Prisoners Carried Away.—Sheriff Carter carried to the Penitentiary on Tuesday Howard Green, of Millington, convicted of shooting his wife, and sentenced to 10 years in the Maryland Penintenary; Joseph Castle, Henry White and Oakley Gibbs to the House of Sorrection; and Edward Waters to the Shettanham Reformatory. Last week the sheriff took four children to the St. Elizabeth Home for Colored Children in Baltimore and Helen Wright and Sarah Johnson to Crownsville Insane Asylum.

Gunning Accidents.—While no Kent gunners have been injured thus far this year, an accident has occurred in Kent county. Irving States, of Crumpton, lost his leg by the accidental discharge of a gun just over the bridge from Crumpton. In an attempt to drive a rabbit from a pile of brush, by beating the brush with the breech of the gun, the shell exploded, entering the front part of his left leg about half way between the knee and hip, coming out in the upper part of the leg in the back. Not a shot was left in the leg, but the bone was shot in two, and the leg almost severed from the body. The accidental discharge of a gun also caused the death of young Goldie Wessell, of near Busick's, last week.

—The Washington College football team will close the season today, Saturday at Chester, Pa., when they meet the strong Pennsylvania Military College team. A victory is hardly expected for W. C., but we look for them to make the Cadets hustle.

Keep your Feet Young.

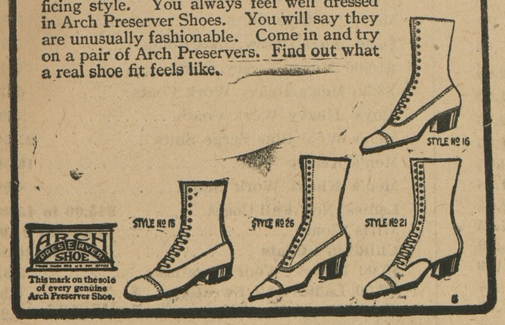

HOW often you have wished that your own feet might be as active and healthy as the feet of your children.

Yet this is not a vain wish, for foot vigor and comfort are not the exclusive riches of childhood. They may be preserved throughout your lifetime if you wear the right kind of shoes. The preserves foot health because it fits the foot, comes up to the arch and stays up. It provides a permanent non-changing tread base for the foot—to keep the arch from falling down.

And you can wear Arch Preserver Shoes without sacrificing style. You always feel well dressed in Arch Preserver Shoes. You will say they are unusually fashionable. Come in and try on a pair of Arch Preservers. Find out what a real shoe fit feels like.

The Golden Age

Every art has its Golden Age, bringing those wondrous works that live on through all the years. And it seems that a Golden Age has dawned for the newest of all arts—the motion picture. The master artist of the screen has brought to us a creation of such exquisite wonder and beauty, of such haunting charm and purity, that all else seems as of yesterday.

D.W. GRIFFITH'S "BROKEN BLOSSOMS" taken from a story of Thomas Burke, is at once the most pitiful, most tragic, and withal, the most sublime love story ever told. And in the telling, the master, Griffith, has wrought such rare and undreamed-of beauties that a new art, full, rich, boundless, is revealed.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—During 1918 Kent county lost 38 citizens by tuberculosis.

—It is reported that the basket factory will start operations in a few weeks.

—Dr. Schoul's foot expert will be at Sachs Shoe Store Nov. 24 and 25. See adv.

—Messrs. Charles N. Satterfield and Mahlon P. Lee have purchased Overland cars.

—The coon hunters were out last Monday night and had a big run. They caught a big opossum.

—Mr. O. C. Smith and family have moved into the Boyd property, which he recently purchased.

—The massive and substantial walls of the new Third National Bank Building are about completed.

—Mr. R. J. McWhorter's auto caught fire on High street Tuesday. Mr. Chas. Schreiber extinguished the fire.

—The Washington College Cotillion Club hop was held last evening, Friday, on the college gymnasium floor.

—Vansant & Newsome will utilize their second story for a sales room and have put in a stairway in the rear.

—Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day and a legal holiday that is observed wherever the American flag waves.

—The basketball season opens at Washington College on December 13 with Baltimore City College on the local floor.

—An adv. for the Packard Motor Car Co., of Baltimore, appears in this issue. Everyone knows what the Packard car is.

—Mr. William E. Duyer's residence across the river is rising rapidly and will be an attractive home. Mr. Eli Elliott will build next to Mr. Duyer.

—A good-sized pig was stolen from the premises of Mr. George Rash, of Worton, Saturday night. The thieves knifed the porker on the grounds.

—Mr. Marion Malcomb's tobacco crop in Morgnec was very profitable. Mr. Malcomb grew about $100 worth of tobacco on a quarter of an acre of land.

—Evangelist Dow and Prof. Lawton visited the Chestertown High School and Washington College on Monday. Drs. Ward and Alderson accompanied them.

—Some of the local poultry raisers are trying to make arrangements to hold a poultry exhibit during the meeting of the State Grange here in December.

—The hill at Caul's Field is being leveled and the gravel from the same being put on that portion of the road nearby that is almost impassable in the winter.

—Mr. Charles A. Raphaelson has a change of adv. in this issue. He announces that he is prepared to pay the highest cash prices for hides, furs, junk, etc.

—Dr. J. W. Urie, owner of the Urieville Mills, is preparing to install an electric plant at the mill, by which he expects to furnish light and power to Kennedyville.

—Mr. William Denny, of Baltimore, was in Kent on a gunning trip this week. Mr. Denny and his father, Mr. J. Hall Denny, got fourteen birds and five rabbits on Monday.

