GIRLS CLOSE EYES IN MOVIES

Were Determined for Once to See a Picture From Its Beginning to Its End.

The last scenes of a film drama were flickering to their inevitable denouement. The fight between the hero and the villain was over, the chasing of automobiles had been so far exhausted that there was hardly a character who hadn't chased or been chased by every other character.

Suddeny a woman in the audience noticed two nice girls near her whose eyes were peacefully closed. Her heart went out to them in sympathy, for she assumed that they were blind and that they went to the movies just to hear the professor punch the piano, although that seemed too awful to be true.

But when the picture ended and the lights flashed on, the two girls opened four perfectly good eyes, looked at each other and smiled.

"Did you really keep your eyes shut?" demanded one. "Honest to goodness I did—but did you?" countered the other.

"Cross my heart and hope to die," averred the first, "but it took a lot of self-control. However, I was determined for once to see a picture from the beginning instead of from the middle."—New York Sun.

DESERVED HONORS PAID HIM

Monument at Washington Recalls Notable Services Rendered by Indian Chief to Young Republic.

In the old Congressional cemetery at Washington stands a monument, the subject of which is known to very few of even the well-informed citizens of this country. It commemorates Pushmataha, a Choctaw Indian chief whose remains lie underneath. The monument was erected by his brother chiefs who were associated with him in a delegation to Washington in 1824.

Pushmataha was chiefly celebrated for his unfaltering friendship for the young American republic, and throughout his life he was able to demonstrate this friendship in various valuable ways. During the War of 1812 he headed the Indians who composed a portion of Andrew Jackson's army, and his services in that conflict were so noteworthy that Jackson granted him a commission as brigadier general. He co-operated with the white authorities in the removal of the Choctaws from their original location in the Mississippi country to what was later Indian territory. He died in 1824 while on a visit to Washington in connection with this removal.

Fashions in Flowers.

Flowers have not always meant beauty alone. In the days of the French revolution to wear or even possess the proscribed fleur-de-lys meant death. Likewise, after Waterloo and the fall from power of the Napoleonic regime, the violet, which had been chosen as the emblem of the Napoleons, was forced to disappear from public view. Yet later, as times changed, history found the Empress Eugenie wearing the violet on her breast at a ball in the Tuileries to signify to the world that she had accepted the hand of Napoleon III.

Nor have the same flowers always found favor in the eyes of the world. Some flowers have their fashions, too, as, for example, the camelia and the once despised sunflower and marigold. It was through Dumas that the waxen beauty of the camelia came into general favor, and the pre-Raphaelites restored to high place the sunflower and the marigold, the mythical goldflower of the Greeks.—Exchange.

Auntie Remembered.

Auntie, getting along in years, is an earnest advocate of the "blank" system of memory training. By its use she has had remarkable success lately in recalling names, always so inclined to slip away from her. The other day, however, it took three attempts to get the rightful appellation. Nephew went up to her at a dance, requesting an introduction to the new and decidedly sturdy and stout young kindergartner who was substituting in our town. "Yes, yes, I know her name," said auntie eagerly; "just let me think a moment—it was entirely appropriate, so I didn't bother much with it. Let me see. Strong, no; Hefty, oh, no; I remember it applied to her calling as well as to her person. I have it now, Powers—Miss Powers," said auntie triumphantly.—Chicago Journal.

Gold Knives Used to Carve Sacrifices.

At Chichen-itza, in Yucatan, where there is a sacred sinking well, there has been found all sorts of beautiful sacrifices imbedded in the mud. Jade necklaces, gold plates and small jars heavily studded with jade, sometimes containing human hearts, have been found in this well. The Maya Indians made these sacrifices when they wanted rain or a blessing for their crops. Beautiful gold knives that were undoubtedly used to carve up the victims of sacrifice, usually young women, have also been found.

The Maya Indians of northern Yucatan probably use the same language as the builders of the ruins among which they live, says Prof. A. M. Tozzer, of Harvard university.

EVER HAVE IT?

If You Have, the Statement of This Chestertown Citizen Will Interest You.

Ever have a "low-down" pain in the back?

In the "small," right over the hips?

That's the home of backache.

If it's caused by weak kidneys,

Use Doan's Kidney Pills.

Chestertown people testify to their worth. Ask your neighbor! Read a case of it:

Oliver W. Stoops, 634 W. High St., says: "I had an attack of kidney trouble and my back got so lame and stiff I could hardly keep at my work. When I stooped it was all I could do to straighten up again. The action of my kidneys was irregular and for two or three weeks I was almost past going. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills helping others and I bought some at Toulson's Drug Store. They were what I needed and soon fixed me up. I have had no return of the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Stoops had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. adv.

WEAK, NERVOUS, ALL RUN-DOWN

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. "I saw after taking some Cardui . . . that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person.

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me . . . My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly affir
