

Keep your Feet Young

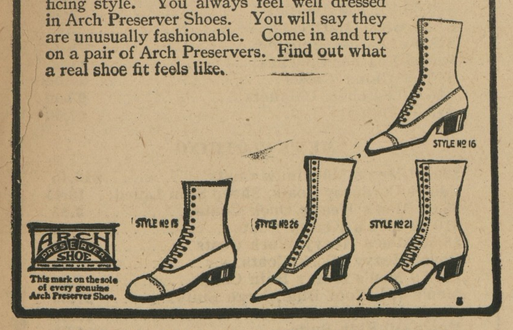

HOW often you have wished that your own feet might be as active and healthy as the feet of your children.

Yet this is not a vain wish, for foot vigor and comfort are not the exclusive riches of childhood. They may be preserved throughout your lifetime if you wear the right kind of shoes. The preserves foot health because it fits the foot, comes up to the arch and stays up. It provides a permanent non-changing tread base for the foot—to keep the arch from falling down.

And you can wear Arch Preserver Shoes without sacrificing style. You always feel well dressed in Arch Preserver Shoes. You will say they are unusually fashionable. Come in and try on a pair of Arch Preservers. Find out what a real shoe fit feels like.

LOCAL MATTERS

Dredging Season On.—The open season in Kent waters for dredging and scraping for oysters began Saturday and by day break scores of boats weer at work over the oyster bars. From all indications the season will be fairly good. Oystering is one of Kent's most profitable industries and we hope our oystermen have a good season.

Coal Fairly Plentiful Here.—Our coal dealers have been farsighted enough to lay in a good supply of coal and there seems to be a fair supply here to meet the present emergency. The coal strike, which is now on, threatens to tie up the industry at the mines and unless the government takes a hand there will be some inconvenience caused to the public.

Decorate In Honor Of State Grange.—The annual meeting of the Maryland State Grange will be held in Chestertown on Dec. 8-11. Great preparations are being made to give the grangers a royal reception and every home and store in Chestertown should be decored in their honor. Let everybody get together and show the farmers of this state what Chestertown people can do.

New Books for Library.—The following new books have been added to the Chestertown Public Library: Patsy, S. R. Crockett; Donovan Pasha, Gilbert Parker; Barbara of Baltimore, Katherine H. Taylor; The League of The Scarlet Pimpernel, Baronness Orczy; The Rim of The Desert, Ada W. Anderson; The Cottage of Delight, Will N. Harben; Three Little Women's Success, G. E. Jackson; The Lamp in the Desert, Ethel M. Dell.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Sudlersville may have a new town clock and fire bell.

—Real fall this week, with plenty of cool weather and rain.

—Br'er Rabbit will have a hard time to keep his hide on next week.

—Some of our early bird farmers have finished husking corn.

—Thanksgiving and Christmas are approaching. Thursday, November 27, is Thanksgiving day.

—The appointment of Mrs. Lambert D Bowers as postmistress at Millington, has been confirmed.

—Mr. Clarence Thompson has purchased the Rock Hall postoffice building from Mr. John W. Downey.

—John D. Rockefeller has added $10,000,000 to his endowment of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research.

—Noah Moore, of near Queenstown, was injured severely the other day when a 200-lb. bale of hay fell on him.

—The price of corn is rising steadily. Kent has a good crop, which is being husked and put away or sold.

—Engineers are making soundings and laying lines at Rock Hall for the erection of piers for the proposed ferry.

—Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr., has purchased of the People's Garage, Galena, an Essex touring car, enclosed. It is a beauty.

—Hunters, be careful with your guns next week. Nearly all accidents are the results of carelessness. Don't take any chances.

—Coach J. T. Kibler began exercises in physical training at the Chestertown High School last week and they are becoming very popular.

—Next Tuesday, November 11, is Armistice Day and a legal holiday. A half-holiday has been declared for the public schools of the state.

—Hog cholera is on the wane in this county. We noticed that those who had their hogs innoculated suffered little, if any, from the disease.

