Heating Plant For C. H. and Jail

The County Commissioners of Kent County have given out a contract to Mr. Wm. C. Sutton to install a hot water heating plant in the Court House and Jail at Chestertown. Work has begun on the same and will be concluded as soon as possible. This new heating plant will be a great convenience and will likely be quite a saving in fuel.

Men's Club Entertain

The Men's Club of Emmanuel Parish, Chestertown, entertained the congregation at a weonie and oyster roast at Newnam's Wharf Thursday afternoon. A large number were present and a delightful afternoon was spent. The club has a membership of nearly fifty men. The object of this club is too assist the rector in his work and to advertise church work generally. Much good has been accomplished by this body and much good work yet remains to be done.

To Leave Chestertown

The many business friends of Messrs. H. Sachs & Son very much regret the loss of this enterprising firm from Chestertown. These gentlemen came here in 1914 and by their accommodating manner and business methods soon built up a large and thriving business and made many warm business friends who hate to see them leave Chestertown and move to Centreville. They will be a distinctive loss to the business interests of this community. The town can ill afford to lose its progressive men. However, Messrs. Bonnett & Dahne, who will succeed Messrs. Sachs, come to us highly recommended and men worth while, and we believe will be an addition to our business interests. Yet we dislike to part with all friends like the Sachs.

State's Attorney Butler To Oppose Congressman Goldsborough

Members of Republican State Central Committees for the Eastern Shore counties, besides many other Shore Republicans gathered at Easton, Md., Tuesday for the purpose of selecting a candidate for Congress from the First Congressional District. They agreed on Charles J. Butler, State's Attorney for Talbot county. Senator L. B. Towers was in the chair and A. F. Grace, of Easton, was secretary. Senator Towers was also mentioned prominently for the place. Messrs. John N. Bennett and Robert R. Hill were present from Kent County. No platform was given out by the gathering.

Thomas J. Keating, Esq., New Judge

Governor Ritchie on Monday announced the appointment of Thomas J. Keating, of Queen Anne's county, to fill the position of Associate Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit, to succeed the late Philemon B. Hopper. The Governor said it was his understanding that Mr. Keating will qualify in time to preside at the opening of the fall term of the Circuit Court for Caroline county next Monday. The Second Circuit includes Cecil, Kent, Queen Annes, Caroline and Talbot counties.

Mr. Keating has been State Insurance Commissioner. This position is under the Board of Public Works, which consists of the Governor, the State Comptroller and the State Treasurer. As the tenure of the office under its present status will expire Dec. 31, when the place will be filled by the Governor under the Reorganization law passed by the Legislature last winter, it is understood that William S. Gordy, Jr., Camptroller, and John M. Dennis, Terasurer, will defer to Gov. Ritchie in the selection of Mr. Keating's successor. The Governor said he will ask the other members to co-operate with him in appointing Harvey L. Cooper, former State Senator from Caroline county.

Judge Hopper's term would have expired about November 1, so the present appointment will expire at the same time. It is expectd that Gov. Ritchie will, before Nov. 1, appoint him for the year to follow the expiration of the term. An election for the position will be held in the counties of the circuit in November, 1923.

PROGRAMME

Friday and Saturday, Sept. 29 and 30—

Mae Murray in
"THE GILDED LILY"

A story of gay New York life that has a warm and true heart beating underneath; is perhaps unusual, but it has been done amazingly well in Mae Murray's Newest Paramount picture.
Also Pathe Review and comedy.

Monday and Tuesday, October 2 and 3—

Goldwyn Presents the
"ACE OF HEARTS"

A screen drama of compelling power and suspense. Lou Chaney, John Bowers and Beatrice Joy act the leads.
Also Century Comedy.

Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 4-5—

Tom Moore in
"BEATING THE GAME"

Filled with escapades and accomplishments of a "man who dared"—charged with a high voltage of love, thrills and suspense.

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6 and 7—Rupert Hughes' Heart Gripping Story of Home—

"THE OLD NEST"

It is not melodrama; it is not tragedy to appall you; it is not comedy to amuse you; it is not sentimentality to affect you to tears or longing. It is—LIFE.

It is of the Mother, the Father and the Children—the trinity of that same plot a hunderd million American are playing.

It is real and touching and almost incredibly without an atom of false sentiment.

Don't miss "The Old Nest."

☞Pictures start at 8 sharp.
