DO YOU KNOW A BETTER CHRISTMAS GIFT?

Many a man or woman remembers that Christmas, many years ago, when The Youth's Companion was for the first time numbered among the family gifts; and how, long after many another present was broken or lost or discarded, the paper continued week after week to offer its treasure of stories and counsel and inexhaustible entertainment.

To-day The Companion brings into the home that same zest of expectancy that you felt when you were in your eager youth and when you watched so impatiently for the postman's coming every Thursday. Would it not be worth while to give to some one of your friends or to a family that same Christmas pleasure?

By ordering before Christmas the new subscriber will get the opening chapter of Charles B. Hawes' splendid serial of the Maine coast, The Son of a "Gentleman Born."

New subscribers for 1920 will receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1920.
2. All remaining weekly 1919 issues.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1920.

All the above for $2.50.

4. McCall's Magazine for 1920, $1—the monthly fashion authority. Both publications for only $2.95.
