THE LADIES' STORE,

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND.

WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding was celebrated at noon Saturday, November 8th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Johnson, near Galena, Md., when their daughter, Mary Emily, became the bride of Lawrence C. Leed, of Wilmington, Del., the Rev. Frank White, of Mt. Olive M. E. Church, of Galena, officiating. The bride, who has a host of friends both at Galena and Wilmington, where she has been located for the past eight years, occupying the position of secretary and assistant treasurer of Young & Co., up to a short time before her marriage. She was dressed in a lace gown over chiffon and satin, a tulle veil and carried a handsome shower bouquet of bridal roses and sweet peas. She had for her bridesmaid her sister, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, who was dressed in a blue chameuse gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Anna Gale, of Galena, rendered the wedding march, and during the ceremony played "Hearts and Flowers." The groom, who holds a responsible position in the Comptroller's Statistical Dept. of the du-Pont Co., ot Wilmington, had for his best man a brother of the bride, Mr. George C. Johnsoi Jr. The ushers were Mr. Eugene J. Brannock, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. Harvey Stradley, of Galena. The house was decorated everywhere with autumn leaves, holly and chrisanthemums. Only members of the family and a few friends were present.

One of the really pretty weddings of the year occurred at the home of Dr. L. E. Barrett, on Queen street, Wednesday morning last at 7 o'clock, when Miss Mary Eleanor Blount, the charming and attractive young daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Blount. of Chestertown, became the bride of Mr. Julian Coleman, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Coleman, of this town. Miss Blount wore a blue traveling suit, with a corsage bouquet of violets and was attended by Miss Laura Storke, a friend, while Mr. Coleman was attended by Mr. Argus Robinson. Dr. Barrett performed the ceremony that made them man and wife, after which they were taken to Kennedyville to meet the Kent train by Herman Blackway, where they started on a honeymoon trip to Philadelphia and New York. They will be at home on Kent street, Cnestertown, after November 20. The bride is one of the most attractive young ladies of Chestertown, while the groom, who is a salesman for the firm of Blackway Brothers, Chestertown, has many close friends, all of who wish him and wife much happiness in a long married life.

Miss Anna Elizabeth Story, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Story, of "Winton," on Chester River, Queen Annes County, and Mr. Norman Trimble Reburn, of Wilmington, were married in Centreville last Thursday. Miss Hilda Smith, of Chestertown, was one of the bridesmaids. Miss Sallie Tucker also attended the wedding.

A very pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burgess, at Edesville, on Wednesday morning, Nov. 12, at 9 o'clock, when their daughter, Ella Margaret, was united in matrimony to Thomas Atkins Tucker. Rev. A. F. T. Raum performed the ceremony. The bride was handsomely gowned in a beautiful brown broadcloth traveling suit. She carried a bouquet of white and gold chrysanthemums. Mrs. Elwood Burgess played the wedding march. The happy couple left for Baltimore and Washington. They will live near Swan Creek on their return.
