WM. CABELL BRUCE will make a worthy representative of Maryland in the U. S. Senate.

If nominated by the Democrats, he will be elected.

Wm. Babell Bruce is a believer in the

"LEAGUE OF NATIONS."

He is a friend of Woodrow Wilson, both of them being Southern Democrats. In fact they were in the same class at University of Virginia and have been intimate ever since.

WEDDINGS

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jewell, Still Pond, Sept. 1. The contracting parties were Miss Gladys Hackett, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hackett, of Still Pond, and Mr. Paul Westley Giddens, of Bell, Tennessee. After a short honeymoon they will reside at Aberdeen.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robinson was the scene of a quiet though very pretty high-noon wedding Wednesday, when their daughter, Miss Cora Jones, one of Chestertown's most popular young ladies, and Mr. Harry M. Seigenfuse were joined in holy wedlock by Rev. O. E. Jones. The ceremony, which was witnessed only by the immediate family, was performed amid beautiful and tasty decorations of cut and potted flowers and ferns, intermingled with which was bountiful sprays of nature's choicest autumn blossoms, the beautiful golden rod. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, after which the happy couple left for a short northern trip. They will reside at Dumont, N.J., where the groom is a member of the High School Faculty. The happy couple received many useful and beautiful gifts.

—A boat loaded with 2700 bushels of wheat, belonging to Mr. B. Neal Wilson and Roy Strong, of Rock Hall, met with a most unusual accident recently, when some acid sprinkled upon the wheat caused an explosion. The boat was run aground and the cargo saved. The vesel belonged Mr. John C. Wood, of Rock Hall.

—Present indications point to the return of the Chautauqua to Chestertown next year. A meeting of the people who are willing to be guarantors was held Thursday evening at which about fifty were present. An effort will be made to secure 100 guarantors.