—The residents of the lower part of Kent are complaining about the condition of the unfinished portion of the new state road between Rock Hall and Fairlee.

—Last Saturday night was perhaps the biggest show night that Lyceum Theatre ever had. The Mattice Co. was the attraction and several hundred were turned away.

—City buyers of turkeys are flooding this section with circulars bidding for Thanksgiving and Christmas trade, but we hope our turkey raisers will consult the local buyers before selling.

—Do you remember the old-time parents who went out on a Saturday night with a market basket and a dollar and came back with a basket filled and a sack of candy for the chidren?

—Messrs. Gibson and Larmore, two former well known Washington College athletes, were elected to the Senate and House respectively from Dorchester county in the recent election.

—The Chestertown High School Football team will play the Centreville High School team at Centreville next Wednesday. These teams played a tie game several weeks ago.

—Chestertown stores have begun to take on an air of Christmas. Mr. Geo. Noland is the first to put out Christmas toys, while most of our merchants have received their Christmas toys.

—Mr. C. E. Kirby is having a comfortable office erected at his coal and wood yard on Cross street, near the depot. Mr. Kirby is a hustler and is doing a good business at his new location.

—Several Queen Annes county hunters found rabbit shooting decidedly expensive the other day, when they were fined $15 and costs. They were hunting without permission of the landowner.

—Mr. Arthur Burris holds the record for the number of rabbits killed this season. Mr. Burris has one of the best hounds in Kent and she seldom loses a rabbit when once it is jumped from its hiding place.

—Messrs. W. F. Malin, T. L. Meeks, J. E. Barnes, W. Y. O'Meara, W. H. Barnes, D. H. McKee and W. O. Bringman took the test at the Court House for centus takers of the First Congressional District last week.

—Coach Kibler was the speaker at the evening service of the Washington College Y. M. C. A. last Sunday. He spoke in a highly interesting manner of his war experiences. The large auditorium of William Smith Hall was crowded.

—The last racing matinee of the season will be held at Sudlersville Driving Park on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27. Four big races will be held and some good racing is assured. If the day proves rainy, the matinee will be held the following Saturday.

—Blackway Brothers have ordered a new electric bottling machine that will add greatly to their plant; also a new electric carbonating machine. This plant will run all the winter in order to fill the large demand for their popular drinks.

—Mr. C. F. Parks on last Saturday purchased from Mrs. Harriett Westcott Hill, of Batlimore, the property on the corner of High and Queen streets, Chestertown, now occupied by Mr. A. L. Sparks, the Chestertown Candy Kitchen and the Red Cross.

—It is estimated that there are 150,000 people engaged in the oyster business which reached a figure of $25,000,000 a year. Oysters are the most popular and extensively eaten of all shellfish and are said to be the most important of all water products with the exception of fish. The industry is a very important and necessary one in Kent county.

—The children of Mrs. Charles E. Mench gave her a birthday dinner at her home, Smithville, Sunday last, Nov. 16, in honor of her 51st birthday. About 26 children, grandchildren and friends were present and a very enjoyable day was spent.

—The Kennedyville Grange will hold a special meeting next Monday, evening, Nov. 24, 1919, at 7.30. Every member is urged to be present. Get ready to attend the State Grange meeting. Chicken salad, biscuits and coffee will be served after the meeting.

—Mr. R. C. Williams hopes to be able to sail from New York for Wales December 6. Everyone around Chestertown knows and likes Mr. Williams and we will all be sorry to see him leave. It will be remembered that he recently sold his little home in Queen Annes.

—The store in Galena conducted by Bolton & Vandyke was broken into early Monday morning and robbed of $300 worth of meat, clothing, shoes and other articles. The thieves came in a truck. Two new tires were also stolen from Mr. W. A. Hyland's store, in the same neighborhood and old ones left in a back lane.

—Coach Kibler gave the Elementary School their first lesson on the school green Tuesday afternoon. Coach Kibler announces that hereafter the girls of the High School will receive instructions in basket ball and the lessons will be given in the gymnasium at Washington College. The young ladies are elated over this prospect.

—Evangelist Dow will be the speaker at the Sunday evening service of the Washington College Y. M. C. A. Rev. Dow is a speaker of strong oratorical power and will no doubt have a very interesting and inspiring message. The service begins at 6.30, thus enabling those to attend the local church services who so desire. The public is cordially invited.

—A city exchange says: "You've seen two-dollar wheat and you've heard of 20-cent sugar, but have you met the dollar rabbit? You'll recognize him easily when you meet him. He's hanging on the market stall hooks like a bunch of new-laundered socks, and he's the son of last year's 50-cent rabbit and the great-great-greatgrandson of the 25-cent rabbit of years past.

—Buyers for commission firms in Wilmington, Chester and other northern markets were in the county this week and bought whole truck loads of poultry, eggs and potatoes. One truck left here loaded with guineas; another with turkeys; another with chickens; and others with potatoes, celery, etc. Verily, Kent county is becoming a regular garden for the city markets to draw from.

—Two hundred patrons of the Chestertown postoffice have signed a petition and forwarded it to Gov. Harrington asking that the early morning boat on the Annapolis-Claiborne ferry be restored to the service. The governor's reply indicates that the service will not be restored during the winter for the reason that one boat cannot perform the service and there is not enough travel to warrant two boats.

—The publishers of The Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($2.50) is paid for 1920 a Calendar for the new year. The tablets are printed in red and dark blue, and besides giving the days of the current month in bold legible type, give the Calendar of the preceding and succeeding month in smaller type in the margin. It is a rich and practical piece of work.
