WEDDINGS

On Wednesday, April 19, in the presence of a few relatives and friends, J. Earle Smith and Miss Lola Mae Carter were quietly married at Crumpton M. E. parsonage, the ceremon being performed by Rev. J. T. Rowlenson. Immediately after the ceremony, they left for a short trip. The Transcript extends them congratulations.

Portrait Being Painted

A portrait is being painted by Miss Ethel Pennewell Brown, of Dover, Del., of the late Dr. C. W. Reid, who was president of Washington College from 1889 to 1903. Miss Brown is an artist of prominence. She has painted portraits of Chancellor Bates and United States Senator Martin W. Bates, of Delaware. These portraits have been placed in the State House at Dover. Dr. Reid's portrait will be placed at Washington College and it is expected to be ready for commencement.

CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

At the request of many of my friends, I have concluded to announce my candidacy for re-election as commissioner of Chestertown at the coming April election.
