Farm Wagons

We have a special value in Farm Wagons. that is why we call your attention to them at this time.

A Steel Axle Wagon, with as good a gear as you ever put a load on, has Slip Tongue which makes it store better under your shed, Spring Seat makes comftorble riding when you have to go in the wagon, has Stake Irons and Side Boards. This is a real Value and we only have 7 of them and cannot get any more at this price. If you are going to need a wagon next year buy it now, for there is not the slightest prospect of there being lower prices in 1920. While these Wagons last we will sell them at only

$125

If you will need a wagon don't delay, come now and get yaurs.

Yours to serve,

Davis & Satterfield,

WEDDINGS

Announcement is made of the wedding of Pearl Maxwell, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Taylor, of near Sassafras, to Charles L. Parks, of Wilmington, Del., on November 6, at Wilmington, Del. Miss Taylor has been teaching in New Castle Co. for the past seven years, where she was very popular. Mr. Parks was formerly of Sudlersville, some years ago. When the war broke out Mr. Parks enlisted in the Aviation Corps. He is now connected with the Pennsylvania-Delaware Development Co., as real estate salesman, 838 Market St., Wilmington, Del. Mr. and Mrs. Parks will leave December 2 for a wedding trip to Miami, Florida, for the winter, where Mr. Parks is employed by the Causeway Realty Co., a part of the Pennsylvania-Delaware Development Co. Upon their return in April they will make their home in Wilmington.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Russell announce the engagement of their daughter, Carmeta, to Mr. James W. Dykes, of Chrome, N. J. The wedding will take place late in December.

Mr. Harry Freeman, of Rhode Island, and Miss Alice Murray, of Philadelphia, were married at the M. P. parsonage last Monday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. L. Ward.

Miss Alice May Clayton, daughter of Mr. Walter Clayton, of Golts, and John McCarter, of Roselle, Del., were married at rectory of St. James Church at Newport, Del., by Rev. John Emory port, Del., by the Rev. John Emory Parks at noon on Saturday, Nov. 22. Mr. and Mrs. McCarter left immediately after the ceremony for Atalntic City and upon their return they will reside at their new home at Roselle, Del. The bride is from one of the oldest and best known families of the northern part of the county and is well known here as well as in Wilmington and Philadelphia. Mr. McCarter is a clerk at the Wilmington postoffice.

Daintily decorated in evergreen and maple leaves, Chesterville M. E. Church, South, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when on Wednesday, Nov. 26, at noon, Isabel Meredith, daughter of I. N. Huey, of Massey, Md., and Henry Thomas, son of J. T. Caldwell, of near Chesterville, met at the altar and beneath an arch of cedar were joined in marriage by the Rev. Mr. Coe.

The bride, attired in a traveling suit of brown broadcloth with hat to match and carrying bride's roses, was attended by her cousin, Miss Margaret Huey, who likewise was dressed in brown, and carried pink killarney roses, while the groom, attired in the conventional black, was attended by his brother, Samuel Caldwell. Mrs. Wm. C. Dempsey, sister of the groom, presided at the organ, and I. F. Huey and Norman E. Ford acted as ushers.

After the wedding a reception was given the bride and groom at the home of Mrs. Norman E. Ford, sister of the bride, to which the members of the immediate families were invited. From there, amidst noise of tin pans, showers of rice and confetti, and the best wishes of all present, the young couple made their start on the journey of life together. It was whispered that they would spend their honeymoon in Washington, and upon their return they will make their home near Massey, where Mr. Caldwell will engage in agriculture.

Grange Notes

Fairlee Grange will have an election of officers on Wednesday, Dec. 3. All members are requested to be present.

Still Pond Grange has completed the plans for their part in the State Grange meeting and if all will help there will be a good representation of our work. Mrs. Harvey B. Moore will have charge of the window in Chestertown and Stam's has been chosen. This window will be decorated on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 6, and those members who are not members of the Still Pond Farmers' Club will attend to it.

There seems to be some sort of misunderstanding about the meetings at Betterton. Autos have been ready to carry the folks to Betterton on Tuesday evenings, but as yet no one has availed themselves of this privilege. Anyone desiring to attend the state meeting, and have no way of going, will kindly notify the secretary, who will arrange to bring them to the special meeting Tuesday evening, Dec. 2, at which time cars will be provided for the next week.

DEATHS

Miss Emma Faulkner died in Pennsylvania November 23, 1919, aged 19 years. She was the daughter of the late Wm. and Debora Faulkner. Besides her mother, she is survived by four sisters and four brothers. Funeral was held at the M. E. Church, Crumpton, and interment was at Crumpton cemetery, Rev. Mr. Rowlinson officiating. The bearers were George H. Dixon, Wm. Jones and the deceased's four brothers, Wm., Able, Alden and Aldy Faulkner. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

CHURCH NOTES

Services at St. James M. P. Church tomorrow as follows: S. S., 10.00 a. m.; Bible Sunday services and sermon at 11.00 a.m. This service will consist of ably prepared papers to be read; also special music, etc.

