacher. Everybody welcome to hear him. Mid-week services begin at 7 p m.

Rev. Robert Wyatt, of Denton, who was invited to Chestertown last conference, will go to Ebenezer Church, Easton, next year. Rev. W. L. White recently announced that the present year would be his last year at Easton.

The vestry of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church of Centreville has called the Rev. W. C. Marshall, of Rapidan, Virginia, to become the rector there. Whether or not Mr. Marshall will accept it is not known at this time, as the call was only extended the first part of the week.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. J. F. Wooden, pastor. Sunday, Nov. 2: S. S. at 9.30, John Medders, Supt.; preaching at 10.30, followed by the Lord's Supper; at 7 p. m. a meeting will be held in the interest of the W. C. T. U., in charge of the president, Mrs. Emma Shafer. Special evangelistic services will begin on Sunday and continue each evening during the week.

The 26th annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions of the Diocese of Easton, will meet in Christ Church Parish House, Easton, November 5th and 6th. All church members interested in the nation-wide campaign should attend these meetings.

DEATHS

Mr. W. E. Temple, a former resident of Chestertown, who was injured in an auto accident at Atlantic City some time ago, died Tuesday night.

Mrs. Mary J. Howard, one of Still Pond's oldest and most highly respected citizens, and one of the most beloved members of the M. E. Church of that town passed to her reward at about ten o'clock Tuesday morning after a short illness of general debility, aged eighty years. She was the widow of the late George W. Howard and a daughter of Joshua and Henrietta Clark, and leaves the following children, Mrs. Mamie Dodd, Miss Katherine and George W. Howard, of Still Pond, Mrs. Alwyn Hyland, of Federalsburg, Mrs. John S. Hurlock, of Bridgeville, Del., and Joseph Howard, of Phila. Funeral services will take place at her late home in Still Pond on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Rev. Ransome Nichols, her former pastor, assisted by Rev. A. W. Goodhand, officiating, with Untaker W. H. Krusen in charge of the funeral arrangements. Interment was in the family lot in Still Pond cemetery. The bearers were Howard Turner, Wm. Medders, S. G. Roseberry, J. N. Bennett, Geo. E. Parrott and Dr. H. L. Dodd.

Real Estate Sales

Gambrill's Grove, near Melitota, belonging to Mr. John L. Deputy, was purchased by Mr. Joseph T. Hoops, of Harford county. Price said to be $31,000. The farm contained about 388 acres. Mr. H. Theodore Jewell made the sale.

Mr. E. C. Loud, of Baltimore, has purchased from Mr. A. M. Culp the store and office building situated on Cross street, occupied by Mr. J. C. Loud as ice cream parlor and Mr. J. W. Russell as real estate office. Price said to be $6000. Mr. J. R. Simpers made the sale.

Mr. J. W. Russell has sold to Mr. H. C. Shahan, of Philadelphia, the Logan farm situated near Millington, and containing 130 acres.

Mr. W. H. Lambert, who for a number of years has managed the bowling alley and billiard room on Cannon street belonging to Mr. H. B. W. Mitchell, of Centreville, has purchased the place for $4500. Mr. Lambert is popular with the young men of the community and has a good business there.

Mr. R. C. Williams has sold his fine little farm of ten acres in Queen Annes, near Chestertown, to Mr. H. C. Hanson, of Richmond, Va., who will move there in the near future and make it his home. Price $6700. Mr. John Barnes made the sale. Mr. Williams will make a visit to his former home in Wales, British Isles, and may reside in this section after that.

—The Baltimore subtreasury and the local banks have been warned of the circulation of an expert and dangerous counterfeit $50 Federal Reserve note which was discovered a few days ago in New York. As not many persons carry notes of this denomination with them perhaps it is not likely to be handed to any of the average persons among whom the counterfeiters usually work.

Do Something For Others

Many a soul in the battle of life
Trembles with fear at the din and the strife,
Bearing alone amid trial and care
Burdens and sorrows God bids you to share.

Many disheartened by cruel deceit,
Broken and wore by the pangs of defeat,
Doubting, despairing, helplessly stand
Waiting, perhaps, for your strengthening hand.

Many are turning away from the right,
Into the maze of the shadows of night;
Go to them, speak to them, over them pray,
Help them, support them, do something today."

BETTERTON ITEMS

Farmers' Congress Meets.—Men and women farmers from Kent county, the State of Maryland and all over the United States met in Hagerstown this week for the annual gathering of the Farmers' National Congress and the Farm Women's National Congress. This has been one of the greatest weeks in the history of farming in the state. Strong resolutions, pledging their support to the government in the present national crisis, and a stirring plea for the organization of all farmers and farming interests looking to an era of justice and prosperity for the American farmer, were among the most important items dealt with at the congress. A program that exceeded anything hitherto undertaken was rendered, including many addresses by prominent men.

A Voice From Sioux City, Iowa, says

PE-RU-NA

Worth Its Weight In Gold

You cannot mistake the words of Mr. W. W. Northrup, of 908 Fourth Street, Sioux City, Iowa. He is enthusiastic about his present health and the merits of PE-RU-NA and wants everyone to know it. Here is a recent letter from him:—

"PE-RU-NA is worth its weight in gold and then some. I used to think it only a woman's remedy but have changed my mind. I had a cough, especially in the morning. After using half a bottle of PE-RU-NA was much better. I would cough up chunks of phlegm and mucus, my eyes itched and bothered me. Judging from the symptoms given in your almanac it was catarrh. My stomach is in much better condition since using your medicine."

"Use this testimonial, if you wish. Don't hesitate to advertise the merits of PE-RU-NA."

(Signed) W. W. NORTHRUP.

There are thousands just like Mr. Northrup, skeptical at first but convinced by a trial of PE-RU-NA.

DON'T BE AN UNBELIEVER.

If your trouble is of a catarrhal nature, try PE-RU-NA, then tell your friends. It is fine after an attack of grip or Spanish Flu.
