WEDDINGS

Dr. Charles F. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, of Chestertown, and Miss Louise White, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. R. White, of Salisbury, were married at Salisbury Episcopal Church last week by Rev. Herbert Cone. The best man was Dr. W. Hall, of Baltimore. After a reception at the home of the bride, Dr. and Mrs. Smith left for a trip to northern cities. Dr. Smith was formerly of Chestertown, where he is quite popular with a large following, all of who wish himself and wife a long and happy journey over the matrimonial sea.

Picked Up Halloween Night

As forecast in The Transcript last week, the young and more sedate of the Chestertown people turned out in force Friday night last and Chestertown people had a big time for a few hours. Costumes of unique design were paraded about town and only "simon-pure fun" was participated in and no harm was done.

Mr. Harry R. Graham unearthed some old hats that were perhaps the style when our grandfathers were children and many of our farmers and townspeople presented an odd appearance wearing these relics about town.

One of the oddest Halloween figures was "Mike," the airdale dog belonging to Dr. H. C. Hughes. "Mike" was all dressed up for the occasion, but did not like it a bit.

While Chestertown people paraded about masked and otherwise, over in Centreville they were not allowed to mask at all, a town ordinance being passed to that effect.

A pleasing feature of the halloween celebration here was the lack of any rowdyism. Our officers were not called upon to arrest a single person during the evening.

TRESPASS NOTICE

We warn all persons against trespassing with dog, gun or otherwise on the Almshouse Farm. The law will be enforced against all offenders.

A Tribute

Believing in giving flowers to the living instead of placing them on one's casket, it is with peasure that the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua R. Jarrell, at this time, when their fiftieth wedding anniversary is nearing, pay a tribute to this highly respected couple.

Brought up as children in Caroline County, residing for 20 years at the old Jarrell homestead, near Sudlersville, Queen Anne's county, and later coming to Kent, where they have since resided, three counties are to be proud that this worthy couple have lived to celebrate this, their 50th anniversary.

Theirs has been a worth-while Christian experience. In the early days of their married life, when parsonages were scarce and the preschers had large circuits to cover, their door was thrown open to the man of God, and their home was his home.

Of nine children born to them, only three remain. Sad as has been the passing on of these children, many of them under such unusual circumstances as to make their going doubly hard, yet the Christian fortitude with which both Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell have born all their trials has been an inspiration and help to their friends. Gratitude is in their heart for the three of their children they have left to them—Fred, of Kennedyville; Oscar, who for a number of years has been making a record for himself in Canada, and Hettie, who as a Red Cross Nurse did her best in helping to win the late war,—and for their grand children.

And so, Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell, when your 50th anniversary day, Nov. 17, rolls around, accept the heartiest congratulations of your friends and appreciation of your life among them, which has proven there is a reality in the religion you profess. May many more happy anniversaries be your lot.

(Queen Anne's and Caroline papers please copy.)

Fairlee Grange To Meet

Fairlee Grange will hold a meeting in the hall next Wednesday, Nov. 12, promptly at 7.30 o'clock. Bro. Anthony has promised us that he and Bro. Wm. G. Anthony expects to bring with him someone that all grangers will be very anxious to see. Then our worthy lecturer is sure to have a surprise in store for that night. Don't miss it. Come out and have a good time in the good old way. All grangers are looking forward to the meeting of the State Grange in Chestertown in December. Let us be ready.

Chicken salad, biscuits and coffee, with sugar, will be served.

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.