—Kent county stores are getting ready for a big Christmas. Don't forget The Transcript when you get ready to do your advertising.

—Morales Morengo, a Cuban student at W. C., received a package containing three stalks of sugar cane from his father's plantation in Cuba.

—Mr. Harry Fowler has resigned his position at the milk station and has accepted a position with the Adkins Lumber Co. in Chestertown.

—St. John's and Maryland State football teams will meet today, Saturday, in their annual game. Maryland State is about a two-to-one favorite.

—Miss Estalena Derringer has been appointed director of the Junior Enrollment Red Cross campaign, which will make a drive in Kent for membership.

—A large number of new boards are being received at the bridge, which indicates that the old structure will be repaired extensively again in the near future.

—Now is the time to boost the pullets. Feed them all they can eat of a mixture of corn and wheat and a good laying mash with plenty of beef scrap in it.

—Abraham Robinson, colored, has purchased through Mr. T. W. Perkins, the Chambers property on Cross street Chestertown, near Firemen's Hall. The price was $1500.

—Mr. Price Kenton, of Dover, will occupy the Stuart house on Queen St., now occupied by Mr. W. A. Pote. Mr. Kenton will represent the Delco Light Company here.

—A meeting was held last evening, Friday, in the Court House, Chestertown, in the interest of woman suffrage. Mrs. Hooker, of Baltimore, was the chief speaker.

—Mr. Charles O. Donnelly has purchased the Dr. Schwatka store and dwelling in Rock Hall now occupied by Mr. Wm. Francis as store and Mr. James Middleton as home.

—Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight boxing champion, is matched to box twenty rounds with Joe Beckett, the English heavyweight champion, in New Orleans on March 17, 1920.

—The moving picture, "The Shepherd of the Hills," was shown at Lyceum Theatre to immense crowds on Monday and Tuesday. The pictures were fine and were enjoyed by all.

—Mr. Jack Clendaniel, proprietor of the Overland Agency here, has sold nine Overland cars since he came to Chestertown. Mr. Clendaniel is a hustler and the Overland car is a good seller.

—Coach Fred Wallace is having a good season at St. Luke's School, near Philadelphia. His team has won four games of football and lost none. His brother, Lieut. Wm. Wallace, is still in the service.

—At a special meeting of the directors, held in Washington Friday, Oct. 31, Albert E. Berry, of Philadelphia, was elected president of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Companies.

—The Baltimore American has been making a comparison of the Baltimore and Eastern Shore prices and has been using Centreville as an example. This newspaper says that the Eastern Shore prices are the highest.

—The fields of the Kent farmers who planted wheat early are looking green, with good prospects of a big yield next year. There is, unfortunately, however, many an accident between the plow and the reaper, as this year's crop of wheat showed.

—President Gould, of Washington College, made an interesting speech at the Lyceum Theatre on Wednesday evening, heartily endorsing the United States Navy to young men who are thinking of joining. Dr. Gould was in the navy during the war.

—The Claude F. Parks syndicate has purchased from Mr. W. H. Cooper, the well known Buck Neck wharf property and freighting business now conducted by the latter. The purchase includes about 50 acres of land and the 160-ton power boat "Dahlia." Consideration said to be $16,000.

—Mr. William T. Duyer began the erection of his new home in Queen Annes county on Thursday morning. Mr. Eli Elliott will begin the erection of his home upon the completion of Mr. Duyer's. These new homes will add considerable to the appearance of that section.

—The public is cordially invited to the discussion at the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. of Washington College Sunday evening, November 9, at 6.30. President Gould, of Washington College, will be the speaker. His subject will be "The Dream of Business Ethics." Dr. Gould is a man of scholarly attainments and will no doubt present his subject in a highly interesting and instructive manner. Last Sunday Dr. A. S. Hall gave an excellent lecture on the subject of evolution. Miss Rouse sang a solo that was greatly enjoyed.
