NOTICE OF TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS

The teachers' examinations, usually held on the first Thursday and Friday of June, will be held this year on FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 5-6, in the High School Bldg., Chestertown, Maryland, beginning at 9.00 a. m.

Applicants should arrive 15 minutes early in order to fill out information blanks.

Any further information may be obtained at the office of the County Supt.

EDWARD J. CLARKE,
County Supt.

—On Tuesday night, March 29, 1921, Kent county was visited by freezing weather that practically ruined all the fruit of the Shore. On this date nearly every variety of fruit was in bloom. What was left of the fruit crop by the freeze of March 29 met the same fate on the night of April 12, when a snow and sleet covered the trees. The same was general throughout the state. We are hoping that the same fate does not await the present fruit crop, the trees being in full bloom at this time.

LYCEUM THEATRE

CHESTERTOWN

Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Friday and Saturday, April 14-15—Pola Negri, Europe's greatest star, in "PASSION," proclaimed by many reviewers as "The World's Greatest Picture."

"Passion" is the latest sensation in the way of screen productions. Big enough to successfully vie with the biggest stage hits.

This is the intimate romance of a wonder woman. Replete with tremendous dramatic situations, which fairly take the breath away. Beautiful and powerful beyond compare.

The romance of the world's most daring adventuress. The meteoric rise and fall of a winsome little French milliner who reaches the zenith of her glory as the ruler of a king and who finally arrives at her lowest ebb in the shadow of the hatreds of millions of people who had come to regard her as a "vicious creature in skirts." Anticipating unusual attendance the management respectfully suggests that those who can conveniently do so will attend Friday night—and come early.

No advance in prices.
Admission 10, 20, 30.

Monday and Tuesday, April 17 and 18—Gaston Glass, Irving Cummings and Vivienne Osborne in "CAMERON OF THE ROYAL MOUNTED." "Cameron of the Royal Mounted" is the fastest moving and most engrossing story of the Canadian Northwest that has been portrayed on the screen in many years. The author, Ralph Connor, is known all over the world for his stories, "Black Rock," "The Sky Pilot," "The Prospector" and "The Man from Glengary." His books are enjoyed today by hundreds of thousands of readers. The outstanding feature of "Cameron of the Royal Mounted" is its faithfulness to detail. In the filming of the story only seven actors appeared. The other characters were portrayed by men who have lived their lives in the shadows of those towering mountains which serve as a background for the story. It is interesting to note that an entire squadron of Royal Northwest Mounted Police, whose service were procured through Mr. Connor's influence, actually take part for the first time in the history of this famous organization, in the making of a motion picture production. Of the beauties and wonders of the Canadian Northwest as a background for the story little need be said. Nowhere else is there to be found the scenic glory of gorge and mountain peak that exists in this part of the world. Scene for scene and action for action, this production has no equal in pictures of the Northwest that have previously found their way to the screen.

Added Attraction — International News, Movie Chats and "Winners of the West."
Admission 10, 20, 30.

Wednesday, April 19—High School Class Play—No Pictures.

Thursday, April 20—Eugene O'Brien in "Clay Dollars"—a comedy of rural life. Also International and Selznick News reels.
Admission 10, 15, 25.

Friday and Saturday, April 21-22—Thomas Jefferson in "RIP VAN WINKLE."

As a novel "Rip Van Winkle" has brought joy to millions—kiddies and grown-ups alike—from the time Washington Irving penned the immortal lines right up to our own day.

In play form it has won for itself a place unique in the annals of the American stage and has served to make Joe Jefferson—who created the role—famous and wealthy.

And now upon the silver sheet, Joe Jefferson gives new life to this ageless classic.

Admission 20, 20, 30.

DEATHS

The death of Mr. Norman M. Cooper, son of Mrs. P. J. Cooper, of Chestertown, and brother of Mr. Arthur Cooper, occurred suddenly in Newbern, N. C., this week. He was 24 years of age. Particulars of his death are unknown to us. The body arrived on Friday. Funeral conducted at 10 o'clock yesterday from the home of Mr. Howard Mench, near town, conducted by Rev. N. O. Gibson, interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

The pall bearers were Floyd Meekins, George Patrick, George T. Cooper, Romie Patrick, Kennard Stafford, Simmons Lecates.

The whole community was grieved by the untimely death of Mrs. Helen Thomsen Brown, wife of Mr. A. Leon Brown, who resides on his farm near Chestertown, Saturday evening, following a short illness of double pneumonia, aged 36 years. She had been ill but a week. The deceased leaves beside her husband, the following children: Sarah Helena, William Thomsen, Margaret Ann, Deborah and Arthur Leon Brown. Also a father, Wm. Thomsen, of Baltimore; a sister, Mrs. C. A. Raymond, of Lanersh, Pa. and a brother, Wm. E. Thomsen, of Baltimore. Funeral services were held from her late home on Tuesday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. C. L. Atwater. The following acted as pall bearers: Samuel Thomsen, Allan A. Harris, J. R. Simpers, Wm. Newnam, E. R. Anthony and Merrick Clements. Interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Mrs. Brown was a lady of particular charm and of immense worth to the community in which she lived. She was active in school and grange affairs and was always willing to help in any way that she could to advance the welfare of the county. She was particularly likeable and had a most beautiful disposition, always looking for a silver lining, no matter how dark the cloud. She took great joy in the companionship of her husband and her children, which made her home life bright and cheerful. She will be deeply missed not only by her husband and children, but by the whole community.

Charles Augustus Rollison died at the state sanitarium on Tuesday, aged 45 years. He leaves a father, William L. Rollison and three brothers, William C., Joseph H. and John E. A. Rollison. Funeral was held on arrival of remains and services conducted by Rev. Hicks, of Piney Neck. Interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Grange Notes

Still Pond Grange had their regular meeting in Grange Hall Tuesday evening at the usual hour.

Although a small percentage of the members were present, a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Reports on supper and other committees were disposed of.

Sister Angie Rasin found 10 cents on entering hall and presented same to the treasury. And we are commanded, "Despise not the day of small things." The dime was given place beside others, among smiles and thanks of the grangers.

Worthy Lecturer, Sister Ollie Medders, made a motion to invite pupils of Still Pond school to give a spelling match test next Tuesday evening, beginning at 8 p. m. This being preliminary to the illimination contest to be held at Still Pond school Wednesday, April 19, 2.30 p. m. In accordance with Supt. Clarke's directions.

This invitation was accepted by the respective teachers and they appreciate the little practice it will give their pupils. This will be an open meeting and grangers are urged to come and encourage the pupils in their efforts.

Roll call was responded to by "your favorite vegetable," which led to many useful suggestions concerning food value and various methods of cooking them. The many qualities of "Swiss Chard" seemed to be both new and popular.

Sister Ollie Medders gave a very sweet selection from Eugene Field's, entitled, "Little French Doll."

After a few timely references to this especial season, the Grange closed with bright prospects for the coming spelling contest.

A Call To All Sunday Schools In Kent County

April 25th, the date for the Young People's Conference, is drawing near.

Get your school to designate its delegates at once.

Don't forget the four Study Periods—the recreation hour, the banquet and the challenge at night; also the Council Fire. All will be worth while, so don't neglect to have your delegates registered at once with the County Supt.

A. F. T. RAUM,
Rock Hall, Md.

—The residents of the upper part of Chestertown were greatly frightened Sunday when it was reported that one of the children of the neighborhood had disappeared. These fears were, however, happily dissipated when it was found that the little one was fast asleep in her bed.
