The terms of all State and county officers heretofore appointed for terms which will not expire until during the year nineteen hundred and twenty-five, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, nineteen huhdred and twenty-seven or nineteen hundred and twenty-eight shall be reduced by one year, and their successors shall be appointed for the terms now provided by law in the years nineteen hundred and twenty-four, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, nineteen hundred and twenty-six or nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, respectively. The Governor shall submit three budgets to the General Assembly at the regular session of nineteen hundred and twenty-four, in accordance with the provisions of Section 52 of Artcile III of the Constitution, for the three fiscal years beginning October first, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and ending September thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-seven and two budgets to the General Assembly at the regular session of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, and thereafter as now provided by said section.

Section 11. The purpose of this Article is to reduce the number of elections, by providing that all State and county elections shall be held only in every fourth year, and at the time now provided by law for holding congressional elections; and to bring the terms of appointive officers into harmony with the changes affected in the time of the beginning of the terms of elective officers; and the administrative and judicial officers of the State shall construe the provisions of this Article so as to effectuate that purpose. For the purpose of this Article only the word "officers" shall be construed to include those holding positions and other places of employment in the State and county governments whose terms are fixed by law, but it shall not include any appointments made by the Board of Public Works, nor appointments by the Governor for terms of three years.

Section 13. In the event of any inconsistency between the provisions of this Article and any of the other provisions of the Constitution, the provisions of this Article shall prevail, and all other provisions shall be repealed or abrogated to the extent of such inconsistency.

Section 2. And be it further enacted by the authoity aforesaid, That said aforegoing section, hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution shall be at the next general election for Members of the House of Representatives of Congress held in this State submitted to the legal and qualified voters of the State for adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article XIV of the Constitution of this State, and at the said general election the vote on the said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the following synopsis of said amendment under the caption of

"CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT PROVIDING FOR FEWER ELECTIONS."

"This amendment provides that all State officers, except judges, and all county officers elected by qualified voters shall be elected in every fourth year for terms of four years beginning with the election in November, nineteen hundred and twenty-six. The terms of State and county officers to be elected in nineteen hundred and twenty-three are reduced to three years, and the terms of other elective officers are increased or reduced, as necessary, so that their successors may be elected in nineteen hundred and twenty-six. Terms of officers appointed by the Governor and by County Commissioners are adjusted in harmony with the terms of the officials by whom they are appointed. The General Assembly shall meet in nineteen hundred and twenty-four for a regular session, and again in nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, and every two years thereafter. Other provisions of the Constitution and of the Laws are adjusted to harmonize with the above changes"; and the words "For Fewer Elections Amendment" and "Against Fewer Elections Amendment," as now provided by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by said Fourteenth Article of the Constitution, and further proceedings had in accordance with said Article Fourteen.

Approved April 13, 1922.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all the members of each of the two Houses concurring), that the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 10 of Article XV of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, title "Miscellaneous," the same if adopted by the legally qualified voters of the State, as herein provided, to become Section 10 of Article XV of the Constitution of the State of Maryland:

AFTER THE STORM
By Arthur Eugene Smith

A frowning cloud looms up behind the hills,
And slowly spreads across the deep blue sky;
A shudder runs across the wheat, and fills
The full-leaved woods with gloom. A mournful cry
Of winds among the pines; a sudden flight
Of birds to cover, and the fair, warm day
Seems hiding underneath the wings of night!
With rumblings, mutt'rings, yet so far away,
The thunders mark the flashes that appall
The timid heart. An hour; again the blue
Of heav'n! The sun, though scattering raindrops fall,
Smiles like a maid who doth her plight renew.
And summer, beautiful from start to close,
Is as a poem written of the rose.

SPORTS

W. C. FOOTBALL TEAM OVERWHELMS CHARLOTTE HALL IN GRUELLING GRIDIRON BATTLE—LOCAL COLLEGIANS PLAY ST. JOHN'S TODAY

Washington College rode roughshod over the Charlotte Hall football Saturday and tasted the sweet fruits of victory to the tune of 76 to 0. At no time of the game did the visitors have a chance of scoring a single point. In fact all their efforts at ground gaining were fruitless. So strong was W. C.'s cordon of defense that a sum aggregate of the efforts made by Charlottte Hall to advance the ball shows that they did not gain a single yard. On several occasions they advanced the ball for a few yards, but afterwards they were thrown for greater losses than the sum total of their gains. Consequently they failed to gain a single first down.

Washington's line was a veritable stone wall on Saturday and, from end to end, the team showed a dash and element of strength which speaks for them in no uncertain tones.

On the other hand, Washington's dashing and aggressive backs hurtled through the visitors' line like it were made of paper. Crowe, Bankard, Cavenaugh, Flowers and Galvin almost carried the ball for gains at will, while the giant guard, Keenan, showed an ability to advance the ball which was amazing.

The bewildering interference put up by the Washington College team allowed almost any runner who took the ball to carry it almost at will. As a result of this quite a number of touchdowns were made from the kick-off.

John Townshend and Dick Mason played with the Charlotte Hall team. Both are Chestertown boys.

Cavanaugh, the recent acquisition from the Crosby High School at Waterbury, Conn., handled the team in a most efficient manner and showed an exceptional ability to advance the ball.

Washington College resorted to a line-rushing game, with few attempts at aerial passes. This was due to the fact that several St. John's scouts were reported in the stands and Coach Kibler wanted to keep his best plays to spring on St. John's today.

Cavanaugh was just as weak at kicking goals as he was strong at running the team and failed many times when he should have added to the local team's score.

After the first quarter, Coach Kibler began sending in the second team and when the final period was over every man in the squad had been in the line-up.

