Royster Fertilizers

are not just raw materials thrown together and run through a mixer.

They Are Highly Scientific Plant Foods

Materials are all carefully selected after long study of the plant requirements, formulated in just the right proportions, and then fully cured for months before shipping.

Of all years, this is the one you should know your fertilizer—you can't afford to take any chances. Consider what you can lose for the sake of saving a few dollars in the price of fertilizer.

ROYSTER BRANDS are sold on their merits. They have stood the field test for nearly forty years.

They Produce Results!

Farmers, List Your Repair Needs

It would be hard to find a farmer who at some time or another had not lost valuable time waiting for necessary repair parts. Take this territory and total up the time lost in this way and it will astonish you. And all because repairs are not odered as early as they should be.

There is no better time than right now—just before the busiest season on the farm—to go over your machines carefully, make a list of repairs you are likely to need and send it to us. With this list in our hands, we can order our stock so as to be prepared to meet every call promptly.

Repair part service is a necessary part of our business. We realize what it means to you in time and money to get what you need at once. Help us to help you by making up your list now and sending it in to us.

DEATHS

Mrs. Helen Spear Dudley, wife of Dr. S. C. Dudley and mother of Dr. Norman Dudley and Miss Helen Dudley, died at her home in Church Hill Thursday of last week. Her death was a shock to the entire community. She had been in her usual health, and appeared among the household during the early morning hours with her accustomed cheerfulness, and when, at about 9.30 a. m., her lifeless form was found in her bedroom it was a severe blow to all. The cause of her death was given as heart trouble.

Mrs. Dudley was born in Millington, Kent county, October, 1849, and was the daughter of James E. and Elizabeth H. Spear. Since her marriage she has lived in Queen Anne county.

In 1890 she moved to Church Hill, and there spent the latter days of her long life. She was of a sweet, cheerful disposition, a devoted wife and tender mother, possessed of many christian virtues, and her death has spread a deep grief over the community wherein she resided.

Besides her husband she is survived by four children: Dr. Norman S. Dudley, Charles Bradford Dudley and Misses Helen M. and Georgia Spear Dudley. Funeral services were held on Monday, March 13, at Holy Family Catholic Church, Rev. Father C. P. McGoldrick officiating, interment in the Church Hill cemetery.

Rev. William P. Compton, a member of the Wilmington Conference of the M. E. Church, and a former pastor of Chestertown M.E.Church, died in Philadelphia Saturday, after a long illness. The funeral was held Tuesday at Churchtown, Pa. Mr. Compton was admitted to the Wilmington Conference in 1888. He served in the Chestertown M. E. Church in 1894, 1895 and 1896. His relation was changed to supernumary in 1908 and to retired in 1913. Six members of the Wilmington Conference died during the past year.

John S. Jones, a highly respected citizen of Rock Hall, died at his home last Friday, aged 65 years. He is survived by his widow, two brothers and two sisters—Wm. H., and Thomas Edward Jones; Mrs. Mary E. Briggs and Mrs. Emma Shreck. Funeral services were held Tuesday at Rock Hall M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. T. C. Smoot, interment at Wesley Chapel. The pall bearers were W. R. Willson, T .B. Du[illegible] Casey, Romie Scoone, [illegible] Hadaway. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

John Alfred Jacquette, a well-known citizen of Quaker Neck, died at his home near Pomona, on last Friday, of apoplexy, aged 36 years. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Anna S. Jacquette, and two sons, Isaac and John A., Jr., his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jacquette, also two brothers and three sisters survive him. Funeral was held on Monday morning from his late home, services being conducted by Rev. J. M. Lindale and Rev. J. T. Rowlenson, interment in Chester cemetery. The bearers were: William, Charles and Gilpin Slagle, Alvin Brown, Spencer Biddle and Milton Faulkner. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Robert Ringgold, the 13-year-old son of Wright R. and Maude V. Calder, died at the home of his parents in Baltimore Saturday. Interment was at Wesley Chapel Monday, services conducted by Rev. A. F. T. Raum. The bearers were: James Hadaway, Frances Willson, Ellwood Taylor, Harry Jeffers, Merritt Thompson and Hiram Dugan. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Hot Lunches At Betterton Popular

The hot lunch began during the heavy storm the last of January and still continues to be one of the popular features of Betterton school. Twenty-five children come in from the country each day, and it was begun primarily to look out for them, but some days as many as 52 are served, showing the town children are also in favor of it.

Taking as a basis for the meal, the sandwiches usually carried, the committee has tried to add just those things which would balance up the bread and meat; and cocoa, bean soup, tomato soup, pea soup and vegetable soup have been served, with fruit as the dessert. By purchasing the commodities at wholesale, the price to each child has been 5 cents a day, and we are glad to say this has paid for it. We serve half a pint of the soup or cocoa, with an orange or apple, or slice of pineapple, for the nickle, and by a donation of the following list the total amount collected at 5 cents a day, $52.32, just balances the expenditures: A. H. Brice, James Willis and E. H. Briscoe, each 2 quarts milk; C. H. Brice, Howard Owens and Carlton Moore, 1 dozen oranges; 2 baskets potatoes and one big cake, Mrs. J. T. Crew; 12 dozen ginger cakes, Mrs.Wm. Owens; 5 gallons vegetable soup, Mrs. A. L. Harris.

The children are served in agate cups, on an oilcloth covered table, in the domestic science dining room, and after the lunch is finished, each child marches up to the stove on which is two pans of boiling water, one with soap and a mop, the other clear. The cups are washed, scalded and turned down on the drain board. By doing it in this way, none of the folks so kindly giving their time for the serving of the lunch, have a big pile of dishes to wash. And the cost of service is small. The following ladies have given their time and support to building up the health of the children: Miss Dickey, Miss Jewell, Miss Wilmer and Mrs. Byard Crew, teachers; Mrs. Charles Brice, Mrs. John Brice, Mrs. Thomas Brice, Mrs. Geo. Brice, Mrs. M. V. Turner, Mrs. Maud Smith, Mrs. Ellen Smith, Mrs. J. T. Crew, Mrs. Lit Crew, Mrs. Harry Crew, Miss Louise Crew, Mrs. Charles Willis, Mrs. Ernest Horsey, Mrs. A. L. Harris, Mrs. Mattie Tull, Mrs. Blanche Young, Mrs. Harvey Moore, Mrs. Howard Owens, Mrs. Harry Owens, Mrs. Wm. Owens, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Stauffer, Mrs. Briscoe, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Thomas.

KEEP YOUNG

People with bad backs and weak kidneys are apt to feel old at sixty. Many old folks say Doan's Kidney Pills help them keep young. Here's a Chestertown case:

Thomas Clements, retired farmer, 108 S. Mill St., gave the following statement August 16, 1916: "I suffered an atack of backache and whenever I would bend or stoop over, I would suffer sharp pains in the small of my back. As Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my home for several years, I took some and haven't been troubled since. I bought this excellent medicine at Toulsons Drug Store."

On January 25, 1921, Mr. Clements added: "Whenever my kidneys trouble me, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they always do me a great deal of good. I have never found anything to equal Doan's."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clements had. Fister-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
