COMING TO THE LYCEUM

Mattice Stock Company Here All Of Next Week

Commencing, Monday, Nov. 10, the Mattice Stock Company with Miss Lois B. Hammond (Mrs. Mattice) leading, supported by a strong cast, will open a week's engagement at the Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, presenting a repertoire of big, royalty plays.

The opening bill will be the four act comedy drama, "The Call of the Heart." This little play is a gem in comedy and tells an exceptionally pretty story of heart interest. An opportunity for beautiful scenery and pretty costumes is taken every advantage of.

The Mattice Stock Company needs no introduction to the amusement lovers of this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Mattice are conceded to be the most finished artists who have ever appeared on the stage of Chestertown's popular play-house.

The Mattice Company this season offer a treat in good, clean, wholesome plays, including such productions as The Natural Law, Little Shepherd of Bargain Row, A Pair of Sixes and others equally as well-known.

The big feature plays of the week's engagement will be on Thursday and Saturday nights, the bill for Thursday night being "The Natural Law," by Charles Summer. This truly great play was first produced in Boston where it created a sensation. It then went to New York early last spring, where it enjoyed a highly successful run at the Republic Theatre.

The play deals, with boldness, but convincing sincerity, with one of the big problem of modern life. In "The Natural Law," the author uses for his moral that love cannot live without respect and with a deft pen tells the story of a girl who didn't realize what a serious mistake she was making by followig the Natural Law of sex attraction for sex. She was misled by the magnetism of youth but saved by honor of maturity.

This great play has the endorsement of the press and pulpit of the world. The New York American says: "The Natural Law" teems with truth and staggering reality-one of the wonderful or all plays". The Boston American says: "It's a big play, a bold play, sensational drama of modern life worth seeing. It is even appalling in the manner in which it turns the search-light of truth upon cerfain facts that get prominence in the newspapers now and then but which the public usually endeavors to ignore."
