CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION

Fall Term Convened In Chestertown Monday With But Few Important Cases On The Docket

The fall term of the Circuit Court for Kent County was convened in regular session Monday morning. Associate Judges Lewin W. Wickes and Thomas J. Keating were on the bench.

Few cases of importance are on the local docket.

MONDAY, OCT. 16.

The court appointed Alfred Crew, bailiff in place of James P. Parrott, resigned.

The drawing of the Grand Jury resulted as follows:

William Medders, Elmer S. Jarman, Wm. M. Hurlock, George N. Cooper, James G. Beck, John R. Dowling, Jr., W. Tilden Brice, Jr., Lewin W. Skirven, Andrew W. Wilson, S. Tilden Cooper, Hyland P. Smith, Walter S. Trew, James M. Wood, Wm. B. LeCompte, Edward W. Emory, Benj. W. Duling, Richard Haggerty, Wm. T. Dixon, M. E. Newsome, Lawrence Stevens, Howard D. Reese, Samuel C. Emory, L. R. Vansant.

The remainder of the panel comprise the petit jury as follows:

Judge Wickes charged the grand jury, after which the several dockets were called.

Chief Judge Wm. H. Adkins arrived on the 11 o'clock a. m. train and took his seat on the bench.

Elmer S. Jarman was excused from jury service at this session.

The appeal docket was taken up and the following cases heard:

A. Merritt Spry vs. Delaware Motor Transportation Co., appeal from docket of Justice Robert V. Moffett. Amendments made and case continued.

Court took recess until 1:30 p. m., and upon resumption case of State vs. J. A. Stauffer was called. Appeal from docket of justice Moffett. Court trial. Verdict not guilty.

Case State vs. Lewin Barroll. Appeal from docket justice Moffett. Referred to Grand Jury.

Grand Jury brought in the following presentments:

Wilbur Toulson, for assault; Ernest Phillips, larceny; Arthur Hyland, larceny; Oscar Chambers, bastardy; Robert Brooks, larceny; Will Walters, assault with intent to kill.

Court suspended at 3:30 p. m., to hold memorial exercises for the late Judge P. B. Hopper.

Resolutions To Judge Hopper

Resolutions of the Kent County Bar in memory of the Honourable Philemon B. Hopper. Associate Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit of the State of Maryland.

The members of the Bar for Kent County, Maryland, learned with sorrow and deep sympathy of the illness and death of the late Judge Hopper. During his fifteen years of service on the Bench in the discharge of his official duties he had faithfully served the people of the Circuit and of this State and had well earned the esteem, love and affection of all the people with whom he came in contact.

Judge Hopper was well prepared for many years of active service in his Profession when he was admitted to the practice of law. He had been an earnest, diligent and intelligent student; his naturally keen mind quickly acquired that deep knowledge of the law and its fundamental principles, without which no lawyer becomes a distinguished member of that learned Profession which he chooses as his life work. As a young lawyer he was active, intelligent, and added by years of experience to the vast fund of knowledge which he began while a young man to acquire.

During this period he won many and staunch friends, who remained deeply attached to him until they or he passed into the Great Beyond. In the trial of cases Judge Hopper appealed to the reason of the Bench and of the Jury; his forceful convincing manner of presenting his cases won for him an eviable position among his associates at the Bar in each of the five counties of the Circuit.

When the vacancy occurred on the Bench occasioned by the death of the late Judge Edwin H. Brown, all eyes turned to Mr. Hopper as the man fitted to fill this distinguished position. His urbanity, courtesy and unfailing desire to help, and not to embarrass the younger members of the Bar, won for him their admiration and affection. Those who were older and who were his associates before he ascended the Bench recognized that Judge Hopper was in every way qualified to discharge the weighty and important duties which devolved upon him.

As a man, Judge Hopper was a man among men. In religion, he had a deep and abiding consciousness in the mercy of an overruling Providence. In his social life he loved his fellow men and they loved him. In his family life, those who knew him well will always cherish him as a man who ever showed that love and tenderness which is an honour to themselves and to those who are dear to them.

Your Honours, we, the committee appointed by the members of the Kent County Bar, move that a copy of this tribute be placed upon the records of this Honourable Court. That a copy shall be sent to the family of our late distinguished Judge who was the honored companion of each of you who knew him so intimately on the Bench.

Committee:
HOPE H. BARROLL,
SIDNEY P. TOWNSHEND,
S. SCOTT BECK.

After adoption of aforegoing resolutions, court adjourned for the day.

TUESDAY, OCT. 17.

Court called at 9:30 a. m., with Judges Wickes and Keating on the bench.

Case of State vs. Geo. Houston, continued from Monday was concluded and verdict of guilty rendered.

Case of State vs. Albert Saunders, plea of guilty. Fined $15.00 and costs.

Grand Jury brought in true bills in the presentment of Earnest Phillips Wilbur Toulson, Oscar Chambers, Arthur Hyland and Will Walters.

Grand Jury also brought in the following presentments.

Thomas White, assault and battery; Martin Thomas, entering dwelling house; Charles Jarrell, larceny.

Case of Stewart Fruit Co., vs. Wm. H. Casey was called andjury empanelled 23; Harry C. Cacy, Wm. M. Wagner, George Howard, C. Romie Skirven, John W. Downey, Charles L. Dodd, H. C. Hendrickson, Thomas C. Roe, Jesse E. Island, Walter S. Hill, Conlyn E. Noland and Richard Groves.

Grand Jury brought in presentments as follows.

Archie Poor, for non support; Edgar Floyd, for assault and battery.

Grand Jury made their final report and was discharged with thanks of the court, subject to recall.

Court adjourned until Wednesday morning.

Boy Scouts For Eastern Shore

Boys on the Eastern Shore are to be organized into a number of Boy Scout troops all working togather in harmony and under one geneal council with one purpose, namely, to train the individual boy to grow up into worthwhile manhood. This is the plan of the Boy Scout Council which was formulated on Tuesday afternoon at the Anmory here when a meeting was called to order of representatives from seven different counties.

The gathering consisted of leaders from the various communities who have asembled to take up the boy problem in their respective sections. All were firm beleivers in the vast amount of good accomplished by the Boy Scout of America and all were eager to inaugurate a movement here on the Shore that would result in a centralization of authority that would be responsible for a hugh Boy Scout Council.

After throughly going over the subject, the representatives from each of the following counties was heard from: Kent, Caroline, Queen Anne, Dorchester, Talbot, Somerset, Worchester, Accomac and Wicomico. It was then voted to form a first class Council which would include the above-named couties.

Officers of the new organization were elected as follows: President, John A. Noble, of Preston; Vice President, D. A. A. Parker of Pocomoke; Charles F. Brougham, of Easton; L. A. Bennett, of Salisbury ,Treasurer; Fred Webb, of Salisbury, Scout Commissioner C. E. Collins, of Crisfield.