Charlotte Hall began the game with a good kick to Washington, who seemed slow in getting started. After about five minutes of play Washington run the ball over the line for a touchdown, but Head Linesman Atwater saw a foul on the W. C. team and the ball went back for further playing. W. C. soon duplicated the performance and had scored 20 points when the quarter was over.

The second quarter found Charlotte Hall putting up a game, but hopeless fight. In this quarter W. C. added 13 points to their 20 and ended the first half with a total of 33 points.

In the third quarter Charlotte Hall was literally crushed and W. C. tallied for a total of 24 points.

In the final period what was practically the reserves or second team made 20 points.

Taking the whole game as a whole, Charlotte Hall was no match for W. C., which team was heavier, had more experience and a wider general knowledge of the game. But even with these handicaps, and in spite of the fact that they were being overwhelmed after five minutes of play, the visitors played gamely and clean, and were not penalized a single time during the entire contest.

George Sisler, of the American League, was the batting champ of the American League and Hogers Hornesby held the top honors in the National League for the third time.

Directors of the Eastern Shore League met last week and received the reports of the secretary, which showed that the general treasury of the league presented a balance on the right side of the ledger and that, generally speaking, the first season in organized baseball might be considered a success financially and otherwise.

Frank Baker, of the Yankees, has retired from baseball for good. His sun has set. Baker was one of the greatest third sackers and heaviest hitters that ever played the game. He is still a good ball player, and the game can ill afford to lose him. He was a credit to the game. Few have surpassed the records made by the great player from Trappe. Baker went into big league baseball from Reading in 1908. He was a fixture from the minute he walked on the field with the famous Athletics, a planet among brilliant orbs, and helped compose perhaps the greatest infield in the history of the game—McInnis-Collins-Barry-Baker.

The world's series between the New York Giants and the New York Yanks is on in New York for the second time in as many years. We predict the Yanks as the winner.

The game between Washington College and St. John's at Annapolis today has drawn the eyes of all lovers of the game in the state to the contest. There is little to chose between the two schools, either in the number or the students or the studies. Both are aggressive schools and always put up a hard fight in all branches of athletics. There was a time—not so many years ago—when St. John's was regarded as Washington's superior on the athletic field. But that day has passed. True, St. John's has been victorious on the gridiron for several years in succession, but Washington has surpassed them in other branches of sport. And so the two teams come to this contest this year with exceptional hopes—St. John's expecting to add another victory to its long string of gridiron triumphs; Washington expecting to defeat St. John's and add football to the other sports in which she has been victorious. The game should be a good one. We expect W. C. to win.

Under the heading, "Game Called," Grantland Rice, the silver-pen of the sporting page, recently gave this beautiful poem to the press:

"Game called"—where in the golden light
The bugle rolled the reveille,
The shadows creep where night falls deep
And taps has called the end of play.
The game is done, the score is in,
The final cheer and jeer have passed;
But in the night beyond the fight
The player finds his rest at last.

"Game called"—upon the field of play,
The dusk has come, the hour is late.
The fight is done and lost, or won,
The player files out through the gate.
The tumult dies, the cheer is hushed,
The stands are bare, the park is still;
But through the night there shines the light
Of home beyond the silent hill.

ROCK HALL

Capt. James R. Downey's bungalow on Sharp street is rapidly approaching completion. The trimming, painting and decorating will be finished in about a week or ten days. The plumbing being installed is modern, the well a fine one, encased with three-foot vitrified pipe, preventing any contamination of the water, of which there is a liberal supply. The bungalow is one of the prettiest in Rock Hall, exceptionally well built and contains six rooms of good size.

The work is progressing rapidly on Dr. Selby's and Mr. Joseph Davis' residences and it is expected that both will be ready for occupancy before the cold weather sets in.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hoops spent Saturday and Sunday at their summer home, Rock Lodge.

Mr. George Martin recently visited his sister Mrs. Samuel Whaland, Green Lane.

Miss Miriam Wilson spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Wilson.

Mr. Graham Joiner and wife have taken an apartment at the residence of Mr. John Hubbard.

Mrs. Amanda Cannon, who has been residing at Love Point for about two years, has returned to her house in Green Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. William Artrum spent Saturday and Sunday at their summer home in Green Lane.

Mr. Emory Hogans, wife and two children and Mrs. Hogans' sister Miss. Mildred Hamacher, have been visiting relatives in Baltimore this week.

Our town is electrified and our council agrees that they will run the current in the day for such time as may be needed.

Mr. Walter Holmes and William Wilhelm, of Balttimore, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Koosby.

Mr. Frank Shreck, of Baltimore, was entertained Sunday by Mr. Alvin Shreck and wife.

Mrs. Hinkle, of Fairlee, was a visitor at the home of Mr. Michael Wachowicz during the week-end.

Mrs. Mary Gagolski and Irene Harrison, of Baltimore, were guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Galgaski.

Gr. Joseph Gagalski and wife and daughters are visiting in Baltimore and Newark, Del.

Mr Wallace Wheat spent Sunday here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gadsky, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. George Koosky and wife during the week-end.

—Francis G. Mullen a farmer living near Cambridge, and his brother-in-law, James J. Blundell, of Arizona, had an encounter with a bull recently from which both emerged with numerous cuts and bruises. Probably both would have been gored to death if the animal had not been dehorned.

—Easton, Md., now has a colored policeman, who serves in the colored section of the town.

BRICE'S MILL
JOSEPH BRICE, Proprietor.
Bake things he likes with FLAVO FLOUR. It's healthful and tissue building. There is more nutrition and a sweeter taste in FLAVO FLOUR. It is made with a new process by the most modern mill in the world. Nature's food values and the delicious flavor of the wheat are not milled out as they are by other methods. FLAVO FLOUR is milled at home from home wheat. It is good. Buy it and patronize Home Industry.
