LOCAL MATTERS

Wedding Announcement.—Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Friel Boyd announce the engagement of their sister, Helen Lucile, to Mr. Carle Andrew Marx. The wedding will take place early in January. Miss Boyd formerly resided in Chestertown, where she has a host of warm friends. She now resides in Jacksonville, Florida, with her brother and his wife.

Smallpox In Delaware.—Four cases of smallpox are said to have developed at the home of Peter Mitchell on the road between Georgetown and Millsboro. The cases are not virulent and, according to reports, the sufferers are not in danger. It is stated that in the Indian River District there are about 100 cases. Chestertown has not had a case of smallpox for many years.

Two Children Drown.—Samuel E. Styer, aged 10 years, and Cecil E. Styer, aged 6 years, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Styer, of the 7th Dist., Cecil County, were drowned in the Susquehanna River November 13. The boys were playing along the banks of the river about a mile north of Canal Station, when the younger one fell into the water. In trying to rescue his brother, the older boy fell overboard and both were drowned.

Ducking In Kent County.—Kent Co. sportsmen are having some fine sport these days on the flats of the Chester and the Chesapeake. Ducks annually provide one of the finest sports known and one in which Kent countians show the greatest interest. Ducks have always been plentiful on the rivers and bay bordering this county, where there are abundant supplies of their choice food. Kent county has some crack duck shots, judging from the number we hear of being killed every shooting day.

The American Cent—Is it proper to call the American cent a penny, and if so, why? The Century and Standard Dictionaries both admit that a cent is some times called a penny, but both classified that usage as "colloquial." Usage, even if colloquail—and usage roots in conversation—is a valid authority in forms of language. Nobody can say that to call a cent a penny is misleading, but since the word cent is exact, it is always preferable to the word penny, which is an analogy, and thus inferior to the real name of the thing in mind.

Injured In Auto Accident.—While coming from New York City to their home in Far Hills, N. J., one day this week, in an auto, Mr. and Mrs. George Brice, formerly of Chestertown, had the misfortune to have their auto upset and both of them were injured. It is impossible for us to get an accurate account of the accident, but we understand Mrs. Brice is in a hospital painfully injured, while Mr. Brice, although injured, was only slightly hurt. Mr. injured, was only slightly bruised. Mr. and warm friends in Kent county who hope for their speedy recovery.

An Open Meeting.—The Adelphia Literary Society of Washington College will hold an open meeting on Monday, November 24, in William Smith Hall. It is the desire of the students to have a large attendance in order that they may show to the public the great progress they are making. There will be a debate on a current subject, instrumental and vocal music, declamations and several selections from the orchestra, which has had great success under the direction of Prof. Ten Hoor. The society is running stronger now than ever before and it is hoed that many people will be present and thus encourage the work of the organization.

CHURCH NOTES

Unification of all of the forces in the Protestant Episcopal Church for the strengthening of its influence in this reconstruction period is the purpose of a nation-wide campaign which has begun in this country. In order to accomplish all that is aimed for, it is explained, it will be neccessary to raise a fund of $42,000,000 in the next three years. While Dec. 7 has been tentatively set as the termination of the period for receiving subscriptions toward this fund, the campaign will really have begun at that time. The campaign was broached in April last and was organized by general church officers during the summer. The campaign will culminate on December 7, the second Sunday in Advent, with an every member canvass, when teams in the parishes will visit the homes of all communicants to urge interest and participation in the work of the church.

Dr. L. E. Barrett delivered a fine sermon Sunday morning at Rock Hall M. E. Church. Dr. Barrett, although temporarily retired, has lost none of his power in the pulpit.

Last Sunday was a great day in local Methodism. Evangelist Dow's audiences were immense ones and filled the M. P. Church at every service, morning, afternoon and evening services being held. Rev. Dow preached three powerful and effective sermons to appreciative audiences. These union evangelistic meetings will continue all next week and will be held in the M. E. Church, instead of in the M. P. Church as they have been during the past two weeks. A number of converts have already been gathered into the fold.

Rev. William C. Marshall, of Rapidan, Virginia, has accepted a call unanimously extended by the vestry of St. Paul's parish to become rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church Centreville, and will assume his new rectorship the second Sunday in December.

The Wilmington Conference of the M. E. Church, which will meet in Wilmington March 20, will elect four ministerial delegates to the General Conference at Des Moines, Iowa, May 1. Drs. Robert Watt, W. A. Wise, W. R. Mowbray and V. S. Collins are spoken of as the delegates.

In memory of the late Eulalia Kiechhoefer, a station of the cross has been given the Church of the Precious Blood, Betterton, by Mrs. Annie Lang. The donation marks the anniversary of the death of Miss Kiechhoefer, who died Nov. 2, 1918. A mass will be offered by Father Urner on Nov. 22.

Service at I. U. Sunday at 10.30 a. m. and Betterton at 3 p. m. It is hoped every member of the parish will make an effort to be present. These are stirring times and we must be up and doing or be left behind.

A special meeting that will be held at St. Paul's tomorrow, Sunday, at 11 a. m., in the interest of the nation-wide campaign. A full attendance of the congregation is specially requested. Rev. Dr. Dickinson, pastor.

—The price of sugar is likely to be not only scarce but higher before the next sugar comes into the markets. It is stated that it may reach the unheard of price of 20 cents a pound.

Mrs. Merritt Brice and Miss Edna Strong visited relatives at Rock Hall this week.

Mr. Steinke, who owns the Electric Light Plant near town, and had the misfortune to have his race washed out and mill dam nearby washed away by the heavy rain storm on August 17, has had his new concrete dam finished and turned our lights on again. Our people were indeed glad to see this as our streets were in entire darkness for the past three months and were hardly safe for anyone to be on except right in the business part. Not only this, quite a number of our citizens had their homes improved and brightened up last spring by installing the electric lights in them and now enjoy the use of them instead of having to continue the use of their oil lamps.

Mr. Frank Tolson, of Wilmington, was the guest last Monday of his brother-in-law, Mr. Edgar T. Stevens.

The Conditions! The Results! The Way Out!

If you could see the letters we have been getting daily from the various manufacturers of all jewelry lines, you would realize more fully the seriousness of the conditions that exist in the jewelry trade.

THE CONDITIONS — Never in the history of the business has there been such a demand for all lines of merchandise, and, likewise, never has merchandise been so hard to get.

AND — The reasons for this are obvious—huge amounts of money in circulation and the jewelry factories compelled by labor conditions to work short hours (when not tied up by strikes). This has caused a tremendous under-production in all lines, and the majority of factories are REFUSING ORDERS FOR DELIVERY THIS YEAR.

THE RESULTS — This means that the merchandise now in the hands of the retailers IS YOUR ONLY HOPE FOR THE HOLIDAY TRADE. What will you do about it?

THE WAY OUT — RIGHT NOW we are well prepared to take care of your Holiday orders. What conditions will be a month from now we can't say. But, whether you do your buying from us or not, BUY NOW!

☞Don't Put Off Your Holiday Buying Another Minute!

Cordially yours,

DISABLED

One afternoon last summer there was a brisk shower in Washington. And after it was over there were 96 telephones reported to the wire chiefs as being out of order. What was the matter? Why, some people had merely forgotten to close the window near the telephone and the rain came in and wet the cord.

Moisture is fatal to good telephone transmission and telephone cords should always be kept dry. Never place the telephone where water will get on it, and never lay a damp umbrella against the cord. If you do, you are likely to find that your telephone will refuse to talk.
