CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over thirty years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

Never attempt to relieve your baby with a remedy that you would use for yourself.

MARYLAND CONFERENCE ENDS

Rev. N. O. Gibson Returns To Chestertown; Rev. Avery Donovan Goes To Dover—Other Appointments

The annual session of the Maryland Conference of the Methodist Church closed in Christ Church, Chestertown, at near a midnight hour Monday night, when the appointments were read and the close of the session observed with fitting ceremonies. The next session of the conference will be held at St. John's Church, Baltimore, Rev. Luther Warner, pastor. When the name of Rev. N. O. Gibson, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, was read out as the pastor of the same church for another year, he was given a tremendous ovation, while the following day he received hearty congratulations about Chestertown as to his return, which attests to his popularity among churchmen of all denominations. Rev. Avery Donovan, pastor of St. James for several years, goes to Dover. He has many warm friends both in Chestertown and the district in which his charge is located. He is known as a splendid preacher and a fine pastor. Dover is a good charge, and we predict for Rev. Donovan a most successful pastorate there.

The report on Western Maryland College brought out the fact that it is in a most flourishing condition.

A feature of Saturday's proceedings was the admission into the conference of Thawley Memorial Congregational Church, Blue Ridge Summit.

Sunday was a great day in local Methodism. The weather was fine and both Methodist Churches were packed to the doors, while Chestertown was thronged with visitors.

The ordination of elders by Rev. J. H. Straughn in the M. P. Church was a most impressive sight. Nine young men were ordained, and as they came to the altar the wives of many, the parents and their pastoral shepherds were invited and knelt with them. The president was assisted by Luther F. Warner, C. P. Nowlin, E. F. Little, N. O. Gibson, E. D. Stone and G. I. Humphreys. Rev. Mr. Judefind, formerly of this county, preached the ordination sermon. In the afternoon another great crowd attended the church, Supt. Fred G. Usilton presiding. J. H. Thompson directed the music. In the M. E. Church, Rev. F. T. Benson, editor of the Methodist Protestant, and Rev. Louis Randall, of Baltimore, filled the pulpit morning and evening respectively.

The business before the Conference Monday morning was most stupendous, but the Conference was rushed to a finish before midnight. Supt. Crabbe, in addressing the Conference, referred in most caustic language to the wet forces and congratulated Senator Russell and Delegate Charles L. Miller for their stand on the question at the recent Legislature.

Quite an interesting discussion arose regarding the selling of First Church, Wilmington, but upon the offer of a delegate to guarantee $1000 a year toward the support of a pastor, the Conference decided to hold it, although the disposition of the Conference was to sell the same.

The appointments of particular interest to this part of the state were as follows:

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. "I saw after taking some Cardui . . . that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person.

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments.