Services at Lynch Church tomorrow as follows: S. S., 2.00 p. m.; preaching, 2.30 p. m.

Mr. Dudley Roe will speak in the Parish House of the Protestant Episcopal Church next Monday evening, Dec. 1, 1919, at 7.30 o'clock, in reference to the Nation-wide Movement within the church. A full attendance of the congregation is desired and the public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Miss Keating, of Centreville, Junior Educational Secretary of the Diocese, will address the Junior Auxiliary at Emmanuel P. E. Church Sunday, Nov. 30, at 2.30, in the Sunday School room. All are invited to be present.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid Society of Still Pond M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. W. L. Ford Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 3. A full attendance is desired.

Divine service will be held at Shrewsbury Church Sunday afternoon, Nov. 30, at 2.30 o'clock. Addresses will be made in the interest of the nation-wide campaign.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, H. D. West, pastor. Sunday services: S. S. at 10 o'clock and preaching by the pastor at 11 o'clock; Epworth League at 7.30 o'clock, Mrs. H. T. Hoyle, leader.

Union M. E. Church, Worton, H. D. West, pastor, Sunday services: S. S. at 2 o'clock and preaching by the pastor at 3 o'clock. At 7 o'clock the young people will render a short harvest home program and Dr. L. E. Barrett will deliver an address.

The union evangelistic services, which have been in progress in the two Methodist Churches for the past three weeks, under the leadership of Dr. Edwin R. Dow, will come to a close with three great services in the M. E. Church on Sunday. Dr. Dow will do the preaching at each service and has announced the following subjects: "Threefold Power," 10.30 a. m.; "Meeting for Men, A Sure Thing," 3.30 p. m.; "The Unanswerable Question," 7.30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come out and hear these eloquent and forceful sermons of Dr. Dow, whose messages have been a feast of good things to all who have heard them. Come out and worship with us all day, and help us to make Sunday the greatest day of our campaign.

Union Revivals End Tomorrow

The union revival meetings of the two Chestertown Methodist Churches, which have been in progress for nearly three weeks, will end tomorrow, Sunday, night in the M. E. Church. The past weeks have been times long to be remembered in local religious circles. The preaching has been of a character that would be hard to equal. Dr. Dow, the evangelist in charge, is a remarkable preacher of great power and oratorical ability and the churches have been filled at every service, and sometimes the churches have been almost too small to hold the big crowds that have flocked to hear him. On last Sunday the churches were packed at all of the three services held. Tomorrow, Sunday, the last day of the revival services, large crowds are looked for at all three of the services. These revivals have quickened the religious pulse of the whole community and a number of conversions have resulted.

The State Grange.—The reception to be given Monday, Dec. 8, at 7.30, by the State Grange in the Gymnasium at Washington College promises to be interesting and a grand social affair. The reception is open to the public. Tuesday evening at 7.30 Mr. Richard Waterman, of Washington, D. C., and chief of the transportation department of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and Executive Secretary of the U. S. railroad transportation conference, will deliver an address to which every granger and every farmer and the entire public is invited to hear. Chestertown will be honored by some of the most distinguished citizens of our state being present at the State Grange and all who can should attend as many meetings as possible.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE

All persons having bills against Kent County are requested to present them before Tuesday next, December 2, 1919, as the old board is supposed to retire on the above date and wish to settle all outstanding accounts before retiring.

By order of the Board.

NOTICE TO Parents & Guardians

Violations of the School Attendance Law, in Kent County, have become so numerous and flagrant as to endanger the school system both from an educational and a financial standpoint.

The Board of Education, therefore, desires to notify all parents and guardians that, from this time on, steps will be taken to enforce strictly the law requiring all children under 13 years of age to be sent to school throughout the entire year of 180 days. Those 13 years and 14 years of age may make 100 days, beginning not later than Nov. 1, if regularly employed; and must attend throughout the year if not so employed.

Those 15 years and 16 years of age must make 100 days beginning not later than Nov. 1, if regularly employed; or must attend the entire year if not so employed or have not finished the elementary grades, that is, from the 1st to 7th grades inclusive.

Methods similar to those adopted to enforce other laws on the statute books, will be applied to the enforcement of this law. Parents and guardians are, therefore, requested to cooperate with the Board of Education in the peaceful administration of the law, rather than compel them to harsh measures.

By order of the Board of Education of Kent County.

EDWARD J. CARKE, Secretary.
