Waters, Centreville, secretary; Roscoe White, Easton, treasurer. The annual meeting in Jan., 1923, will be held at Centreville.

Mystery of Quarry Solved—The mystery of Sylmar is solved and, like Mother Hubbard, "when they got there the bottom was bare," excepting a bunch of quarry scrap iron and cast off clothing. In spite of the extremely cold weather in Cecil County a crowd gathered to see the completion of the work of exploring the hole. The net results of the numerous attempts to solve the many rumors and reports have been one complete car from Atlantic City, portions of others, a quantity of whiskey, one overcoat, two lead pencils, "undies" of milady's wardrobe, and one horse's new shoes, the horse having escaped the pit.

Pomona Grange—Pomona Grange will meet at 1.30 p. m. at Kennedyville Saturday, January 28. Mr. Wm. T. Holloway, Supt. of Rural Schools of Maryland, and Prof. E. J. Clarke, Supt. of Kent County Schools, will address the meeting. Every patron of our public schools in the county and all others interested in the schools are requested to be present and to bring their problems with them.

Cold Wave Headed Toward Kent—All weather forecasts and reports yesterday, Friday, indicated that perhaps the coldest wave of the year was headed toward this section of the country and before this issue of The Transcript reaches its readers this county may be experiencing zero weather or else buried beneath many inches of snow. As we went to press the mercury was dropping rapidly with every indication that the weather report would hit the mark in this county.

Surprise Party—The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hurlock, of Kennedyville, gave them a delightful surprise Saturday evening, Jan. 4. The occasion was their thirty-seventh wedding anniversary. Among the guests were several who had attended their wedding thirty-seven years ago. Games and music were indulged in until the guests were invited to the dining room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The color scheme was pink and white. A large wedding cake adorned the table. Refreshments consisted of ice cream, cake, fruit and mints At a late hour the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hurlock many more happy anniversaries. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hurlock, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Raisin, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Van Dyke, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Telephone Damaged By Storm

The storm of Wednesday, Jan. 11, caused serious interference to telephone users in some parts of the Eastern Shore, though this section of the state was fortunate in comparison to the Western Shore. About 100 poles wer blown down by the high winds, and more than 125 telephones put out of commission.

Before the storm was over, repair men were out putting some of the lines back in condition, and have been working ever since to restore service to normal. None of the principal toll lines were damaged and communication between the different towns was kept almost at normal.

In the State of Maryland, as a whole, nearly 5,000 telephones were put out of commission, principally due to the high winds, sleet and snow that prevailed in more serious proportions than on the Shore.

The estimated property loss and damage to the plant in Maryland is approximately $125,000.

—Many rabbits have been seen running over the town lots during the past week. It is believed that they are coming in from the woodlands to the stables and wood-piles. A rabbit rears her young under a stable in the rear of Mr. T. D. Bowers' home, on Washington avenue nearly every year.
