Program of Photo-Plays To Be Shown At The

LYCEUM THEATRE

CHESTERTOWN

Showing Only The Best In Motion Pictures

Friday and Saturday, May 19-20—Norma Talmadge in "The Sign on the Door."

In "The Sign on the Door" Norma Talmadge, incomparable emotional actress of the silent drama, is seen at her best in the most interesting and absorbing screen vehicle yet given to this talented star.

Added Attraction—Pathe Review and comedy.

Two shows—7.15 and 8.45. Regular prices.

Monday and Tuesday, May 22 and 23—Blanche Sweet in "Her Unwilling Husband," as sparkling, effervescent, bubbling, blithe and gay as champagne is this semi-naughty, slightly risque, near bedroom farce, written especially for Blanche Sweet by Kenneth B. Clarke. Added attraction—International News, Movie Chats and "Winners of the West" serial.

Wednesday and Thursday, May 24 and 25—Anna Q. Nilsson in

"Why Girls Leave Home"

A photo-drama revealing the poignant phases of modern domesticity.

"Why Girls Leave Home" strikes a new note in photo-play presentation and demonstrates that a vital lesson may be taught in a manner most entertaining and without undue stres s on mankind sentimentability.

"Why Girls Leave Home" is one of the Big Productions. Don't miss it.

Friday and Saturday, May 26 and 27—First National Pictures presents Pola Negri in "One Arabian Night."

Official report of the National Board of Review says:

"This vivid, swift-moving picture is the peer of oriental dramas on the screen. It has the true atmosphere of an Arabian Nights tale and must rank as one of the exceptional photoplays of the year. It has both dramatic intensity and comic relief of an unusual order. The acting of Polo Negri may be said to be the finest and most convincing of her career before the American public, and the supporting cast is one of great ability."

Two shows—7.15 and 8.45.

COMING—Wesley Barry in "School Days."

At the New Low Prices

the CHEVROLET "four-ninety" is the world's wonder in automobile value.

CHEVROLET

Always a good car, the CHEVROLET is a better automobile than ever before. Improvements and refinements make it stand out head and shoulders above any car selling at near it's price.

BIG EVENT PLANNED

Plans For Celebrating Decoration Day Completed

Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36, Chestertown, has completed arrangements for a fitting celebration of Decoration Day. Flowers will be placed on the graves of all ex-service men of the late war by the American Legion, or sent to the families of deceased ex-service men at distant points.

At 10 a. m. the American Legion will parade in Uniform with the Chestertown Band to Chester Cemetery and decorate the graves of ex-service men. Appropriate speeches will be made at this time.

At 1 p. m. the automobile parade will start. It is expected that there will be a great number of decorated automobiles in the parade. Prizes of twenty, ten and five dollars will be awarded to the three best decorated cars. Whatever the make or condition of your car, be sure to enter this parade as the prizes are to be awarded for decoration. A band will accompany the parade and will render suitable music for the occasion.

After the parade a track meet will take place on Washington Field and prizes awarded winners of the events will be as follows:

50-yd. dash (open to and including 7th grade.

100-yard dash (open to all schools of the counties).

220-yard dash (open to and including 7th grade).

440-yard run (open to and including 7th grade).

220-yd. relay race (open to and including 7th grade).

440-yd. relay race (open to all the school of the counties).

Broad jump.

High jump.

Three-legged race. 100 yds. Open.

1 mile run.

Two entries for each event except relay race will be allowed each school.

One team per school for each relay race.

All high and elementary schools in Kent and Queen Anne's counties are invited by the Legion to enter in the track events. All entries in track events must be sent to the American Legion Headquarters, Chestertown, Md., not later than May 25.

After the track events the American Legion baseball team will clash with the Kennedyville team. This should be an interesting contest as the American Legion will be represented by stars, such as: J. T. Kibler, Herbert Usilton, and various other local stars. The Kennedyville team will have the best players they can secure. Pick your team and root for it until the end of the game.

This will undoubtedly be a very pleasant and interesting afternoon for all visitors to Chestertown on the afternoon of Memorial Day, May 30. It will also mark a day on which the country, as a whole, remembers the services rendered by those who died to make this country of ours a suitable place in which to live.

It is hoped that as large a crowd as possible will be in Chesterton on May 30 and join in the observation of Memorial Day.

Drawings for the Ford car, recently raffled by the American Legion, will be held on Washington Field during the afternoon.

Bond Issue Defeated

Perhaps the most spirited contest in a town election here ended on Monday last, when the Bond Issue, which proposition was intended to bond the town of Chestertown for $50,000 for improvement of streets and highways, was defeated by the narrow margin of four votes. The total poll was 425 votes, the largest in the history of Chestertown, 214 being cast against the Bond Issue and 210 in favor of the same. One ballot was defective.
